AGRs Win Innocents Trophy; PhiKappaPsiTopsCityActivities

Daily Nehraskan

Vol. 48-No. 145

Lincoln, Nebraska,

Friday, May 21, 1948

Foundation Adopts Reorganization Plan: Eugenie Sampson Named Secretary

A reorganization plan has been adopted by the Student Foundation. Genene Mitchell, president of the student service group, announced the new board organization today. She also revealed that Eugenie Sampson was recently elected secretary of the Founda-tion, replacing Marge Anthony, who resigned because of leaving Bates, school.

The plan, to become effective next September, calls for Founda-tion general districts to be replaced by groups carrying specific, continual tasks. In the past, the eight districts, seven in Nebraska and one out-state, did work such as news tips, and any special work that arose. Special groups such as publications, di-rectory, art and publicity and calendar, carried out special tasks.

Members Assigned to Groups.

With the new plan, present board members will be assigned to groups with a certain jurisdiction. Workers will be allowed to sign up for one or more groups.

The new assignments are: news tips, Jan Nutzman; directory, Peggy Lawrie and Audrey Flood; publications, Eugene Berg; parties; Sally Holmes; mass meetings, Elaine Krause; campus tours, Sally Johnson; calendar, Rockne Holmes and Eileen Hepperly; art, Mary Ellen Schroeder, and office manager, Margo Nootz.

Officers Listed.

Besides these groups organized to carry out the Foundation program, the officers for the group will be: Genene Mitchell, president; Greg Kallos, vice president; Eugenie Sampson, secretary, and Bud Gerhart, treasurer.

Miss Sampson was named secretary last Thursday. May 13, at a meeting of officers and board members. She was selected to re-

Bates Heads Union Board; Service Award to Easter

At the annual banquet meeting of the Student Union, held Thurs-day, May 20, Mrs. Florence Also presented at the banquet alumnae representative, was elected president of the Student Union governing board, suc-ceeding Prof. Linus Burr Smith. Other officers of the board are: First vice president, Ed Trumble, student member; second vice president, Dr. T. H. Gooding, Ag faculty representative; Fritz Daly, secretary and alumnae represent-was Bob Easter, winner of the distinguished service award for outstanding work in directing general entertainment, and in committee co-ordination. Bob was recently elected to the board,

The annual banquet of the Union Board was opened by Nancy Garey, who presented fac-ulty and administration guests, and board members, chairmen, and publicity representatives. Lake Reports.

Donna Alfrey, Prof. Karl Arndt, Union affairs, and a program and challenge for the coming year.

Gifts were presented to retiring faculty members, Prof. Linus Burr Smith, Prof. Karl Arndt, Dr. W. H. Morton, and Miss Florence Smith. Miss Dorothy Jean Brown, assistant, received a gift from the staff and board upon her resignation from the staff.

Service Keys Presented.

Service keys were presented by Mr. Lake to board members. Nancy Garey, All Cooper, Martin Pesek, Ed Trumble, Jean Dun-bar, Neal Miller, Lucille Manning, Harriet Moline, Donna Alfrey, Virgene Kovarik, and Jeanne Kerrigan.

Fifty-five members of old and new boards, faculty, administra-tion, and committee chairmen attended the banquet, which was principally held as a dedication to a new program for coming years; one of expansion and re-

Farm House Cops Second in Race

Alpha Gamma Rho has been announced as the first winner of the scholarship-activity award established by the Innocents Society this spring.

The winners were listed by Stan Johnson, president of the retiring Innocents Society, following a meeting of the validating committee Wednesday evening.

Phi Psi First on City Campus Farm House ranked second and 12 Named as Phi Kappa Psi third in the point tabulation which took into account scholarship, house activities and individual activities. Along with Alpha Gamma Rho, which receives the trophy for overall supremacy, Phi Kappa Psi will receive the trophy for first place on the city campus.

Alpha Gama Rho and Farm House placed one-two in the overall standings. The winning house had 867 points and Farm House had 808. Phi Kappa Psi had 634 points which were good for first place on the city campus.

