

Hurling Gives Potsy Sends UN Two Wins Men Through Long Battle By 3-1, 5-2

Steady pitching by Jim Sandstedt and Elroy "Lefty" Gloystein gave the Nebraska Cornhuskers a sweep of a two-game series over Kansas State Friday and Saturday at the home grounds. The two tossers allowed a total of 6 hits during the series.

Friday's contest was an airtight pitching duel between Sandstedt and Jack Bell until the seventh, when the Scarlet iced the game with a two run splurge on doubles by Tom Novak and Fritz Hegwood and Hobe Hayes' single through the box.

Nebraska had opened the scoring in the last of the first. Hegwood, the leadoff batter, drilled a single into left and promptly stole second. The squat left-fielder took third on a grounder and came home when Grogan singled to center.

The Wildcats, held hitless for 5 and 2/3 innings, finally cashed in in the sixth when Sandstedt weakened momentarily to allow three singles and the opposition's only run.

Then came the Husker rally that spelled victory.

The home team threatened again in the eighth when Bill Denker slapped a low double to the left center fence, but he was erased at the plate trying to score all the way from second on an infield bouncer. The game ended 3-1, Nebraska.

Dana Atkins, quarterback for the Wildcats' grid team, was safe at first when Denker forced Bob Schleiger to reach into the baseline to catch a wide toss. The second-baseman took second on a grounder and scored when Chew lined one just over Denker's glove at third.

Nebraska countered in their half of the inning. Hegwood dropped a single in front of the center fielder. He advanced when Hobe Hayes drew a pass, but was cut down at the plate on Grogan's single. Bob Cerv, husky center fielder, had to be content with an intentional pass, loading the sacks.

Denker followed with a high fly to left, Hayes scoring after the catch.

The third inning was almost disastrous to Husker hopes. After Atkins popped to Hayes, Springer was safe when his grounder rolled through Schleiger's legs at first. Ted Grimes was also safe when Blatchford erred on his attempted sacrifice. Hayes then proceeded to bobble a hard hit grounder by Chew, loading the bases with one away.

Springer raced across home on a forced play at second, but Dale Carr flew to Cerv to end the rally.

The Scarlet tucked the game away for keeps with a 2-run outburst in the fifth. Hayes opened the inning with a single past third. After Bob Grogan flied out, Hayes stole second and took third on the catcher's throw into center. Cerv lined a low single into center, Hayes scoring easily. After Denker walked, Bill Grimes, the Starting Kansas State pitcher, was yanked and replaced by McClure, a small side-armor.

Cerv tallied the third NU run on Jim Sharp's fly to deep right field.

Nebraska added runs in the sixth and eighth. Hayes socked a double over the left fielder's head and scored when Grogan smashed a single to right.

In the eighth, Gloystein singled past first, took second on Hegwood's sacrifice and scored when Grogan sent his third hit into left field.

Potsy Sends Men Through Long Battle

Coach Potsy Clark sent his spring football men through a two-hour scrimmage session that netted six touchdowns and two extra points Saturday morning behind locked gates.

The combination of Halfback Jim Myers and Right End Bob Schneider teamed for the first tally. Myers threw a 40-yard pass to Schneider who went over standing up for the Blue eleven. Dick Hutton missed on the extra point attempt.

Number-two touchdown came when Bill Moomey started to his left, ran into a trap, and reversed his field to sprint 75 yards for the score. Moomey received nice blocking from the Blue line on the play. He then kicked the extra point.

Dougie Doyle pushed over from the one-yard line for the third score after Bruce Bergquist had tossed a 40-yard aerial to Howard Elliott, left end. Hutton took a red punt, returned it 40 yards to the five-yard stripe, and went through the center for another TD.

Hutton scored the final six-pointed of the morning when he skirted left end from the five. Myers' place kick try was good. Frank Collopy did some of the best running of the morning. The hard-driving Scottsbluff athlete displayed plenty of fire as he battered the Red line for substantial yardage.

Linemen who stood out on the Cornhusker teams were Charlie Toogood, Jim Godfrey, Bob Harrington, Fred Hawkins, Joe McGill, Sophus Larsen, and Warren Pizinger. Approximately 60 grid-ders saw action in the morning's scrimmages.
