

Straight Stuff

BY SUSIE REED.

Most everybody came to class with sand in their hair Monday morning; it seems that we had some fine picnic weather last weekend.

The Phi Psi's opened their picnic season with an open air festival (with food) Saturday night. It began out at Pioneer Park and wound up at the Phi Psi domain. Sandy Crawford's little sister came down from Omax to picnic with Gordon Gealy. Jane McArthur and Ann Kenner, who seem to have taken up permanent residence there as of late, were seen milling around with standbys John Connelly and Filthy McClymont.

Man Goes Overboard

South Bend was crowded Sunday with Betas, Sig Alphas, ATO's and Phi Deltas. After pulling brother Bruce Bergquist out of the drink, the Sig Alphas spent the rest of the afternoon playing football. Nobody knows how they spent the evening.

Around the Phi Delt campfire were Bob Phelps and Pat Nordin, Tom Harley and Jo Johnson, Bill Stewart and Marion Battey, Jim Edee and Marg Muscheites, Jack Cady and an old flame. Some of the more energetic people in the crowd even hiked to the local general store for two loaves of bread, some candy bars, and a box of oyster crackers.

Betas Left Stranded

Nobody knows if the Betas ever made it home from the picnic. They were last seen waving a white flag as they huddled together on the sandy shore.

The DU's had their picnic at Roberts Park. A delightful time was had by all.

The Kappa Sig "Prohibition" Party turned out to be quite a free-for-all. Jackie Wightman led the reform movement with Randy Ewing. And everyone had a bang-up time out Phi Gam way as they entered through the "rear" door for the Phi Gam "Gay Nineties" Party. Charlie Orr brought D.G. G.G. Dinsmore, Tom Peterson escorted Joel Bailey, and Bobbie DeJarnette tagged along with George Coupe. We understand that Bobbie also gave some of her free time to an ex-pinnate last weekend.

Seniors . . .

The Chancellor's third point was in the form of a suggestion from the Alumni activity board, who had asked him if the seniors would be willing to squire alums through the university following the luncheon.

With so much political activity on the campus recently Notes of the Week include some startling news . . . a women's faction of blushing rose shade has announced their candidate for president as DUGIE DOYLE, Lincoln law student . . . in releasing this campus-shaking news the coeds announce they are "way behind their candidate. . ." Miss I. C. Awl, publicity chairman states, "DUGIE'S a darling boy! We think DUGIE would make a darling president!" . . . immediate reaction came from the LAWYER'S LOYALTY LEAGUE endorsing the candidate as a "representative American boy" but warning voters the DOYLE platform contained "some knotty loopholes." At a rally staged at the Delta Omicron Nu house by the Glass Blowers Union, MR. DOYLE accepted the nomination as a "citizens call to arms" and stated he felt honored that he had been called upon to serve his country in such a capacity. Addressing the group he said, "We all know that we must work hard to get a head. I feel confident that I am a self-made man. An ambitious lawyer needs the office. I want reform. I want housing reform. I want educational reform. I want—" Voice from the audience, "Chloroform!" "The other party has been robbing the people for years. Now give us a chance!" And now that he was finished and the facts were before them, there existed a vast silence. It was a silence pregnant with possibilities; anything might be born of a calm such as that. But strange to say, absolutely nothing happened. They were all asleep!
