Union Show . . .

(Continued from Page 1) will be given that opportunity. Ed Trumble, first vice president of the Union Board, and an Ag Union member will be on hand to receive applications.

Committee positions are open to any student in the University. The Union operates on a plan that permits freshmen and sophomores to work on committees of their own choice. The committee chairmen judge each student's work to determine their possible placement on the slate for election to the Union Board of Directors. This board, composed of students, faculty and alumni, is the supreme governing body for the Student Union on both campuses.

Information Will Be Posted. Information will be posted for those interested in learning more about this activity, and Union workers will help with the students' applications.

Six committees, music, general entertainment, games, library and house rules, convocations and hospitality and publicity, are recruiting workers.

Friday night's "open house" is arranged so that everyone may see each special show or act. All acts except those held in the ballroom will be given more than once.

Loop Elevens Move Into Final Practice Drills

Big Seven conference football squads continued preparations Tuesday for season openers Saturday and a week from Saturday. Colorado, starting its first season in the loop, executed tricky

The Union's opening party has been planned by the new Union Activities Committee under the leadership of Mrs. Dorothy Wierich Day. Mrs. Day has recently joined the staff as Activities Director.

Committee members are: Miss Alice Mathauser, Ag Union Director; Bob Easter, Marge Cherny, Ed Trumble, Mary Ellen Schroeder, Paul Weltchek, Byron Hooper, Sue Bjorklund, Neal Miller, Harriet Moline and Jack DeWulf. The opening party will be held at the city Union for members of both campuses.

pass plays in Tuesday's double workout. Coach Dallas Ward was pleased with the improved ball carrying of sophomore Halfback Dane Graves. The long-distance kicking of Halfbacks Malcolm Miller and Don Evans also highlighted the practice sessions.

Sooner Sophs See Action

Sophomores continued to see action in the first team lineup in the Oklahoma Sooner camp. Claude Arnold, a pre-war gridder with the Oklahoma frosh, alternated with regular Quarterback Darrell Royal. Several sophomores joined the list of backs, and Dean Smith, a second-year man, was in a regular defensive guard spot.

Three regulars were missing from the lineup as Missouri's powerful squad went through Tuesday workouts. Bus Entsminger and Loyd Brinkman, backs, and End Mel Sheehan were out because of injuries received in last week's scrimmages. All are expected to report back for duty this week. Martin Sauer and Bob

Church Spokesmen To Speak Sunday

Spokesmen for Protestant, Catholic and Jewish faiths will discuss religious influences at the University on the Nebraska Network broadcast, Your University Speaks, Sunday, at 12:30 p. m.

Appearing on the program will be Msgr. George J. Schuster, Catholic chaplain at the University; the Rev. Richard W. Nutt, Methodist University pastor; Rabbi Jerome Kestenbaum, Hillel counselor; Miss Ruth Shinn, University Y.W.C.A. director, and Gordon Lippitt, University Y.M.C.A. director.

Robinson filled in for Entsminger and Brinkman.

Dick Gilman, Don Wilson and Bill Mace showed fair accuracy in Tuesday's session in the Kansas University camp. The Jayhawks stressed offensive drills in preparing for Saturday's opener with Texas Christian University.

In Ames, Coach Abe Stuber alternated five teams on offensive and defensive drills in Tuesday's two workouts. Wednesday will be the last of the two-a-day sessions.
