

Huff, Wenstrand Take Lead Roles in 'Shrew'

TAMING THE SHREW—Maggie Huff and Jack Wenstrand are shown in their leading roles in the next University theater production, Shakespeare's "Taming the Shrew."

Unusual roles are portrayed by leads Margaret Huff and Jack Wenstrand in the University theatre production, "Taming of the Shrew," to be presented May 12, 13, 14 and 15 in the temple.

Miss Huff takes the title role of "Katherine," the shrew. Wenstrand plays "Petruchio," whose attempts to tame the wild Katharine are the main feature of the production.

When asked to describe her role, Miss Huff declared that Katharine was supposed to be a very independent, devilish sort of girl.

Hates Men.

"She hates men in general," explained Miss Huff, "and is very temperamental and unpredictable. She is Shakespeare's attempt to show the social status of the women of that period."

"Katherine is exemplary of women as they were in the author's time. It is an excellent role but tiring as enacting Katharine presents a demanding situation," she added.

A Lincoln arts and sciences senior, Miss Huff is no newcomer to University theater circles. She is best remembered for her performance as Liza in "Pygmalion" for which she won the award of outstanding actress for 1946-47.

Has Other Appearances.

She has also appeared as the fortune teller in "The Skin of Our Teeth," as the vixen Lorraine in "The Man Who Came to Dinner," and in numerous experimental theatre and radio productions.

She is the holder of the cup for the outstanding radio actress of 1947-48 and is now a member of the Nebraska Masquers board of governors.

Wenstrand is well-remembered for his enacting of the gangster, Duke Mantee, in "The Petrified Forest." He is a freshman in law college from Lincoln.

Wenstrand's other roles have included the part of the archbishop in "Joan of Lorraine," and the role of MacDuff in "Macbeth." He is also a veteran of several experimental theatre productions.

Trumble Named to Pub Board; Contested Election Ruled Valid

Ed Trumble was elected to the position of senior member of the Publications board at a special election held Thursday. Other candidates were Shirlee Wallace and Norman Walker.

Election results were as follows: Trumble, 233 votes; Miss Wallace, 66; and Walker, 31. This election was held as a result of a contest filed by Miss Wallace when her name was omitted from the spring election ballot because of an oversight by the Student Council elections committee.

Thursday afternoon, Walter filed a letter of contest with Student Council judiciary committee chairman Dick Schlusener. The letter requested the council to hold the second election invalid on grounds that The Daily Nebraskan had published a pre-election news story which was not fair to him as a candidate because it mentioned the extra-curricular activities of the other two candidates without mentioning his. Through an unintentional oversight The Daily Nebraskan failed to state that Walker is a member of the Student Vets and a pre-med student.

Law Frat Names Bob Conrad Dean

Bob Conrad was elected dean of Delta Theta Phi, law fraternity, for the coming year at its luncheon May 6.

Other officers are T. B. Gaines, vice-dean; Jim Ganz, tribune; J. R. Higgins, clerk of the exchequer; John R. Jacobson, clerk of the rolls; John P. O'Brien, master of the ritual; Dick Rice, bailiff; and Roy Anderson, mess officer.

ing on the validation of the second election for pub board member stated:

"1. In the first election in which Walker received adequate and equal publicity in The Daily Nebraskan he was defeated by Trumble by a vote of 432 to 206.

"2. Second election his vote combined with the other losing candidate's votes totals less than one-third Trumble's vote."

"3. It is apparent that the students favored Trumble. Therefore the committee declares Trumble elected.

"4. Had The Daily Nebraskan failed to give adequate and equal publicity in the first election, the committee would have been compelled to uphold the protest.

"5. Although the protest was caused by an omission of The Daily Nebraskan, it is apparent that there was no political implication intended in the omission of publicity for Walker."

Final Registration Series Expected Next Tuesday

Registration is progressing much more rapidly than was anticipated and it is fully expected that the 7000 series will be posted by Tuesday. Students who are planning to register early must do so before this last number is taken up on Tuesday, according to G. W. Rosenlof, registrar.

Registrants must obtain their worksheet or schedule from Temporary A, before they can register in Temporary B. The registration procedure begins at the east door of Temporary A, at the east end of the corridor.

Today Will Mark Opening Of '48 Orchesis Spring Concert in Grant Memorial

The members of Orchesis will hold their annual spring concert, featuring dances "Thru the Ages," May 7 and 8 at 8:15 p. m. in Grant Memorial hall.

