

Cornhusker Baseball Nine Sweep Opening Series

Coach Tony Sharpe's Nebraska baseball team swept a two-game series with Southern Methodist Monday and Tuesday in the 1948 season openers.

The Huskers won Monday's battle, 10-8, and walloped the Dallas, Texas school, 19-7, in Tuesday's encounter.

In the opening game, the Huskers put on a two-run eighth-inning rally to break an 8-8 tie and win the game. Elroy Gloystein was the winning pitcher for Nebraska. He relieved Jim Sandstedt in the sixth inning. Gloystein gave up five runs in the sixth before retiring the side and then blanked the Mustangs the rest of the game.

Grogan Tops Hitters

Bob Grogan was the Huskers' top hitter. He cracked two doubles and a single in four trips to the plate. The two doubles were the only extra base hits of the game. Bob Schleiger and Bob Cerv each hit two singles for the Cornhuskers.

Southern Methodist's all-American football player, Doak Walker, Lynch and Jensen, each hit twice for the Southerners.

Tuesday's one-sided contest was marked by errors, wild pitching, walks and passed balls. The game was close until Southern Methodist's Billy Knott took over the pitching duties in the sixth. He gave up ten runs off eight hits.

Cerv Collects Three

Bob Cerv was the Huskers' big gun at the plate. The Weston slugger hit three times, one a homer, and scored three runs. Hobe Hays and Willard Branson also collected a home run apiece. Bob Schleiger, Husker first stickler, hit two safeties.

Three Nebraska hurlers saw action and held the Mustangs to two blows. But the SMU cause was helped by seven walks and four Husker errors. Angelo Ossino, only veteran Nebraskan to hurl, struck out two and walked one in pitching two innings of hitless ball. Jack Helmsing was given credit for the victory.

The Cornhuskers will open a two-game series against Oklahoma at Norman Friday.

Gopher Board Accuses UN Of Foul Play

If the University of Nebraska is guilty of the charges, Minnesota University had a perfect right to accuse the Cornhusker school of luring their student basketball manager away from Minneapolis.

The Gopher athletic board charges that Coach Harry Good lured Minnesota's ace student manager, Sven Svenson, away from his duties with the Golden Gophers cage team by offering him more water bottles per game.

Only comment from the Nebraska camp was that Minnesota had used Sven long enough and that he should be passed around to some of the other schools. The Husker athletic office is prepared to meet any armed attack from the far-north school.

Classes scheduled to meet in University Hall will not be held tomorrow. The Audobon Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Birds has requested that students be removed from the building following a nervous breakdown—en masse—by large number of our "feathered friends" whose home construction and vocal work have been seriously impaired by the presence of "people."

IM Department Offers Another Spring Event

If Nebraska University's intramural activities swing into action on a new front Monday, the interfraternity and independent motor scooter 1948 tournament will take the spotlight.

1947 Tourney Largest.

Last year's tourney was one of the largest in the school's history with 400 teams in the competition. Thigma Drinka Stronga Beera walked off with the interfraternity championship, and the Magnanima Moronas copped the independent title. Thigma Drinka won 249 matches while losing only one, and the Moronas were victorious in all 250 of their matches.

No Big Mogul Declared.

No all-University champion was declared due to the shortage of high octane gasoline which is needed to run the scooters. Each of the two championship teams will receive a two-inch trophy, and the individual team members will be awarded tickets to the Vaughn Monroe dance in the Coliseum on Ivy Day.

Same Rules.

The rules for this year's tournament will be the same as those in previous years. Each team must have four scooters in every relay race. A white flag will be carried by each driver as he makes his speed run around the stadium track. The flag will be passed on to each driver until all four have circled the track 20 times. A beverage stand will be erected in front of the judges box in the east stands. Beer and Scotch will be given to any driver who desires a slight pick-up.

Entries By Friday Morning.

Entry blanks must be submitted to 1709 Coliseum before 3:00 a. m. Friday. The intramural department urges all interesting groups to compete in this thrilling sport.

Golf Meeting

All golf candidates will meet in the N-Club room of the Coliseum Saturday afternoon at 4:30. Coach Dougal Russel announced Wednesday. Any men interested are urged to attend the meeting.

Fem Fun

If the duckpin tournament means anything to Nebraska athletic females, it will begin Monday, April 32. The complete time schedule for the 60-day tournament will be posted on the stop sign just west of the Social Science building Sunday night.

