Leger Tapped Innocents Prexy

The first man to hit the ground yesterday when the Innocents society stalked their 1948-49 members was Norm Leger. Thus, Leger was automatically named president of the senior men's honorary for the coming year.

Stan Johnson, retiring president, tapped the first of the thirteen new Innocents, he sped a full 20 feet behind Leger before he threw the tackle.

Irwin Chesen was tackled by Lee White, past treasurer, and retiring sergeant-at-arms Rod Franklin revealed Walt Dorothy as his successor.

The other junior men named to the honorary society at the Ivy Day festivities yesterday at 4 p. m. were: Robert Hamilton, Robert Easter, Norbert Tiemann, John Osler, Dick Schlusser, Frank Loeffel, Edward Trumble, and Dale Ball.

THE IVY.
BY MARION COLLINS.

Among the tall and gnarled elms,
Down long, digressing campus
walks,
Near sloped rooftops sun-gleam
lit
To walk, and feel Nebraska
winds,
Softly now, yet strong;
How brave our dream, how bold
in which we meet!

Shadows fall forlorn
Across the cloistered way
Of placid years remembered.
And this our hour creeps
Into the yesterdays,
White, sunless clouds a pattern
Which traces
And ivy gently grows.
