AER Pledges Five Members

Five pledges to Mu chapter of Alpha Epsilon Rho, national radio honorary, were announced last night at a special pledging ceremony at the Temple theater. They are: Russell Calahan, John Carson, Betty Laird, Dorothy Ogden and Darrel Peters.

Pledges to Alpha Epsilon Rho are selected on the basis of high scholarship in radio courses, scholarship above the all-campus average and outstanding work in radio.

The ceremony followed a short business meeting presided over by President B. J. Holcomb. A short address was given by the faculty sponsor, Paul L. Bogen, and after the ceremony, the group adjourned to the home of W. C. Dempsey, radio instructor, for a buffet supper.

Four radio students were recently initiated into Alpha Epsilon Rho. They were Carl Gengenbach, Bill Lucas, Gaylord Marr and Lydia Nekuda.

The organization voted earlier to present records to the record library of the radio section. Since that time, six albums and over 15 individual records have been donated to the library.
