

Jayhawks Edge Huskers In Opening Cinder Meet

Kansas University came through in the final two events to win a dual track meet Saturday in Lawrence from Nebraska, 66 2/3 to 64 1/3

The Cornhuskers led, 64 1/3 to 57 2/3, with the javelin and the mile relay to be run. Kansas' quartet of Dick Wagstaff, Bill Binter, John Stites and Dick Shea raced to victory in the relay.

Kansas still needed the first two places in the javelin to overtake the Huskers. Bob Drumm and Bruce Henoch turned the trick by placing first and second. Leroy Robinson took third to give the Jayhawks a clean sweep in that event.

Karnes Wins Two

Hal Moore, Kansas' distance star, was unable to compete because of illness, but Bob Karnes took over and led the milers and two-milers to the tape.

Al Thompson of Omaha, Nebraska sprinter and hurdler, captured high point honors for the Nebraska team with 11 points. He won the 220-yard dash and finished second in both the 100-yard dash and the low hurdles. Thompson clipped off the 220 in :21.7.

Dick Hutton, Auburn speed specialist, turned in an outstanding :09.7 performance as he won the century event. Hutton also pushed Thompson in the 220 to take second place.

Cooper Cops Vault

Don Cooper returned to competition for the Huskers in the pole vault. The York athlete won his speciality at 12 feet 7 inches. Jim Myers and Jim McConnell took second and third, respectively, to give Nebraska a clean sweep in that event. Nebraska also swept the high hurdles. Jones, Magsamen and Berkshire took first, second and third, respectively.

Wayne Sees of Nebraska surprised with a first place in the discus. He hurled the platter 131 feet 1-1/2 inches.
