Ag Farmers Fair Convo Set Today

The The all Ag college con- traditional rodeo will be held on vocation to acquaint student with the grounds south of the Union the Farmers' Fair is at 4 p. m. today in 301 Dairy Industries building, according to Dean W. W. Burr.

The Fair, scheduled May 1 on the Ag campus, is the first since before the war. Since few stu-dents who are now on the campus have ever seen a Farmers' Fair, the fair board decided there would be more interest if students knew more about the fair.

Movies to be Shown.

Motion pictures of past fairs will be shown by Dr. F. D. Keim. Miss Elinor Nevin, a pas mem-ber of the Farmer's Fair board, will describe several of the fairs that the public should be wel-of Pre-War years. This year's comed annually and given free of Pre-War years. This year's plans will be presented and commented upon by the board.

Classes will not be dismissed but students having classes at 4 p. m. may ask to be excused to attend the convocation. All students who do not have always a standard to the convocation. dents who do not have classes are urged to come, Rick Wahlstrom, fair board manager, said, Events Listed

A tentative list of events has been released by the board. The

Vote Requirement Topic of YW Meet

The question of voting requirement in YW elections will be discussed and decided at an allmembership meeting April 7 at 7:15 in Ellen Smith hall.

YW officers are stressing the importance of the meeting and all members are urged to attend. The previous policy of attendance at four meetings in order to vote will be open to discussion and suggestion for possible modifica-

President Barbara Speer and Vice-President Shirley Sabin will be in charge of the meeting. A skit will be under the direction of Dorothy Ichinaga and Dorothy Borgens and there will be group singing entertainment.

building. A temporary arena is to be constructed. All Ag de-partments will hold open house for the public. A pre-fair dance, a midway, square dancing, and a program for women will also be featured at the 1948 Farmer's Fair.

The fair was first held in 1915, complete with a merry-go-round, glides, and admission charge. A fence was put up around the festivities to keep out curious bystanders, and a general carnival spirit prevailed.

Idea Abandoned. This idea of the fair was soon abandoned, because the board felt access to the show.

Highlights of previous shows have been the Kangaroo Kourt, "O" street parade, pageant, rodeo, open house, and "tanking" for failure to appear in the required print and overalls.

Taft Is First Republican Candidate to Speak Here Ohio Senator's Speech

Engineers to Hear Chem Expert at April 30 Convo

of Monsanto Chemical Company sistant Director and Director of will be the main speaker at the development. At present, besides annual engineering convocation to be held at 11 a.m., Friday, April 30 in the Stuart Theatre.

Curtis' address is but one of mittee. the many special events to feature Engineer's Week to be held Thursday, April 29 and Friday, April 30.

Other events include Open House from 2:30 p.m. to 11 p.m., on Thursday, the Pioneer Park Field Day events and the concluding annual Engineer's Banquet in the Union Friday.

Surtis has had a wide range of experience in the chemical engineering field. He has worked with both the Merrimac and MonsantoChemical Companies, For

Francis J. Curtis, Vice President | Monsanto, he has served as Asbeing Vice President, he is secretary of the Executive com-

The engineer's other activities include the directorship of the American Institute of Chemical Engineers and Chairman of its committee on junior activities. He is also a past chairman of the American Chemical Society's Division of Industrial and Engineering Chemistry.

Election Rules

Official Interpretation of Article IV, ection IV of the By-Laws of the Ju-iciary Committee of the Student section IV of the By-Laws of the Judiciary Committee of the Student Council:

"No vote shall be solicited at the polls or in the building in which the election is being held during election day."

"No vote shall be solicited" shall mean no person eligible to vote for any candidate shall, in any way, by means of the speken or written word or any other means, be influenced at the polls or while in the building where the election is being held, to cast his or her vote for any particular candidate.
"At the polls or in the building, and within fifty feet of the building, and within fifty feet of the building, in which the election is being belo. "The Daily Nebraskan shall publish on the regular publication day prior to the election an impartial election edition" shall mean equal publicity of all candidates and of all political parties."
"Impartial election edition" shall mean equal publicity for each candidate without editorial and staff comment, with the same nature of information, identical style of type, pictures of the same size for all if used, and the like for each candidate and political party.
"No printed, misneographed, typed or otherwise mechanically printed material sor any handbills in behalf of any randidate or party shall be permotited."
"Any candidate violating these rules either in person or thru his supporters shall thereby be declared ineligible by The Judiciary Committee upon the presentation of one continities upon the presentation of one continities of a party or candidate who is found guilty of attempting to disqualify in any malicious manner his or his party to opponents.