The program is sponsored by the department of physical education for women and the women's athletic association. The Orchesis group, headed by Marian Falloon, is under the direction of Dr. Aileen Lockhart and the pre-Orchesis group, which will also appear on the program, is directed by Dorothy Courtney.

Members Compose.

All the dances are composed by Orchesis members and will be accompanied by a piano, percussion, flute and organ ensemble. Mrs. H. H. Flood, accompanist for the physical education department, will be in charge of music for the concert.

The dance program includes:

- Primitive Ritual (the spirit of savagery), percussion, Miller.
- Ancient Mural (an awareness of form), Saffie.
- In a Cathedral (an ecclesiastical mood), Greig.
- Country Sketch (the natural gaiety of the folk), Miller.
- Pavane, Miller.
- Rigaudon (the artificial, polished spirit of the court), MacDowell.
- Waltz (a joyous Viennese waltz), Strauss.
- Spirit of the Ballet (the development of skill), Levitzki.
- Pioneer, Miller.
- Indian War Dance, traditional.
- Minuet (pre-Orchesis), Prokofieff.
- Folkay (pre-Orchesis), Gulon.
- Mechanization (the monotony of labor), Miller.
- Jazz Boogie, Bennett.
- A Day in the Service (men's group), arranged.
- Gershwiniana I, II, Gershwin.
- Three Fantastic Dances, Shostakovich.
- Orchesis Rehearsal, Karganoff.

Tickets Purchased.

Tickets for the concert may be purchased from any of the following members of Orchesis: Betty Aasen, Amy Jo Bergh, Martha Buckingham, Kathryn Copple, Marilyn Davis, Marian Falloon, Irma Lou Fisher, Marian Hamilton, Nancy Howey, Arlene Jacupke, Ruth Alice Johnson, Lois Kaminska, Georgia Lemon, Dorothy Meshier, Pat Meyer, Jo Moss, Patti Nutsch, Myrtis Rider, Pat Toof, Winifred Wolf.

Pre-Orchesis: Cherrie Ann Bengston, Marilyn Delehant, Beverly Ewald, Tone Fleming, Jackie Johnson, Dorothy Lathrop, Nancy Lieber, Jean Mann, Kay Moore, Adele Mulliken, Caroline Prokop, Mae Samuelson, Beverly Shuman, Opal Smith, Eleda Starch, Sally Turner, Sherrill Von Bergen, Phyllis Warner.

Men's group: James Howard, Charles House, Charles Jones, Andrew Morrow, Russell Tudor.

Jane Mott will be in charge of costumes for the production.

OMISSION.

Points for individual activities for men on varsity judging teams was omitted in the program printed in Wednesday's Daily Nebraskan, according to Ned Raun, chairman of the committee on the new program. Any member of the varsity judging team will be awarded 10 points in the total points for his organization.

10 to Compete In Intramural Speech Finals

Intramural speech contest finalists chosen last night from the 26 second round contenders for competition Saturday morning at 10 are: Dale Ball, Don Farber, Ted Gunderson, Dorothy Ogden, Jane McCuaig, Jackie Gordon, Douglas Peters, Maria Leipelt, Jean Dunbar and Elaine Lamphear.

Houses still in the running are Sigma Delta Tau, Sigma Alpha Mu and Sigma Alpha Epsilon. The house with the highest number of points will receive a cup and high individual, a silver gavel after the finals in the Temple.

In the second round of the contest, sponsored by Delta Sigma Rho, forensic honorary fraternity last night in the Temple, 26 of the original 47 entrants spoke on topics drawn Wednesday afternoon.

Walt Dorothy Elected to Head Interfrat Council Next Year

Walt Dorothy succeeds Rod Franklin as president of the Interfraternity Council for the coming year. Dorothy was elected to head the council at a business meeting held in the Student Union Thursday afternoon.

The new president is a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon, a member of the Kosmet Klub, an Innocent, and was secretary of the Interfraternity Council this year.

Fosler Vice President.

Vice president for next year will be Bill Fosler, Alpha Tau Omega president. Fosler is a member of Sigma Delta Chi, journalism honorary, and is a senior.

Leo Geier, Phi Gamma Delta, was elected the new secretary, replacing Walt Dorothy, retiring secretary.

Geier is an N Club member, a member of the varsity gymnastics team, and a sophomore. The position of treasurer will be filled by Darrell May, Delta Upsilon. May is a sophomore. He is a Cornhusker worker, on the Ag advertising committee, and a member of the Student Union board rules committee.

