

Gathering Spot . . .

Just as during the regular school term, the Union will continue this summer to be the central meeting spot for coke dates, movies, dances—all of which are part of school life. This air-conditioned, three story building, should be especially popular on those hot summer days.

All students are entitled to all the facilities of the Union, such as a record room, containing a large classical library, a card room, table tennis room, lounge, Corn Crib, cafeteria dining room, and ballroom.

Guidance Exams' Dates Released

Two special dates for taking comprehensive guidance and counseling exams have been scheduled for the convenience of all new students expecting to enter the University of Nebraska next fall.

Dr. George W. Rosenlof, Director of Admissions, said the examinations will be held July 23-24 on the university campus for students who wish to get their exams out of the way by the end of the summer. All new students must take the exams. Exams were also

Union Starts Summer Term At Open House

To open the summer session activities program the Student Union will entertain all students at open house on Friday, June 11.

For entrance, a student need merely present his identification card. Each student is entitled to bring one guest not registered in the University.

The Union doors will open for the party at 8:30 p.m. Dancing will last until midnight. Music for the dance to be held in the ballroom will be provided by Gene Moyer and his orchestra.

Feature of the evening will be a floor show. Lloyd's dance studio will present a dance demonstration of Latin American numbers.

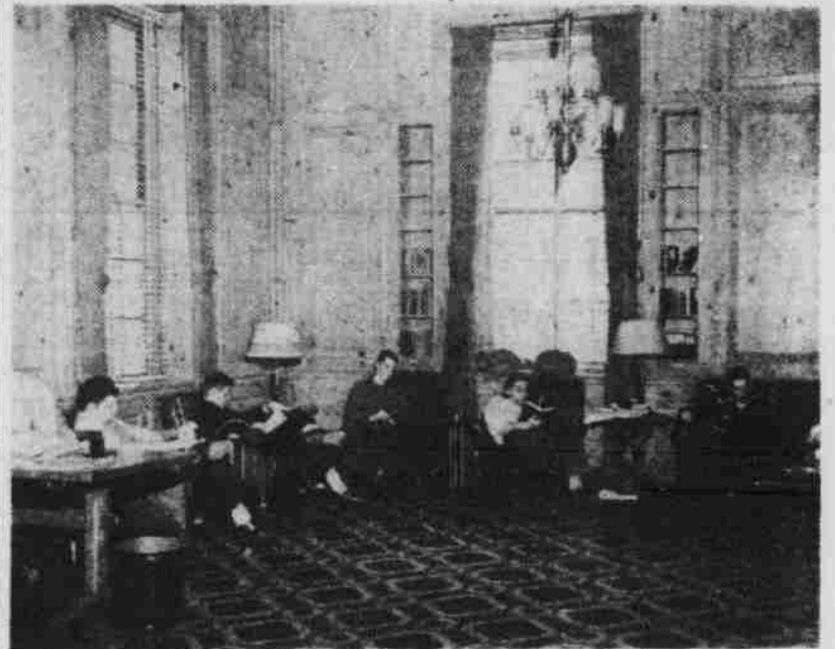

Another form of entertainment will be a series of movie shorts which will be shown in room 315 twice during the evening, at 9 p.m. and 10 p.m. The music, card and game rooms will also be open for party-goers' use.

Refreshments—punch and cookies—will be served during the evening.

held June 4-5.

The two special dates are in addition to the regular exams set for Sept. 9, 10 and 11 just prior to registration. Information about the exams may be secured by writing the Office of the Director of Admissions or the Junior Division Office of the University of Nebraska, Lincoln.

Quiet Place to Study . . .

An outstanding feature of the Union is the Book Nook located in back of the Crib. This quiet room, furnished with books, newspapers, reading lamps, easy chairs, study tables, ashtrays is a comfortable and relaxing place for students to study or read in the spare moments between classes. A no smoking ban in this room was removed last spring.

Library Receives $150 Donation

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Hill, Lincoln, have given the University Libraries $150 to purchase books and music by or about Jewish musicians and artists, Frank A. Lundy, university librarian, announced Wednesday.

The books and music will be selected by Mr. Lundy from a list of titles prepared by Prof. Duard W. Laging, chairman of the art department, and Myron J. Roberts, assistant professor of organ and theory. The gift was made to the university through the University of Nebraska Foundation.
