Prep Trackmen Here for Meet

Daily Nebraskan

Vol. 48-No. 140

LINCOLN 8, NEBRASKA

Friday, May 14, 1948

Parade, Clowns Highlight Aquaquette 'Sea Circus'

"Sea Circus," the Aquaquettes swim club recital, will be presented tonight and tomorrow night at 8:15 in the Coliseum pool.

Tickets are 40 cents and may be purchased at the W.A.A. office in Grant Memorial hall and from members of the swim club, and at the Coliseum door.

12 Numbers Planned.

The performance will be built around a circus theme and will around a circus theme and will include 12 numbers representing the acts found in a typical circus. Included in the program will be the following events: Circus Parade, A Ride on the Merry-Go-Round, Seal Antics, Bareback Riders, Clown Capers, Dancing Girls, Cowboys and Ponies, Pop Corn, Cotton Candy and Pink Lemonade, Trapeze Artists, Trained Poodle Troupe, Fireworks and the Grand Finale.

Members of the Aquaquettes and the Grand Finale.

Members of the Aquaquettes group are: Phyllis Allen, Charlotte Blum, Jeanne Branch, Jackie Brown, Willadean Bryant, Mary Carothers, Carol Calder, Margaret Chamberlain, Marie Collins, Dawn Daggett, Janet Dallam, Gloria Ferchtman, Lois Fritz, Mary Gaines, Betty Green, Marilyn Grosse, Gwen Harding, Mary Lou Henderson, Catherine Hinrichs, June Hornby, Ethel Kelly, Virginia Koch, Suzanne Koehler, richs, June Hornby, Ethel Kelly, Virginia Koch, Suzanne Koehler, Elaine Krause, Jo Jen Loder, Dorothy Lord, Patsy Loudon, Evelyn Lucas, Shirley Maser, Marilyn Miller, Dorothy Meshier, Ruth Jean Morris, Adele Mulliken, Ruth Ann Sandstedt, Beverly Shuman, Marilyn Stark, Jane Traphagen and Catherine Worcester.

Sponsored by WAA.

Sponsoring the Aquaquette club is the Women's Athletic association with Miss Jane A. Mott sociation with Miss Jane A. Mott acting as faculty director. On the program production staff are: Marie Collins, general chairman; Peg O'Donnell, publicity; Marion Moon, programs. Light effects are under the supervision of Miss Aileene Lockhart aided by Marion Falloon, Mary Jean Mulvaney, Peg O'Donnell, Jean See Aquaquettes, Page 4

Student Loan Funds Donated To University

Joseph Alexis, chairman of the Student Loan committee, Student Loan committee, nounced yesterday that friends of the University of Nebraska have dents. fit of the students of the instituthe Board of Regents or the University of Nebraska Foundation as trustees.

The Student Loan committee is appointed by the Board of Regents and consists at present of ditional representation will be the following members: Joseph awarded for an increased I.S.A. the following members: Joseph Alexis, chairman; Mrs. Angeline membership.
C. Anderson, secretary; Theodore Through this system the as-T. Aakhus, Lawrence K. Crowe, Harriett Schwenker, Perry Branch and Floyd S. Harper, the last two being ex officio members.

Loans are made to students at clubs. Every I.S.A. a low rate of interest. They are made in accordance with the wishes of the donors and the rules adopted by the committee. Prior leges of the ISA. to the granting of the loan, the committee must be convinced of the student's real need of assistance. The committee also considers the student's ability as indicated by his scholastic record, his general worthiness and character, and his professional prom-

Preference is given by the committee to students who have been matriculated for at least one academic year and have a satisfactory record, but no discrimination is made because of race, religion, sex, or social affiliations of the applicant

CLOWN CAPERS. . Margaret Chamberlain (left), Gwen Harding (top) and Gloria Ferschtman, aquaettes, do a little posin in preparation for the swim club's recital which is being presented tonight and tomorrow night at 8:15 in the Coliseum pool. These three young mermaids will put on a clown act for the show. This year's show is built around a circus theme and twelve different acts will be presented, including bareback riders, cowboys and trapeze artists.

