

Nebraska Football Candidates Finish Spring Drills Saturday

Nebraska University's spring football drills came to a close Saturday afternoon with a final scrimmage session on the stadium practice field.

The afternoon's play produced seven touchdowns and three extra points. The opening teams were composed of men from the Blue squad. The No. 1 combination had Ralph Damkroger and Alex Cochrane, jr., at ends, Charles Toogood and Fred Golan at tackles, John Sedlacek and Rex Hoy at guards, Hubert Unger at center, Bob Costello at quarter, Gerald Ferguson and Cletus Fischer at halves, and Frank Collopy at fullback.

Linemen on the number 2 eleven were Bob Schneider and Howard Fletcher at ends, Dick Goeglein and Clayton Frazier at tackles, Bill Rolfsmeyer and Warren Pizinger at guards, and Bob Mullen at center. Backs were Chick Story at quarter, Ken Fischer and Don Bloom at halves, and Darwin Salestrom at fullback.

Opening Touchdown

The opening touchdown of the afternoon came when Cletus Fischer went around his left end for eight yards. Bob Costello, Lincoln place kick artist, booted the extra point.

John Sedlacek took his share of the laurels when he intercepted a partially blocked pass against the Red team and raced 30 yards for the second tally of the afternoon. Costello again made the conversion.

Score No. 3 came on a pass from Ken Fischer to End Bob Schneider. Fischer's extra point attempt was unsuccessful. Bob Ackerman, who did some nice running for the Blue eleven, set up the fourth score when he went around his right end for 20 yards to the Red one. George Bostwick then skirted his left end to give the Blues a 19-0 advantage.

Ferguson to Fischer

Cletus Fischer took a 25-yard pass from Ferguson for the next Blue touchdown. The Red's only score came when Ben Munson, quarterback from Lincoln, slipped through the center of the Blue line and sprinted 60 yards to paydirt. Roy Churchill faked a place kick and passed to End Sophus Larsen for the extra point.

The final tally of the afternoon came on a 40-yard pass from Ken Fischer to Fletcher. The final count gave the Blues a 31-7 victory.

Saturday's scrimmage enabled Coach Clark and his staff to take a final look at the Husker candidates. Patsy will invite back four teams for the early practice sessions in September.

Jayhawk Tennis, Golf Squads Win

Husker Nine Entertains KU

Nebraska's crippled baseball team opens a heavy week's schedule Monday when the Huskers entertain Kansas in a two-game series.

The Cornhuskers play six games within a stretch of eight days. Oklahoma meets the Nebraskans Friday and Saturday in Lincoln, and the unbeaten Colorado Buffaloes invade the Huskers May 10-11.

Jim Sandstedt, tall right hander with an earned run average of 1.8 in six starts, will get the pitching assignment for the Huskers Monday, Coach Tony Sharpe announced.

Wes Maser, outfielder who has been shelved by a sprained ankle, may return to action.

IM Tennis Tourney Starts Sunday, May 2

The 1948 Intramural tennis tournament swings into action today on three different courts. Due to restricted court problems, only the tennis singles tournament will be run off this year.

All first round matches will be played on Sunday, May 2, and any player not reporting on time for his first round match will automatically forfeit the match.

The tournament has been divided into four sections. The four winners of each section will be matched for the final playoffs. All preliminary matches to determine the four winners must be played Sunday. Pairing will be posted in the Coliseum for first round matches.

First Round Matches

First round matches will start at 7:30. Sections 1 and 2 will play at the Muni tennis courts at 22nd and M streets. Sections 3 will play at the South Street courts and Section 4 will play at the Coliseum.

Rackets must be furnished by the players. Each player must furnish three new balls for his match. The winner of each match takes the three unused balls, and the loser keeps the three that were used in the match.

All contestants should check their match on the pairings sheet in order to be on time for each of their matches. Anyone reporting late will be disqualified.

Four-Man Limit

Only four men may represent a group, and two men are necessary for the organization to qualify for team points.

A trophy will be given to the winning fraternity and a medal to the singles champion. Certificates will also be given to the four best players.

Phi Beta Kappa to Greet New Members at Buffet

Phi Beta Kappa will greet its new members of the class of 1948 at a buffet supper tonight at Ellen Smith Hall. D. J. Brown, chapter president, will preside over the meeting.

Initiation will be held after a program of music given by the University Faculty String Quartet made up of Emanuel Wishnow, Mrs. Joan Koupal, James Price, and Miss Carol Puckett. They will play "String Quartet in E Flat," Mozart; "Andante," Dittensdorf; "Interlude in Ancient Mode," Glazounow; "Nocturne," Borodin; and "Suite in the Olden Style," Op. 34. Warner.

Intramural Track, Field Carnival Opens Monday

Nebraska University's annual Intramural outdoor track and field relay carnival will get underway Monday and Tuesday afternoons from 5 to 6 p. m. in Memorial Stadium.

Every record will be threatened, and a great entry field is anticipated, according to Intramural Director L. E. Means. Any man in the University is welcome to compete unless he is a former letter man or has seen competition in regularly scheduled Nebraska meets, either indoors or outdoors, this year.

Events to be conducted are: 440 relay, 880 relay, sprint medley relay, 120-yard low hurdles, 1000-yard run, shot put, broad jump, high jump, discus and pole vault.

Each man may compete in not more than four events. Points will be given to the first six places in both the individual and relay events. Individual event scoring will be 7-5-4-3-2-1 with relay scoring, 13-10-8-6-4-2.

Monday's schedule of events is: 5:10, shot put and broad jump; 5:15, 440-yard relay; 5:35, sprint medley relay. Tuesday—5:10, pole vault and discus; 5:15, 120-yard low hurdles; 5:28, 880-yard relay; 5:30, high jump; 5:40, 1000-yard run.

Approximately 395 men competed in last year's classic. Field House won the meet championship, and Delta Upsilon took first among fraternities. The individual champion was Jack Barker, Sigma Nu.

Awards Given

A trophy will be awarded to both the winning fraternity team and the outstanding athlete of the meet. If an independent team wins the title, all participating members who score will receive official Intramural medals. Certificates will be given to all record breakers.

All-time relays records showing event, record, holder, year and organization respectively.

Grogan Leads Husker Batters With .391

Bob Grogan of Lincoln continues to lead Nebraska University's baseball nine in the batting department after 11 games.

Grogan slipped to .391 after getting only three safeties in the Cornhuskers' three Big Seven conference games against Missouri and Iowa State.

Fred Hegwood of Omaha leads the Husker shortstop in hitting, but Hegwood is out for the season with a broken leg.

Grogan leads four departments and shares a fifth in Nebraska's statistics. He and Bob Cerv, Weston outfielder, have each batted in nine runs. Grogan leads in total hits, 18, total bases, 24, two-base hits, 4, and stolen bases, 9.

Elroy Gloystein, Waco's left-handed hurler, tops the mound staff with three victories and one defeat. Big Jim Sandstedt has the lowest earned run average at 1.3. He has a 2-2 record in games won and lost.