"The Student Council has created an Election Publicity committee to approve clous manner his or his party to oppoments.

"The Student Council has created an Election Publicity committee to approve and administrate all election campaign publicity. This committee shall consist of four members the chairman being a member of the Student Council Elections Committee with the other three members being appointed from the Council."

The Election Publicity Committee shall have authority to:

1) specify each year the number of hand made posters to be used by each party and each candidate with no moore than six posters per party and no more than four posters per candidate;
2) receive all posters from all candidates and parties, to be posted by the Council members only after the committee approval has been obtained.

The Election Publicity Committee

for appointments to be interviewed the following week of April 12-14. All counselors selected will be notified by mail. Good Counselors are selected on personality,

Set in Union at 2 Today

The first of three national political figures to speak here this week, Senator Robert Taft of Ohio, will appear in the Union Ballroom this afternoon at 2 p.m. The speech, a student convocation, will be closed to the public.

Rotarians, Kiwanians and Lions at the Cornhusker hotel. He has also planned speeches at Hastings, Crete, Beatrice and Nebrask City.

At the same time Takk city.

At the same time, Taft's wife will be in the state campaigning Announces 11 for her husband.

Missed Nomination Twice

Long a Republican leader in Congress, Taft has twice before sought the G.O.P.'s presidential nomination; in 1940, when Wendell Willkie won, and in 1944, when Tom Dewey copped the prize. The Ohioan is widely regarded as one of the conservative faction's top spokesmen in the Senate.

Should Taft win the nomination and election, he will be the second in his family to live in the White House. His father, Wilter and principles of the society by Lee Lovan, first lieutenant of the company. liam Howard Taft, won on the Republican ticket and served from 1909 until 1913. The elder Tett was sandwiched between two of the United States' most famous presidents — Theodore Roosevelt and Woodrow Wilson,

Others Here Thursday

Two other GOP candidates will appear here Thursday: Harold Stassen at 2:45 p.m., probably in the Union Ballroom; and Thomas Dewey, at 8 p.m. in the Coliseum.

According to Duane Lake, Union director, Taft's speech will be broadcast in the Union's Main Lounge to take care of an expected overflow crowd.

Johnson Calls Farmers' Fair

With the date for Farmers' Fair less than four weeks away, Vaughn Johnson, Farmers' Fair Rodeo head, has called for a meetbe held Saturday, April 10 from held at 7 p.m. Wednesday, April 8:30 to 11:30 in the College Activities building on Ag campus, 7, in the Ag Union.

Construction has begun on the rodeo arena but much volunteer student labor will be required to bring it to completion by May 1. Many students have brought their own horses to ready for competi-tion but more help will be required to handle other stock. Anyone interested in playing in the cowboy band which is to appear in the parade and also on the rodeo program is urged to attend this special meeting.

Johnson emphasized the fact that all persons who would like to compete in any of the various events or help with the handling of the stock should come to the meeting in order that drawings for competition animals and arena assignments may be made.

Delian Contest Winners Told

Winners of the Delian Union, literary society, short story con-test were announced at the society's annual spring banquet in the Union, April 3. The winners are Mary Wilber, Luigi Savastano and Donald Danker, Miss Wilber's stories, "The Gamble," and "Innocent" won first place for her. Second place was awarded to Luigi Savastano, Arts and Sciences freshman, for his story, "Life and the Mind." Donald Danker, Teachers College senior, took third place with his short story, "The Bugle of Biak."

Guest speaker for the banquet was E. V. Telle, Instructor in Romance Languages. Royal Seiffert, freshman in the College of Business Administration, was master concluded with dancing.

Cadet Pledges

Eleven cadet officers were announced as pledges of Co. C-3, Scabbard and Blade, honorary military science fraternity, by William Brandt, company com-mander. The cadets were pledged at a smoker Thursday in the

The officers were introduced to

A talk on "evasion," the operation designed to get downed American airmen out of occupied countries during the war was given by Capt. E. M. Gershater, a former member of Co. C-3, and an intelligence officer in Europe with the secret MISX, evasion organization

The following cadet officers were announced as new pledges of the company: Cadet Major Donald Hendickson, Lake Charles, La.; Cadet Captains Stanley Ahrends Diller Charles Kellogg rends, Diller, Charles Kellogg, Lincoln, John Steinbacher, Omaha, Reuben Miller, Sidney, Cadet Second Lieutenants Dana Rasmussen, Omaha, William Wilkins, Geneva, William McCauley, Lincoln, Dale Wenzl, Lincoln, Roswell Howard, Omaha, Robert Hahn, Fremont, and Gerhard Schmunk, Gering.