Each organized house submitted its list of points to an Innocents validating committee which checked all claims and verified the calculations of the individual houses

Gustavson Hails Program.

The awards, which have been and Ed Trumble reported on the hailed by Chancellor Gustavson as a worth-while addition to the exwhich they attended recently in Roanoke, Va. Duane Lake, Union director, presented a report on the formally this year by the Innocents Society.

In future years it is hoped to make the award a part of the Ivy Day tradition.

Points for scholarship were figured on the basis of the top ten houses in relation to the fraternity average. All houses in the top ten for each semester received points in addition to the bonus earned for men on the honor roll.

Activities used in figuring the points for this year's award were those prior to spring elections and recent organization initiations. Scholarship was based on reports of a year ago.

Board to Pick New Daily Staff

Eleven editorial and five business positions on The Daily Nebraskan will be appointed Saturday when the publication board meets to select the first semester 1948-49 staff.

Indications were that compe-

New Members Of Yell Squad

Twelve University students were named as members of the 1948-'49 Yell Squad last night following final tryouts in the coliseum.

Betty Aasen, Cherie Viele and Marge Cherny were renamed to the squad. Miss Aasen has served as a cheerleader for the past two years.

Mary Alice Dosek, Jo Lisher and Jody Loder are the new women cheerleaders.

Old Members.

Bill Mickle and Ray Biemond were chosen to serve a second year on the squad, Mickle has been a cheerleader for the past year, while Biemond was first on the squad the year 1946-'47.

The new men on the Squad are Brick Paulson, Frank Piccolo, Paul Galter and Bob Jensen.

The new men on the squad are judging committee comprised of representatives from Corn Cobs, Tassels Student Council, Mortar Board, Innocents, and the Yell King, will meet today at 4 p.m. in the Cob-Tassels office of the Union to discuss plans for next fall, List Lists Lisher.

Miss Aasen and Miss Viele are both juniors and members of Chi Omega. Miss Cherny is a sopho-more Alpha Chi Omega. Mary Alice Dosek is a sophomore Tri-Delt. Jo Lisher, a Dorm resident, is a freshman. Jody Loder, also a freshman, is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma.

Mickle, a sophomore, is a member of Phi Kappa Psi. Biemond- a junior, is the newly appointed Cornhusker Business Manager and member of Sigma Phi Epsilon.

Piccolo Picked.

Paul Galter is a freshman SAM. Bob Jensen is a sophomore member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon, and Frank Piccolo is a freshman ATO, Miss Marion Weeth, Nebraska senior from Abilene, Texas, has been notified that she is to be one of a student study-tour of Europe sponsored by the National Student YMCA and YWCA. Seven men and seven women students are to sail from New York City on the USS MARINE JUMPER on June 29th. They will visit England where they will attend a national Student Christian Movement Conference.

Miss Weeth has checked the seminars of "Britain's place in the present crisis," the "Student Christian Movement," and "Relations between the old and the new church," as her particular interests. Denmark and France are included in their trip.

It may be possible to partici-pate in a work camp in Austria or Germany, too. Miss Irene Harplace Miss Anthony over Rockne Holmes and Mary Ellen Schroe-of the Regional Student YWCA's izens who are community and soder. A member of Pi Beta Phi, she is a managing editor of the 1949 Cornhusker and a Tassel.

Strong Cast Brings Prize Drama to Life

BY GENE BERG

University Experimental Theatre's presentation of Elizabeth Wetzel's prize-winning play, "As the Eagle Grows," last evening. A strong cast, headed by the magnificent talent of Margaret Huff, gave a memorable performance of the well-knit poetic drama.

The play, the winner of the 1947-48 national playwriting contest sponsored by the University Masquers, campus honorary dramatic fraternity, held the audience with its realistic tragedy. The foreboding mood, heightened by the poetic treatment, established an atmosphere of drama and imagery.

Huff Is Believable.

Miss Huff gave a thoroughly convincing depth and meaning to her role of Nila Rui, who found "sometimes there is more strength in weakness." She gave to the domineering, cynical mother, a stature and strength of characterization that fairly overwhelmed the audience. Especially good was the scene in which she warned Nadine, poignantly played by Pat Meehan, that love leads only to "days of sad reflection and nights of empty peace."