USA Council Votes to Join Independent Student Group changed to Independent Student association, by action taken in a meeting of the U.S.A. council.

Previously open only to members of organized houses

Persons becoming members of I.S.A. will be assigned to groups The money is in the custody of of 20, each of which will be entitled to one representative on the I.S.A. council. Organizations or houses having ten to 25 I.S.A. members may retain a representative on the council, and ad-> sociation hopes to establish better contact with independent students who do not live in university houses or have not joined member, whether through club or ward, will be represented on the council and will receive all the privi-

Benjamin Wall, U.S.A. delegate to the national I.S.A. convention at Ames, Ia., reported to the council that Nebraska is now officially enrolled in N.I.S.A. Wall also announced that through the efforts of the newly-formed Western Conference of Independent Student Organizations, Don Mc-Kendrick, Colorado A. & M., was elected an officer of the national

May 15 the Nebraska council releases the monthly Wester. Conference Newsletter, which is sent to the nine member color of a religious theme. The cast in- Doc Seccord as Corfield, and Paul in their vice chairman of U.S.A. councludes Norm Leger as William Harrington as Albert Lang. May prompt.

Student association has been leges. Wall and Cecil Middleton, changed to Independent Student of this publication.

of its annual spring picnic activities Saturday, May 15. The show will be staged in the An-See USA Votes, Page 2

The name of the Unaffiliated | cil, head the committee in charge

Foundation, N Club Welcome Students

Trackmen of Nebraska high schools will participate this weekend in the annual Nebraska High School track meet. Nearly 700 students will take part in the state contest sponsored by the university for the Nebraska High School Activities association. During the two-day meet, Friday and

Rifle Honor

Walter G. Palmer has fired his way to the All American rifle

news from the Washington office of the National Rifle association.

A member of the Air Force branch in ROTC, Palmer has had three years of rifle competition,

Palmer is also the captain of the

Seventy '98 Alums

To Attend Confab

Nearly 70 of the 100 living members of the class of 1898 will attend the University alumni as-members will gather for a reunion

breakfast June 5 to open the roundup festivities. After the noon luncheon at which they will be the 50-year honor class, they will hold a reception in the faculty lumps of the Union

Other classes to be honored at the roundup include 1908, 1918, 1928 and 1938.

ulty lounge of the Union.

University rifle team.

with one year remaining.

recent performances.

Saturday, the athletes and school pep groups will be entertained by Palmer Wins pep groups will be entertained by the Student Foundation and N club. A party will be held Friday, May 14, from 5 to 7 p.m. in the All-American

All H. S. Students Invited.

All highschool students on the campus for the meet are invited to attend the party, according to Sally Holmes, chairman, as well as Foundation and N club members, who will act as hosts.

team. An engineering junior and Entertainment for the event will include track movies and a an advanced military science student. Palmer has been placed on composit film on Nebraska ath-letics. Foundation workers will provide piano music. Free brownthe national honor team for his First Sgt. John Lovold, rifle team coach at the University, an-nounced the appointment of Palmer today after hearing the ies and cokes will be distributed

Short talks and welcomes are planned by N club members.

The informal gathering will be held in parlors ABC of the Union, with movies in Room 215.

To Welcome Students.

Both N club and Student Foundation members will visit the meet, welcoming the high school students on campus. Palmer will participate in the National Rifle association meet this summer at Camp Perry, Ohio.

The party is an important part of an awakened policy to re-cruit the cream of Nebraska's high school athletic crop to the In the past he has won many rifle honors, including the Richardson award for attaining the highest average in all matches fired by setup here has been instrumental in this renaissence, and in co-operation with the Student Foundation, the Alumni associa-Nebraska team members. He tied by Nebraska team members. He tied for first place in the Midwest Indoor Camp Perry Rifle Shooting meet held at Kemper Military school, Booneville, Missouri. He shot 278 out of 300 in that match. tion, and other interested groups, has been working positively in the direction of a better univer-sity thru bigger and better freshmen classes.