Rodeo Meeting Estes Carnival Set Saturday

The annual Estes Carnival will according to Harriet Moline, general chairman. All university stu-

All organizations and houses on Ag campus will have booths in the gymnasium, Prizes will be awarded to the winning booths, to be judged on their originality and cleverness. The awards will be made at 10 p. m.

The Carnival is sponsored by the YM-YW campus groups to raise funds to send representatives to the summer Estes Conference in Colorado.

A juke-box dance will be held along with the Carnival. There will be no admission charge.

Georgi Outlines New Processes Of Fermentation

Dr. Georgi, professor of bacteri-ology, outlined three types of fer-mentation processes at the meet-ing of the student chapter A.L.

Ch. E., last week. "Fermentation," boomed Dr. Georgi, "is the utilization of carbohydrates by micro-organisms." Political as well as economic factors determine which starchy saccharine of cellulose substance will be the starting raw material.

In developing the subject he traced, in road map style, the production of ethyl alcohol, of butyl alcohol, and acetone, and of citric acid; examples of a yeast, bacterial, and mold fermentation respectively. Dr. Georgi has introduced the chemical engineers to the bio-chemical aspects of chemical engineering by his two talks before the society this year. as an encore, interest in the organization and of ceremonies. The program was

Five Seniors Will With Symphony Tonight

seniors, will appear in concert

Soloists in order of appearance are James Price, viola; Donnie Wageman, soprano; Jack Snider, French horn; Robert Anderson, bass-baritone; and Bonnie Comp-Movements from ton, piano. standard concertos and operatic arias make up the solo selections. The orchestra will perform Glin-ka's Overture to "Russian and Ludmilla."

Mozart Favored.

Mozart compositions have been chosen by three of the five soloists, with Miss Wageman singing an aria from "The marriage of Figaro," Miss Compton performing the allegro from the piano concerto in E flat, and Snider playing the "Concerto in E flat for French Horn." Price will perform the entire Handel viola concerto in B minor, while Anderson has chosen an aria from Verdi's opera, "Ernani."

All the instrumental soloists are members of both the University and Lincoln symphony orchestras. Price plays first viola in the student organization and oboe as well. He is a member of the Faculty String Quartet, and was re-cently guest soloist with the Hastings symphony orchestra.

Instrumentalists.

Holding French horn posts in both university and Lincoln or-chestras, Snider is also president of the ROTC varsity band, and Smith Hall. president of Phi Mu Alpha, music fraternity of which all the male soloists are members. Miss Compton, the third instrumental- to 5 p.m.-on each of these days.

Five soloists, elected by popular vote of the School of Music both orchestras.

Robert Anderson, who sang a with the University Symphony Orchestra tonight at 7:30 under the direction of Emanuel Wish-duction of "Carmen," was one of now. The concert is an annual three state winners who will ap-event, open to the public without pear in Carnegie Hall, New York, on April 20th, as a winner in a nation-wide search for young American musical talent. a member of Kappa Sigma faternity.

Donnie Wageman, soprano, is a voice major, and directs the Tabernacle Christian choir in Lincoln. She is a member of Sigma Alpha Iota, music professional, and of Alpha Omicron Pi.

Dr. Harvey to Talk At Nu-Med Meeting

Gynecology and Obstertrics will be the subject of a speech to be given by Dr. H. E. Harvey, Lincoln Gynecologist, at the April meeting of the Nebraska Nu-Meds to be held Wednesday evening in parlor X of the Union.

According to Walt Sehnert, Nu-Med publicity chairman, all studénts planning to attend the meeting must sign the dinner list outside Dr. Powell's office in the 3rd floor of Bessey Hall by Tuesday. The dinner will precede the meeting at 6:15.

Filings for Coed Counselors Open

Filings for Coed Counselors to serve for the coming year will be open through Thursday at Ellen

Contrary to letters previously sent to organized houses, the hours for filings are from 9 a.m.

ist will close the program as piano | At this time coeds must sign-up | scholastic standing.