

Oklahoma Aggies Win 8-5 In Last District Playoff

Victors Will Journey to NCAA Competition in Denver, Colo.

The Oklahoma Aggies caught up with starter Angelo Ossino in the sixth inning of the third game of the district 5 playoffs and tallied six runs before reliefer Jack Helmsing could put out the fire, and went on to win the deciding games by a score of 8 to 5.

Nebraska was ahead by 5 to 2 when the Aggies put together five singles to score the game-winning runs. The Huskers loaded the bases in the seventh and eighth innings but were unable to get a run across.

Two homers were exchanged during the game as Bob Cerv and Frank Kellert both hit four-baggers over the same place in center. A total of 20 hits were socked out, with each team getting ten. The Aggies won the game in spite of the fact that they committed seven errors to one for Nebraska.

The Huskers won the first game Monday night at Sherman Field by a score of 7 to 5. Nebraska outhit the Aggies, 13 to 10 in the fracas. Jim Sandstedt went the distance for the Cornhuskers and except for the first and last innings he was in trouble every inning.

Oklahoma came back in the second game in the last half of the ninth inning to score two runs and win the ball game by 5 to 4. Gloystein went the whole game for Nebraska and only two of the five runs were earned, the other three coming on costly errors by the Husker fielders.

The Oklahoma pitcher walked the first four men to face him as the Huskers scored two runs in the first inning. They added another in the third as Neighbors of Oklahoma let Denker's grounder slip through him.

One more run was scored by the Huskers in the seventh as Schleiher got the first hit off Hutchison, was sacrificed to second, and scored on Blatchford's single. The Aggies picked up one in the fourth, one in the sixth, one in the seventh and two in the last of the ninth to notch the win.

This victory sends the Aggies to Denver, June 16 to 19, for the western NCAA playoffs.

Mary L. Boehm Wins Scholarship

Mary Louise Boehm, University of Nebraska piano instructor, is one of a few American pianists to be awarded a full scholarship to the School of Music and Art at Fontainebleau, France, Dr. Arthur Westbrook, director of the university fine arts school, said Wednesday.

The Fontainebleau school will give advanced training to 75 American musicians and 75 artists during the summer months. They were selected by the Fontainebleau Association of New York City from a list of 900 applicants.

Miss Boehm will take piano instruction from Robert Casadesus, famed French pianist. She will sail from New York City June 17 and return to America Sept. 1. Miss Boehm has been a university faculty member for three years. She graduated from the Northwestern University school of Music.

Most of the veterans studying in schools and colleges under the G-I Bill and the Vocational Rehabilitation Act (Public Law 16) for disabled veterans are attending one school only, a Veterans Administration survey reveals.
