

C. E. Conners Wins Union Ping-Pong Championship

Champion in the Union's summer ping pong tourney last Saturday was Charles E. Conners who defeated Paul J. Baker in the finals by winning three games out of five.

Baker was named runner-up and the two players received professional ping pong paddles as prizes.

Conners defeated Milton Trilinsky in the first round and William Stephan in the second to earn a place in the final competition. The first two rounds were played on the basis of winning two games out of three while the finals on the basis of three games out of five.

Consolation prize was won by Trilinsky in playoffs among the losers in the first round.

Others entered in this open singles tourney were Dean Mitchell, L. L. Nicholson, M. E. Blitchford and M. D. Bondy.

Dale Bloss Is Tennis Singles Champion

Summer school tennis singles champion at the University of Nebraska is Dale Bloss of Wayne, Neb., a graduate student in physical education and education. Bloss defeated G. Paul Miller of Goshen, Ind., and more recently a high school coach from Kansas by a score of 5-7, 6-1, 6-4.

"HE SAID, 'SMELL IT, DOC...'"

Bloss previously defeated Paul Beckenhauer 6-3, 6-2; and won from Norman Bahr 6-4, 6-3. Miller won his right to play in the finals by victories over G. N. Watkins and Al McCallum.

Miller has a chance to still come up with a championship for the summer, however, since he is now in the finals of the Horseshoe tournament. He meets Bill Kushman in the finals this week to decide the title. Previously Miller eliminated Max Peterson and Floyd Schelby, while Bill Kushman won from both Arnold Firnhaber and Roscoe Heins.

Iowa State Cyclones Will Play Six Home Games This Season

AMES, Ia., July 20—One thing is sure for the 1948 football season—Iowa State fans can't complain about not getting to see the Cyclones in action often enough!

Six home games will be played by the Cardinal and Gold gridgers this fall, the greatest number in more than 30 years. Nor is quality to be sacrificed for quantity for both Big Seven co-champions—Oklahoma and Kansas—and Michigan State, one of the top independent teams of the nation, will play at Ames. Other home foes include Iowa Teachers, North Central conference champs, Drake, and Colorado, long a Rocky Mountain power. It will be the first official conference grid appearance of the Colorado team in Ames.

The 1948 football schedule:
 Sept. 18—Iowa State Teachers college at Ames.
 Sept. 25—University of Nebraska at Lincoln.
 Oct. 2—Kansas State college at Manhattan.
 Oct. 9—University of Kansas at Ames.
 Oct. 16—University of Colorado at Ames. (Homecoming).
 Oct. 23—University of Missouri at Columbia.
 Oct. 30—University of Oklahoma at Ames.

Nov. 6—Drake University at Ames.
 Nov. 13—Michigan State college at Ames.
 Nov. 20—University of Arizona at Tucson (night).
