

Vol. 48-No. 138 Lincoln 8, Nebraska, Wednesday, May 12, 1948

'Shrew' Begins Run Tonite; To Climax Theatre Season

THE ART OF WHIPPING IS A SNAP!" So says Petruchio, Jack Wenstrand, to Grumio, Dale Wisser in a scene from "Taming of the Shrew," Shapespearean comedy.

Rounding out a full year of University Theater entertainment, Shakespeare's farce, Taming of the Shrew, begins its five-performance run tonight at the Temple theater.

Curtain time is eight p. m. for the comedy. There are still a few seventy-five cent reserved seats remaining for each performance. The play will be shown nightly through Saturday with a matinee Saturday afternoon.

Audience to Intermission Once.

Audiences are asked to remember that there is only one intermission in the fast-moving play, between the first and second acts.

Margaret Ann Huff is cast in the title role as the vixenous Shrew and Jack Wenstrand plays Petruchio, the tamer. Dewey Ganzel portrays Hortensio, a dis-heartened, but comical lover. Grumio, Petruchio's happy but simple companion, is enacted by Dale Wisser.

Bianca, played by Mary Wen-strand, is played by Jack Max-well. Gay Marr takes the part of Baptista, patient, tolerant father of the shrew.

Other characters are Christopher Sly, Rex Coslor; hostess and Biondello, Bill Reuter; lord and pedant, Don Johannes; huntsman, Norman Leger; Tranio, Merle Staldr; Vincntio, Darrel Peter; Gremio, Eddie McCollough; Cur-tis, Clare Denton; Nathanial, Bill Line; Sugarsop, Leo Pachman; Joseph Bob Bount a widow Mil-Joseph, Bob Baum; a widow, Mil-lie Hodtwalker; servants, Herb Spense, Dean Welles, Jack Asbyll, Dick Toof, and Frank Jacobs; and Mabel, played by her equine self.

Institutional Merit Award Given Ag College Cafeteria

The university agriculture col-lege cafeteria received Wednesday an award of merit in a national contest for the best kitchens and dining rooms among hospitals, industrial plants, schools, colleges and other mass feeding establishments.

The competition is sponsored annually by Institutions magazine of Chicago. The cafeteria director is Miss Florence Smith and the food service director is Miss Marie Harris, Thirty-seven institutions received the award this Contest objectives are (1) greater efficiency in handling, storage preparation and serving of food; and (2) improved sanitation in mass feeding establish-

Baily Nebraskan Seven Named To Take Union Governing Duties

Federal Unit Plans ROTC Review Tour

The annual federal inspection of the University of Nebraska ROTC opened Monday and Will climax Thursday with a regimental review on the parade ground west of the Coliseum,

Col. Howard J. John, Profes-sor of military science and tactics, said an inspection team of four officers will judge the Nebraska unit on enrollment, administration, training and facilities. Last year Nebraska received a rating of excellent.

Highlight of the event will be the parade, scheduled for 3 p.m. Wednesday. The review is open to the public.

Officers who will conduct the inspection are: Col. Hans C. Minuth, Lt. Col. Martin Dunklau, formerly of Omaha; Maj. Hertzel B. Richards, and an officer from the Second Air Force. An ex-amination of advanced course students will be held Thursday.

Contrary to the anouncement in Tuesday's Daily Nebraskan, Maj. Gen. Lewis A. Pick will speak at Ag college Monday May 17 instead of May 18. The convocation will be held in the College Activities building at 10:10 a.m.

Corn Cobs to Hold Smoker For Prospective Members

tion, will hold a smoker for all men interested in working in the national pep fraternity during the '48-'49 seasons. The smoker begins at 7:15 p. m., May 13, in Parlors YZ of the Union.

Bob Hamilton, president of the group, has explained that to be eligible for Cobs, students must have a weighted average of 75 (4.5) for each semester of school work taken; must carry a minimum of 12 hours and have carried 12 hours for each previous semester, with a total of 24 having been completed on entrance into any number are urged to attend. Purposes and functions of the Corn Cobs, which include the furtherance of school spirit, selling of

tickets for campus functions, work

Naval Air Corps To Accept Grads For Flight School

College graduates are eligible for entry into flight training as Ensigns commencing July 1, 1948, Capt. M. D. Mathews, professor of naval science, announced today.

