

47th Ivy Day Festivities Scheduled Next Thursday

Ivy Day festivities for the 47th annual celebration will begin at 9 a.m. Thursday, April 29, when the University band will give a concert, under the direction of Donald Lentz.

The Ivy chain, composed of senior women, and the Daisy chain, composed of junior women, will be led into court by outstanding members of the two classes at 9:30.

Ralph Nelson, elected Ivy Day orator at the spring elections, will deliver his address at 10:00. Following the traditional oration will be the reading of the winning poem.

The 1 o'clock processional of the Ivy Day court will be preceded by selections by the university band. The interfraternity sing will begin at 1:15.

Shirley Hinds reigned as May Queen in 1947, and Marthella Holcomb was the maid of honor.

Law Fraternity Hears Delehant

John W. Delehant, U.S. district judge and a Lincoln resident, spoke at a Delta Theta Phi luncheon at noon Thursday on "A Decade of Progress in Federal Justice."

Delehant analyzed judicial decisions and their effect on substantive law, with their contributions to economy and simplicity.

The judge discussed the administrative offices of U.S. courts, and how the machinery of these courts has been facilitated lately.

Delta Theta Phi is a professional law fraternity on the campus.

Bobby Mills Orchestra Feature Of Ag Union DRL Hop Tonight

"Music by Mills" will be featured at the Ag Union DRL dance tonight from 9 to 12 in the ballroom of the College Activities building.

Bobby Mills and his orchestra, sponsored by a Chicago booking company, is being brought back to the Ag campus by popular request, according to the dance committee sponsoring the dance.

Widely publicized on Ag campus with mysterious DRL signs, the theme for the dance was announced as "dance, relax and listen" to the music of Mills and his orchestra.

Entertainment is also being planned for intermission by the Union dance committee, headed by Jack Dewulf.

Vet Notice

In accordance with a regulation of the Veterans Administration, all veterans under public law 346 who complete the academic year will automatically receive leave subsistence for 15 consecutive calendar days following the closing date of the year.

Any veteran who does not wish to have 15 days deducted should notify the Veterans administration in writing not later than 30 days before the end of the current semester or the summer session.

For those not attending summer session, May 6, 1948. For those attending short summer session, June 15, 1948. For those attending long summer session, June 30, 1948.

AAUP Desire Quarters For Club Near Campus

Nebraska chapter of the American Association of University Professors discussed the possibility and desirability of establishing quarters for the faculty club on or near the campus at the meeting of April 19.

Faculty club is now an unofficial organization of all faculty members of the university.

3 Honor Students Omitted From List

The registrar's office said Thursday that the names of three students had been inadvertently omitted from the University of Nebraska honors lists announced Tuesday.

They were: Edmund D. McFachen of Lincoln and Bruce F. Claussen of North Platte.

Math Honorary Chooses Officers

Pi Mu Epsilon, mathematics honorary, held its election of officers at the business meeting Wednesday.

Those elected were: Marlin Kroger, president; William Bade, vice president; J. Denny Cochran, secretary; Frederick Pelton, treasurer.

Publications' Filing Dates Announced

Filing dates for positions on the Cornhusker, Corn Shucks and Daily Nebraskan have been announced by Dr. William F. Swindler, director of the school of journalism.

Cornhusker and Corn Shucks filings will open Monday, April 26. Deadline for these applications will be the afternoon of Friday, May 7.

The publications board will meet the morning of Saturday, May 8th to make appointments to the magazine staffs.

Application blanks may be obtained for all three publications in the office of the school of journalism and when filled out may be left there.

The pub board will hold its final meeting of the year Saturday, May 29 to let contracts for all student publications for the coming year.

Finn to Speak Before City, Ag Lutherans

Miss Margareta Neovius will speak at both the Ag and city Lutheran groups on Sunday, April 25.

Miss Neovius, foreign secretary of the Student Christian Federation of Finland, is in the United States for one year, serving as guest staff member of the Student Service Commission of the National Lutheran council.