All teams interested should notify the W.A.A. office not later than Wednesday, March 31. If your scheduled time is not satisfactory to all members of your team, that's too bad. You lose.

The semi-finals of the badminton tournament will be played 11:30 a. m. March 30. The Misses Stratton and Branch will battle Misses Battey and Stuht. The winners of this game will meet Bock and Blackstone, winners over Black and Beyer.

Finals will be held in 302 Men's Dorm, April 10 at 5:14 a.m.

NU Gridders Pledge Support To Coach Clark

If there is a big question in the minds of spring footballers right now, it is when will the training program come to an end. Coach Patsy Clark has put forth a sustained training program which he claims, if followed, will give Nebraska a cinch mythical national title in 1949-50.

The present squad of 177 play-ton will be expected to drill straight through to September, taking off only a week in July to rest up and visit their families.

The vast majority of squad members have given their overall approval of the plan and have pledged their last ounce of strength to Patsy.

JEFFERSON'S ROUGH DRAFT OF THE DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE

A Declaration by the Representatives of the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, in General Congress assembled

When in the course of human events it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth the separate and equal station to which the laws of nature and of nature's god entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

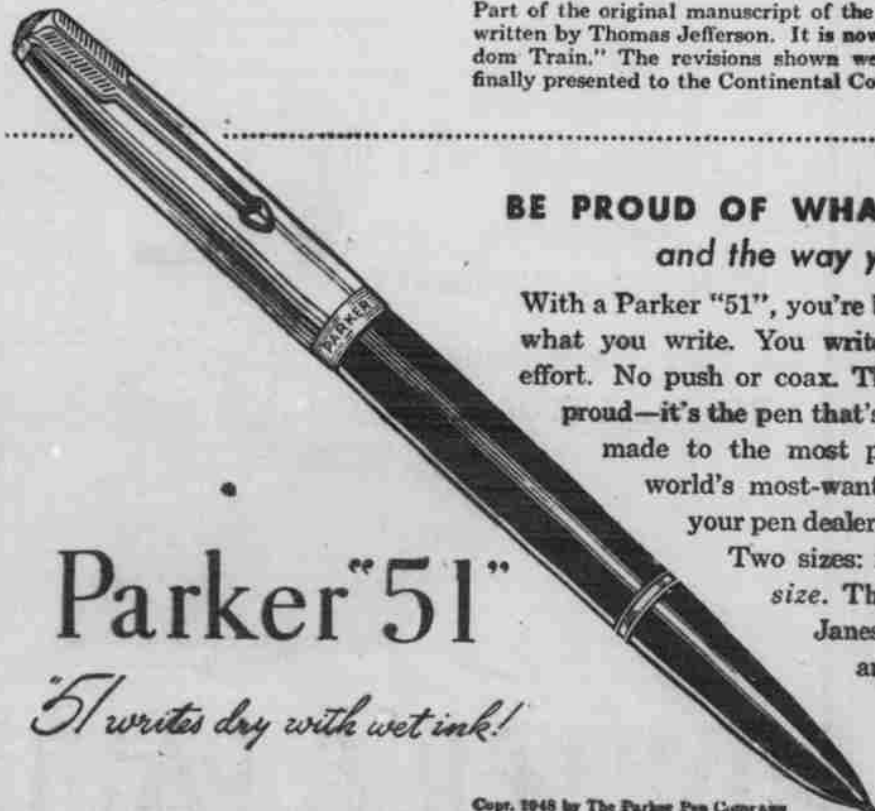

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights, that among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness; that to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed; that whenever any form of government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the right of the people to alter or to abolish it, & to institute new government, laying its foundation on such principles & organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall appear most likely to promote their safety and happiness.

That the right of the people to alter or to abolish it, & to institute new government, laying its foundation on such principles & organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall appear most likely to promote their safety and happiness.

That the right of the people to alter or to abolish it, & to institute new government, laying its foundation on such principles & organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall appear most likely to promote their safety and happiness.

That the right of the people to alter or to abolish it, & to institute new government, laying its foundation on such principles & organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall appear most likely to promote their safety and happiness.

Part of the original manuscript of the Declaration of Independence, written by Thomas Jefferson. It is now on display aboard the "Freedom Train." The revisions shown were included in the document finally presented to the Continental Congress.
