Fair Broadcast To Feature Band

All students are invited to attend a radio program which will be aired today at 2:30 over KFOR in the Temple building. The program, featuring a 10 piece brass band, will include interviews with Farmers Fair Board members.

Conducted by Paul Schupbach, the program is to advertise the Farmers Fair Saturday. The band, which will play several selections, is the band that will play for the Farmers Fair parade and rodeo. It is made up of members of the University Pep band.

All spectators are requested to be in room 24 Temple building at least by 2:20 p.m. so that the program may go on at exactly 2:30. The program is being held in a large music room and there will be room for many spectators, according to Schupbach.

Farmers Fair Board members to be interviewed include: Rick Wahlstrom, Fair manager, Don Kellog, Jim Curtis, Lucy Manning and Frank Stewart.

Cliff Wegener; third, Robert Howe; fourth Gene Hanson; fifth, Lester Stecker.
CATTLE: Won by Donald Smith; second, Otto Uhrig; third, Lavern Popken; tied for fourth, Cliff Wegener and Lorán Schmit.
HORSES: Won by Bill Stowell; tied for second, Wesley Sandall and W. C. Copeland; fourth, Lyle Davis; fifth, Bob Gibson.

Aggies Ready Farmers Fair Displays

At a meeting in the lounge of the military building Monday evening, April 26, The Pershing Rifles, an honorary military society, initiated Lt. Col. Merle J.

Senn (Corps of Engineers) and Major Larue S. Sorrell (United States Air Force) as honorary members. The officers are instructors in the military department.

As pictured at left, Marilyn Kuhlman, Lillian Lock, and Vi Vosika put the finishing touches on their exhibit for the open house program for the Farmers Fair. Each department at Ag college will have open house programs, including demonstrations, exhibits and displays.

The department with the best open house display will be awarded a plaque which is presented by the Ag Exec Board. Open House will be held from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Farmers Fair day, May 1, at Ag college. All students and friends of Ag college are invited.