A graduate of the University of Helsinki, majoring in German philology, she taught English, Swedish and German for one year in the Normal high school in Helsinki.

During the two recent wars, Miss Neovius served with the Finnish women's auxiliary, the Lotta organization, a part of her time being spent on the front lines.

The city campus group will hear her at the First Lutheran church, 17th and A streets, at 5:00 p. m. and at the Ag Student center, 1200 North 37th street at 6:30 p. m.

Math Honorary Chooses Officers

Pi Mu Epsilon, mathematics honorary, held its election of officers at the business meeting Wednesday.

Those elected were: Marlin Kroger, president; William Bade, vice president; J. Denny Cochran, secretary; Frederick Pelton, treasurer.

Maurice D. Lamoree, instructor in mathematics, was the speaker of the evening and presented discussion on matrix algebra.

Dwane E. Lake, director of the Union, has announced that the tenth anniversary celebration of the Union will be held Saturday from 8-12 p.m.

The highlight of the celebration will be the birthday cake ceremony, conducted by Professor Linus Burr Smith, President of the Student Union board. The cake, a small replica of the Union, in complete detail, will be displayed in the west end of the lounge until 9:30 p.m.

Bob Easter's General Entertainment committee has planned dancing in the ballroom with Eddie Garner and his Orchestra; free Bingo games with assorted prizes; flicker follies, a series of old time melodramas, to be held in the XYZ Parlors.

Assisting Bob Easter in general arrangements are Esther Horst, and Lee Best. Committees for the evening are: games, Paul Weltchek, Joe Polack, and Roswell Howard.

Identification cards will be checked at the door on entering the Union. All committees are cooperating to provide a fitting celebration, free of charge, for the competition of the Union's first decade.

Iowa Author To Speak Here At Convocation

Dr. George Mowry, University of Iowa professor and author of several books, will speak at a convocation at 11 p. m. on April 30 in the auditorium of Love library as a part of the thirty-fifth annual meeting of the Nebraska History Teachers association.

"Making Foreign Policy in Your Own Backyard," will be Dr. Mowry's subject. Besides teaching American History at Iowa, he is author of "American Society in a Changing World," "Theodore Roosevelt and the Progressive Movement," and other books.

Dean C. H. Oldfather will preside at the convocation.

During the meeting of the Nebraska History Teachers association, April 30 and May 1, Dr. Mowry will give two other addresses to the members.

Dance Available Tickets for Fair

Tickets will go on sale today in the Ag Union for the Pre-Farmers Fair dance to be held Friday, April 30, in the ballroom in the College Activities building.

At the dance, the Goddess of Agriculture and the Whisker King will be presented. At 11:30 p. m. all dancers will go to the barbeque pits out of doors for a rally and the lighting of the pits for the barbeque the next day.

Agriculture Dean Lauded At Banquet

Dean W. W. Burr, of the Nebraska College of Agriculture, was termed a specialist in "pay dirt" during a banquet in recognition of his contributions to agriculture, at the Union Thursday night.

J. C. Russell, professor of agronomy, stated further that besides the Dean's excellence in administering education in agriculture, Burr had also done a great deal in research work on soil moisture conservation.

Dean Burr will retire from the University, after 21 years as Dean of Ag college, next fall. More than 500 guests attended the banquet to honor the retiring dean and his family.

Filings for 300 Scholarships Close Saturday

Filing deadline for some 300 scholarships, totalling $40,000, has been set for Saturday, April 24th. The filings should be made at the office of the dean of student affairs, at 104 Administration building.

"All too frequently students are modest about scholastic achievement and rather bashful in applying for these grants. I wish to urge that all students whose grade averages are fairly high, apply for these scholarships," Dean R. J. Thompson said.

'N' Club Names New Members

The ranks of the University Varsity "N" club will swell to 190 members next Wednesday night at a Hillcrest country club banquet.

Initiation of 24 new "N" wearers will be the high point of the evening. Four coaches and 20 athletes will be initiated.

No new initiate shall wear his "N" sweater, but all shall bring all other required initiation material. Active "N" men will wear sweaters.