Although the two-day meet is not expected to live up to last year's meet when Jerry Ferguson, Fritz Davis, Leo McKillip, Leonard Kroll, Bill Mountford and Leonard Kehl performed, it should be closely contested and spirited in the old-time Nebraska sociation annual roundup on the campus June 5-7. tradition. This was reported Tuesday by Maurice Hyde and Mrs. Sarah E. ROTC Stands Taylor, both of Lincoln, president and secretary of the class. Class U.S. Inspection

The annual federal inspection of the R.O.T.C. by the 5th Army Headquarters and the 2nd Air Force was held Wednesday at 3 p.m. at the parade grounds.

The following awards were made: Pershing Award to the outstanding member of National Pershing Rifles, Lt. Col Planti-kow; outstanding cadet engineer officer, Cadet Major Neal D. Kennedy; 40 and 8 Award for the highest scholarship for six semesters, Cadet 2nd Lt. Dana Rassmessen; honor company award, Company F under Cadet Capt Tom Brownlee, Honorary Colonel June Gast was in the reviewing stand for Pharmacy Society to Fete Seniors at Annual Dinner The outstanding conjur students The group will present a va-of the University college of pharmacy will be honored Friday everiety program as the highlight ning at an annual banquet. The dinner, to be held at Cotner Terrace, is sponsored by the student branch of the American Pharmaceutical association, down the curtain on the current season of the University's Experimental Theatre.

Students to Direct Final Productions Of University Experimental Theatre

The four plays are "Of Mice and Men," adapted by John Steinbeck from his novel of the same name; "The Servant in the House' by Charles Rann Kennedy; "Amphitryon '38" adapted by S. N. Behrman from the French of Jean Giraudoux; and "As the Eagle Grows," by Elizabeth Wetzel, winner of the 1947-48 national playwriting contest, sponsored by the Nebraska Masquers. Students Direct.

"Designed to integrate student work in directing and acting classes, the plays offer four widely diversified types of American drama," stated Dallas S. Williams, director of University Theatre activities.

"The Servant in the House," directed by Don Johannes, is a dramatic and symbolic treatment

Four three-act plays, each student acted and directed, will ring Smith; Ken Frohardt as the Bishop; Clare Denton as Rogers; Betty Laird as Auntie and Pat Boyd as Mary. Jack Asbyll will characterize the key-role of Manson. Production date is May 17, "Amhpitryon '38," directed by Abe Katz, is a sparkling and sophisticated comedy which proved a glittering vehicle for the Lunts on Broadway. The Experimental Theater cast features Mary Wen-strand as Alkemena; Homer Hauptman as Jupiter; Bill French as Mercury; Tom Stimfig as Am-phitryon; Eloise Paustian as Leda; Milt Hoffman as the Warrior; Lois Gobar as the Servant, and Bill Line as Sosie. May 19 is production date.

"As the Eagle Grows," directed by Gaylord Marr, is a poetic prose treatment of a regional theme. The cast includes Maggie Huff as Nila; Eddie McCullough and Jack Norman as John and Damon, her twin sons; Pat Meehan as Nadine;

Broadway Success.

"Of Mice and Men," directed by Dale Wisser, will be presented on May 22. Highly successful on Broadway and as a motion picture, this play has become an American classic. The cast in-cludes Jack MacDonald as George; Jack Wenstrand as Lennie; Joe Moore as Curly; Herb Spence as Candy; Don Nichols as Slim; Bill Klamm as the Boss; Dick Toof as Carlson; Jim Hill as Whit, and Betty Shultz as Curly's Wife,

"Of Mice and Men" and "Amphitryon '38" will be presented on the main stage, Temple build-ing, while "The Servant in the House" and "As the Eagle Grows" will be presented on the Temple's Experimental Theater stage (Room 201). Curtain-time on all four plays is 8 o'clock Admission is free. Late-comers will be admitted during intermissions only; playgoers desiring to see the plays in their entirety are advised to be