Those appointed will enter into about 18 months flight training after an indoctrination course at Pensacola, Fla. Officers appointed will be required to sign a contract agreeing not to resign from the naval service for two years after the completion of flight training.

Detailed information may be obtained from the Office of Naval Officer Procurement, Kansas City,

Amikita Spring Tea Held Sunday

The Amikitas, girls' social organization on Ag campus, held their annual Spring Tea Sunday, May 6, at the Lutheran Student house.

Faculty members Miss Margaret Fedde, Dr. Josephine Brooks, Mrs.
Angeline Anderson and Miss Margaret Cannel assisted with the pouring. Receiving the guests were Amikita sponsors Miss Mary Hosier and Miss Mary Graham, Hosier and Miss Mary Graham, Bresident Figure Outsley and So.

The honourt this year will onen.

The honourt this year will onen.

The honourt this year will onen.

The honourt this year will onen. President Elaine Quigley and So-cial Chairman Betty Beckner.

Corn Cobs, men's pep organiza-jon rallies and other projects for sports events, managing details of homecoming, in conjunction with the Tassels, will be outlined fully at the smoker.

Phalanx Elects Jack Meehan To Presidency

The Phalanx military fraternity elected officers for the comrumio, Petruchio's happy but mple companion, is enacted by ale Wisser.

Lucentio Seeks Bianca.

Lucentio, seeking the love of ianca, played by Mary Wen
Lucentio, seeking the love of ianca, played by Mary Wen
Lucentio Seeks Bianca.

Lucentio S retary; Robert Olson, treasurer, and Bernard Wolps, warden historian.

After election of officers, Maj. Sorrell, ROTC PMS&T, showed a film on the operations of the various branches of service co-or-dinating their efforts for efficient service.

An informal dance to the music of Johnny Cox will be held in the Georgian room in the Cornhusker hotel Friday, May 21. The dance is an annual affair, but is initiated in the Georgian room. Col. Howard John and Maj. Sorrell will be made honorary mem-

Four From City Campus, 2 Ag Students to Serve Next Year

Six juniors, two from the Ag campus, and one senior were elected by the '47-'48 Student Union governing board to serve for the coming year. They are Bob Easter, senior, Marge Cherny, Byron Hooper, Mary Ellen Schroeder, Paul Weltchek, juniors, and Jack DeWulf and Sue Bjorkland,

Foundation Plans Union Party May 14

A student Foundation party for high school track men and pep clubs will be held Friday, May 14, from 5 until 7 p.m. at the Union.

The Student Foundation is planning entertainment for those students who will be there for the track meet Friday and Saturday, May 14 and 15. Movies on individual track events and a movie composite on Nebraska athletics will be shown in room 315.

"N" Club members will be present at the party to talk to the high school students and to acquaint them with the University and University athletics.

Cokes and brownies will be served in parlors ABC during the afternoon.

The party is under the direction of Sally Holmes.

$2000 Gifts Boost Scholarship Fund

Two new gifts of $1,000 each were announced Tuesday by the University of Nebraska Founda-

Arthur W. Thompson, Lincoln auctioneer, added $1,000 to previous contributions he has made for establishment of a scholarship fund in the department of animal husbandry. The new donation boosts the fund's total to $3,500.

For the third consecutive year the Scottish Rite Educational Welfare association presented the Foundation with a $1,000 gift. The money helps finance student scholarships open to students in all colleges.

Alice Uptegraft New President

Mrs. Alice Uptegraft of Lincoln Central high school is the new president of the Nebraska History Teachers' association which concluded its annual spring meeting with a luncheon meeting Saturday noon at the Union.

She succeeds Miss Mary L. Brower of Hastings. Miss Dorothy Cathers of Omaha Central was named vice president. Miss Elizacontinues as secretary-treasurer.