Rich and breath-taking was the throughout the play and during with the newly discovered will intermissions heightened the suspense of the production, Director Gaylord Marr can be given credit for these masterly touches of technique, and for a real threatre show.

McCullough Stands Out.

Eddie McCullough gave an outstanding performance as John Rui, who suspected he had a desgreater than the field toil. tiny His initial love scene with Nadine was a high spot in his charterization. Miss Meehan and Mc-Cullough gave the impression of a real magnetic response.

The prize-winning play, though scarcely an hour long in the giv-ing of the three acts with intermissions, was strong in its po-etic drama. The writing was filled with color and philosophical wisdom. Phrases such as these live in the play-goer's mind: "If thee faint in the day of adversity, thy strength is small . . . " cry with dry tears . . . " "even the Widow Rules Farm.

"As the Eagle Grows" tells the story of a widow with twin sons As Nila Rui, Miss Huff used a now grown to manhood, who makes a success of her husband's At some future date, either the blended expertly with the setting, lighting and sound. The western "strength." She has fostered a farm colors used in the set in-tensified the lonely atmosphere, and the very professional job of lighting lent added drama to the settled household comes Albert season program.

play. The playing of mood music | Lang, played by Paul Harrington, left by the gambling husband.

> To the dismay of Nila, the will person who knew which son was the eldest, and she suspects that the will will bring tragedy to the close group. When the twins discover the document, their true natures are exposed, and they become distrustful and argumentative. They both discover the helping girl, Nadine, and also set themselves up as the "eldest son."

Climax Is Strong.

In a dramatic, swiftly moving climax, Damon Rui, portrayed by Jack Norman, kills his brother John. Nila then decides to take her own life for the cowardice she thinks she has displayed. As the final curtain falls, Nadine rushes out, shouting to Damon to help she reminds them of the philosophy needed to meet the trials of life "as it really is." She admon-ishes them to "be free and strong as the eagle grows," positions would be keen. More ber of Phi Kappa Psi. than 30 filings for staff positions had been received by the secretary of the pub board by late R. B. Howard Thursday.

Pre-appointment anticipation was intensified this week when a pub board member reportedly deeds the farm to "the eldest advised an applicant that he favson," Nila's husband was the only ored a complete review of all present staff members who are reapplying as well as new applicants for the purpose of "re-vitalizing" the newspaper,

Student pub board members Henry Anderson, Clay Kennedy and Jack Solomon will complete their terms of office with the se-lection of the Daily staff tomorrow. The board named the personnel of the Cornhusker May 8, and appointed Cornshucks staff members May 22.

Leo Geier Head Of Writers' Group

last regular meeting of the year

dent by a close margin over George Abbott. Clarence Kauf-man is the new vice-president, while Al Amsden was selected secretary. Bob Berkshire, a mem-ber of the versity track team and Alpha Tau Graega fraternity, is the new treasurer.

tition for the limited number of Brick Paulson is a freshman mem-

Selected C-3 Co. Captain

Scabbard and Blade, national military honorary, selected offi-cers Wednesday, May 12, to guide company C-3 for the coming year, Cadet 2nd Lt. Roswell B. Howard of Omaha was elected captain of the company. Howard is spe-cial staff officer of Pershing Rifles, a member of Kosmet Klub and Beta Theta Pi.

Cadet 2nd Lt. James Maring of Omaha was elected 1st lieutenant, He was recently selected as the outstanding junior infantry cadet officer and his distinguished him-Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalism fraternity, elected its officers for next year at their last regular meeting of their Geneva. Wilkins is a new broch self in track where he has won Geneva. Wilkins is an air ROTC cadet and is also assistant business curtains are melting" . . and "why is my love framed with black?" was elected first sargeant. He is a military police cadet and was recently awarded the American Legion 40 et'8 medal for having the highest overall scholarship of any ROTC student for six semesters. Rasmussen is the retiring art editor of the Cornhusker and a member of Delta Phi Delta, art honorary, and Sigma Alpha Ep-

> Installation of the new officers will take place tonight,