Agar...

"Dr. Agar is a very effective speaker," stated Dr. Sorenson who heard him talk at United Nations headquarters to a large group of educators.

Expressing the hope that many people would take advantage of the clinic and Dr. Agar's talks, Dr. Sorenson said that the first clinic whose speaker was Dr. Walter Harris, was "highly successful."

Lujack to Play With All-Stars

Johnny Lujack and thirteen of his 1947 Notre Dame teammates were added en masse to the collegiate roster for the annual All-Star football game in Soldier Field Aug. 20.

A week ago a mass invitation was given to ten Michigan players. Thus, practically the entire lineups of the Michigan and Notre Dame teams, which were unbeaten and untied last season, will be ready to face the Chicago Cardinals, National Football League champions.

Never before in the fourteen-year history of the All-Star series have two colleges been so heavily represented.

The Notre Dame squad, in addition to All-American Lujack, includes Russ Ashbaugh, quarterback; Bob Livingstone and William Gompers, halfback; Floyd

BUSINESS ED.

All business education teachers on the campus are invited to meet informally for lunch Thursday of each week in the second floor dining room of the Union. Reservations must be made by each Wednesday noon in Teachers College, room 119.