At a breakfast meeting, associathe first in several years, since Phalanx has just been reactivated on the campus this year. Prior to the dance, Phalanx pledges will be ment, and a discussion of the United Nations by Miss Florence Jenkins, Lincoln Central high school teacher who returned re-cently from Lake Success, N. Y.

junior Ag campus representatives. Chosen through recommendations by committee chairmen and board members, the seven were named on the basis of their interest in the Union, the quality of their past work, originality of ideas, and time spent on their committees. Marge Cherny, a student in Teacher's College, is a Coed Counselor, 1948 cheerleader, chairman of the Hobby Interest committee, and a member of Alpha Chi Omega.

Publication Worker.

Past chairman of the Dance committee, Byron Hooper has also been a Cornhusker and Daily Nebraskan worker, and is a member of Sigma Nu.

Mary Ellen Schroeder, a mem-ber of Alpha Omicron Pi, has served as secretary of the general entertainment committee for the past year. She is also a member of the Student Foundation, Coed Counselors, and Newman club.

Paul Weltchek, fourth city campus member, is a member of Corn Cobs, Zeta Beta Tau, 1948 Kos-met Klub Revue, and served on the general entertainment committee.

Ag member Sue Bjorklund is a newly elected member of Tassels, Home Ec club, and YWCA. Her work on the Ag Union board has been with the general entertainment committee.

Jack DeWulf, Corn Cob worker, is a member of Farmers Fair board, Farm House, and chairman of the Ag dence committee.

Only Senior.

Bob Easter, elected to the only senior position, was recently elected to Innocents, is a Corn Cob officer, AUF board member, chairman of general entertainment committee, and a member of Beta Theta Pi.

Committee members chosen for the slate were Bob Axtell, Lee Best, Pat Bussey, Margy Cherny, Bud Gerhart, Byron Hooper, Mary Schroeder, and Paul Weltchek, city campus juniors.

Constance Crosbie, Sue Bjork-lund, Jack DeWulf, Keith Frederickson, and Louise McDill ran for Ag campus positions.

Members on the slate for the senior position were Irwin Chesen, Harvey L. Davis, Bob Easter, and Bob Metrakos.

Initiates, Officers

Rho Chi, national pharmacy honorary, held its annual initia-tion banquet on Tuesday, May 4, at the Student Union. Dr. Ralph J. Ireland, of the College of Denbeth Shaver of Lincoln Northeast, tistry, addressed the group on the subject of dental care for children.

Following the initiation service a business meeting was held to elect officers for the coming year. They are: President, Ben McCashland; vice president, Rex Higley; secretary-treasurer, Mary O'Connor; historian, Dale Dicknite. Wallis W. Wimberly, past president of the group, was elected faculty advisor.

Those initiated into Rho Chi were: Rex Higley, Dale Dicknite, Paul McLaughlin, Mary O'Connor, Carl Geln, Donald Ediger, Varro Tyler, and Leon Prokop.

University Brass Choir

The first concert of the University's brass choir will be presented Thursday, May 13, at 8 p.m. in the Union ballroom.

Conductor Robert Stepp has arranged a special number featuring a drum sextette. Individual soloists will be Kent Tiller and Paul Austin, trombonist.

A meeting of all old and new members of Corn Cobs will be held Friday, 4 p. m., at the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity house, according to Bob Hamilton, Cob president.

Journalists Schedule Banquet To Observe 25th Anniversary

The school of journalism will nalism. It will also constitute the journalism students and representatives from neighboring schools niversary. of journalism and professional Dr. Frank Luther Mott, dean groups, at 6:30 p. m. at the Corn- of the University of Missouri husker hotel.

Preceding the banquet Sigma celebrate its 25th anniversary last of a series of meetings for with a banquet for University professional observance of its an- To Hold Debut May 13 school of journalism and Pulitzer prize winner, will be the prin-Delta C journalism honorary, ciple speaker at the banquet. Dr. will hold business meeting and Mott, a former newspaperman, ciple speaker at the banquet. Dr. initiation for undergraduate mem-bers in University hall at 4 p. m. his exhaustive history of Amerident of Sigma Delta Chi.

Institute to Open
The banquet this year will open an institute on education for jour-history of American best-sellers.