DePauw Prof Classifies Students Into 11 Categories

GREENCASTLE, Ind. (ACPC). Prof. A. Reid Winsey of DePauw university classifies students.

"After 15 years of lecturing in a typical small liberal arts college, one collects an astonishing array of interesting types. Several weeks ago, after a delightful dinner of crabmeat and pickles they all returned to haunt me:

"1. The athletic type—The academic processes hold no terrors for the hero of the gridiron. His fraternity brothers have a complete file of my lecture notes and examinations. It's a rare treat to find him in class. So nice of him to come.

"2. The playboy type—The morning after finds him in class in his roommate's shoes on the wrong feet. He drops his pipe but never quite recovers it. I hand it to him after class.

"3. The academic type—Probably the most objectional of all. The head is attached to the spine on a hinge and nods back and forth during the entire lecture and the mouth and eyes utter continually, 'Yes, professor, Yes, professor.'

"4. The negative type—All right brother, you put me in this class, now just try to teach me something. You would put me in the front row. I can hear him uttering under his breath, 'For gash sakes, let's get this over.'

"5. The lovey dovey type—Must be taken together for they are inseparable as two Siamese twins. Hearts and music, violets and poetry, these two love birds are majoring in Marriage and the Family.

"6. Camouflage — He always brings an armload of books to class to impress me, I guess. The boys are on to him, however, and someone is always picking on him. At the moment he's sitting on a tack and trying to get someone's feet off his back.

"7. The popular type—She had four fraternity pins this semester three last, and spends the class hour twisting the ends of her beautiful hair. This little stunt is sure to drive any instructor insane.

"8. The wholesome type — Wears what every college girl should wear, act like every college girl should act and talks like every college girl should talk—constantly. She's at it now.

"9. The clock watcher—I suppose she has wound her watch three times already. She always starts shuffling her feet and putting on her coat about 15 minutes before the end of the class.

"10. The sexy type — This would-be campus queen just loves the boys, all the boys, all the time. She doesn't care what the other girls think of her clothes.

Meaning of 'A' Grade Asked By Manchester College Prof

NORTH MANCHESTER, Ind. (ACP). A professor of Manchester college writing in the editorial columns of Oak Leaves asks the readers for their opinions: "Just what is the meaning of an 'A' grade?"

"Are grades necessary at all? Before you say yes or no, think of actual life situations. Are people in positions of trust or holding menial jobs by accident? Or has there been a sifting? Is this equivalent to grading or not?"

"Is an 'A' student one who makes hundreds in his class-room scores, alone?"

"Should any difference be made between the student who attends class regularly and one who by choice is often absent? Are consistency and regularity a part of the 'A' grade symbol?"

"When a student is absent, for any cause, should it become a part of his grade-responsibility to give the honest reason for such absence, or should all absences go without any excuse being offered or required? In other words, does class attendance carry with it an element of co-operation with other students in the class or with the teacher?"

"If class attendance becomes almost or wholly voluntary will there be a tendency to arouse a type of battle of wits between teacher and pupil to see which can trap the other? For example, would rather highly technical questions be justifiable to make sure the skipping student has really mastered the textbook material?"

dent? Cooperation? Promptness? Reliability? Honesty? Consistent performance?"

"If none of the extra-class elements enter into the giving of grades, should some sort of itemization of citizenship accompany each issue of grades and each transcript? If this should be done, should it carry a report of avoidable absences from class? What should be considered in such grades — maximum effort as judged by comprehensive psychological tests (so-called intelligence test)—conformity with and to college ideals and rules?
