Ag Student Center To Open Sunday

The Ag Student Center, 3357 Holdrege will be officially opened on Sunday, April 18, with an Open House from 2 to 5 p. m.

The center is housed in a white frame house on the corner of 34th and Holdrege. This is to be the permanent location of this branch of the Wesley Foundation. The Ag Center was begun in 1940 as the Foundation felt that there was a need for a Student Center on the Ag Campus.

Le Roy Seaver, the Assistant Director of the Wesley Foundation is in charge of the Ag Student Center and he and his family live at the Center.

While the project is sponsored by the Wesley Foundation, it is an interdenominational program and students of any faith are welcomed there.

University Alum Attends Inauguration at Baylor U

Roy Johnson, '45, now instructor in voice at Baylor University sat among administration and professorial dignitaries Wednesday at inauguration services for Baylor President W. R. White in Waco, Tex., Wednesday.

The circumstances under which Johnson was included was that Chancellor R. G. Gustavson was unable to attend for the University of Nebraska. As an alumnus of Nebraska, Johnson was invited to represent his alma mater at the impressive inauguration ceremony.

Johnson was heard as soloist in a number of opera and oratorio performances while an undergraduate here, and was president of Phi Mu Alpha, musical fraternity.