The Interfraternity Council executive committee nominated two men for each office. Nominations were also open from the floor for all four positions. The executive committee nominated on the basis of the candidate's past experience with the council and on desired capabilities.

Delta Chi Admitted.

Prior to the elections the council voted to admit Delta Chi fraternity into the organization. Delta Chi was inactive during the war and has just recently re-activated on the campus. The admission brought the total number of memberships to 22.

The only qualification needed to hold an office in the Interfraternity Council is a membership in one of the fraternities represented in the council.

John Binning congratulated Rod Franklin, retiring president, in behalf of the entire council on having done an excellent job as president this year.

Moot Court's Winners Told

Ralph B. Nelson and William T. Schwartz won the Allen Moot Court competition of the University of Nebraska law college, Wednesday evening.

A unanimous decision by Supreme Court Judges Edward F. Carter, Bayard H. Paine and Adolph E. Wenke gave them victory over Robert C. Guenzel and Richard D. Wilson.

The student legal teams presented their arguments in the Supreme Court chambers. As finalists in the competition they argued a mythical community property case.

Funds for the competition were given to the law school by the late T. S. Allen, Lincoln attorney.

10 Senior, 19 Junior Lawyers Receive Honors at Banquet

Twenty-nine University of Nebraska law college students were honored Thursday night at the law college student association's annual banquet for high scholarship and professional achievement. The speaker was Judge E. B. Chappell of the Nebraska Supreme Court.

Sixteen students were presented gold watch chains inscribed with the letter "N" by the Law Review, a quarterly magazine published jointly by the law college and the Nebraska Bar Association.

Receive Honors.

Seniors honored were: Vance Leininger, editor-in-chief; Warden Johnson, note editor; Robert Guenzel, case editor; Richard Wilson, legislation editor; Robert Barlow, index editor; Julian Hopkins, book review editor; John Bestor; and Nathan Holman, business manager.

Juniors honored were: William Rundle, editor-in-chief elect; Barbara Blackburn; Kenneth Elson; Richard Harnsberger; Robert Lowe; Daniel O'Leary; Ward Olney; and Robert Wenke.

Win Competition.

Ralph Nelson and William Schwartz were winners of the Thomas Stinson Allen Appellate Competition. They were awarded medals in the form of gold watch charms in the shape of the letter "A."

Others receiving awards included: Ward Urbom, Albert Detmer, Lloyd Hall, Morris Hoobler, and Dale TeKolste, seniors; Dean Kratz, Charles Chase, Gerald Jorgensen, Stanley Scott, Roy Sheaff, and Robert Veach, juniors.

Spring Basketball Drills

Coach Harry Good has announced that spring basketball drills will be held at 7:00 p. m. Monday through Thursday until final examination week starts.

were received by the military department, and presented by Blaisdell C. Kennon, senior instructor of organized reserve in Lincoln. The following cadets received the awards: Staff Sgt. Donald F. Flesher, Tech. Sgt. Kenneth E. Johnson, Tech. Sgt. Richard E. Gibson, Cpl. Lawrence Russell, and Pvts. Clifford Bergren, George L. Morris, George S. McQueen, Wendall C. Bauman, William F. Bauman, Anthony Clark, Allan F. Decker, and Richard Hunt.

After the parade, review, and presentation of awards, the Pershing Rifles demonstrated precision drill.

ROTC Conducts Parade, Review To Give Awards

An ROTC regimental parade and review, highlighted by the presentation of awards to honored groups and individuals, was held for all Military Science students Thursday, May 6, at 5 p. m., west of the coliseum.

All basic and advanced students, the University ROTC band, Military Science department faculty members, and Pershing Riflemen participated in the parade, in preparation for federal inspection next week.

The honor streamer for the best company was presented to Cadet Capt. Charles D. Ganz, commander of Co. K, by Miss June Gast, this year's honorary colonel. The best company streamer is presented weekly.

Cadet Staff Sgt. Donald F. Flesher was awarded the Boschult memorial scholarship award. This reward is given by the American Legion under the supervision of the University Foundation. Commander Earl P. Barnes, state American Legion commander, presented the scholarship award.

The Air Forces association award for the outstanding first-year cadet was presented to Cadet 2nd Lt. Phillip C. Sprague. Maj. LaRue S. Sorrell, assistant PMS&T and Air Force leader, made the presentation.

The Scabbard and Blade Military efficiency award, given by the national headquarters of the organization, was presented by Cadet Lt. Orin W. Bryant, faculty adviser of the local chapter.

Minute Man awards were given under the auspices of the Sons of the American Revolution. They