University Army, Air Force ROTC Gets Superior Rating

Chancellor R. G. Gustavson said Wednesday that the University of Nebraska Army & Air Force ROTC was one of 12 in the nation to get a "superior" rating in the federal inspection this year.

The information came from Lt. Gen. Walton H. Walker, commanding general of the Fifth army in Chicago, who said Nebraska rated superior in administration, training and over-all rating. Twelve other schools received the top rating out of 140 senior ROTC units in the country.

The federal inspection was held on the campus May 11, 12 and 13. The Army and Air Force units are commanded by Col. Howard

John. This is the highest rating for Nebraska in "many years."

The Nebraska ROTC won its top award, the military department said, on the basis of superior or excellent ratings in these principal categories: Participation of the military department staff in community and university affairs; support of the ROTC program by the chancellor and faculty, and ROTC staff's support of the institution; condition of government property; condition of records; instructional facilities; extra curricular activities such as rifle team; discipline and detailed components of the teaching program.

MAGEE'S

again—the gay blade

Johnnye Junior needed the nineties to inspire this galavanting two-piecer.

For it was handle bar mustachios who used to sport the spanking white pique vest, the string bow tie, the touches of mad plaid. And hero of it all is . . . little-waisted, rounded-hipped and worn with an infante plaid skirt. Dan River's plaid with white waffle pique.
