

Pepsters Give Rally Call

Boosters to Meet At Union Tonight

With "N" feathers for everyone, the traditional Victory Bell and the university pep band will help set the mood for Nebraska's first big football rally of the season Friday.

Students will meet in front of the Union at 7 p. m. to join in a procession down R street to 16th, north on 16th to Vine and west on Vine to the Coliseum, where rally leaders predict that one of the most enthusiastic rallies in the history of Nebraska sports will take place.

Pep talks will be given by Coach George "Potsy" Clark, another mentor and two members of the '48 'Husker team whose names have not been released. Following these a demonstration of student spirit will be led by energetic cheerleaders, Corncobs and Tassels.

"The yell squad selected by the student council last year has been meeting and practicing regularly since school convened and the spirit in the squad promises to be better than ever before," reports Yell King Bill Mickle, adding, "Pairs of the squad have gone around to all the organized houses and have been greeted with enthusiasm and co-operation as they led them through several cheers. We hope that continued pep will be a big boost to the Cornhuskers."

BILL MICKLE
... Heads Tonite's Rally

Songs

"Rally Huskers"

Rally, Huskers, rally one and all
Rally Huskers, hear Nebraska's call
Fight forever, oh you team
For the Scarlet and the Cream

Go! Gang! GO!

Rally Huskers, glory waits for you
Rally Huskers, see what you can do
Listen to that battle cry
Of Nebraska Uni

"The Cornhuskers"

(It is a Nebraska tradition to stand
The Cornhusker)

with heads bared during the singing
Come a Cornhusker
Don't you know the noise
Like the thunder in the sky?

How it rolls along
In the good old song
For the sons of Nebraska,
Now it's coming near
With a rising cheer

That will sweep all foes away,
So with all our vim
We are bound to win
And we're going to win today.

CHORUS.

For Nebraska and the Scarlet
For Nebraska and the Cream
Tho' they go thru many a battle
Our colors still are seen.

So in contest and in victory
We will wave them for the team,
And 'twill always stir a Cornhusker
The old Scarlet and the Cream.

"Huskerland"

Fraile schooners drawn by oxen trokked
o'er Husker trails,
Stalwart men of ol' Nebraska, battled many gales

Tilled this land of golden rod and gave us corn and grain,
Husker's sons of pioneers, it's time to plow again.

Chorus:
Fight, fight, fight, for Huskerland—Nebraska land—N.U.U.

Fight, fight, fight, team make that stand
—Bring Huskerland right thru:
Hold that charging foe, With a westward Ho!

Rush 'em crush 'em, Hutsie around
Cornhuskers go
Thru that U Class, Bear, Gopher, Of
"Mizzou,"

Cyclone, Sooners, Notre Dame, Hawkeye,
K. U.

Fight, fight, fight, for Huskerland Nebraska land
Yea fight.

U. U. N. I. Ver, Ver, Versitt, All hall Cornhuskers
Over the land from Plymouth Rock to the Golden Gate
Great Lakes to Rio Grande.

"Hail to the Team"

Hail to the team,
The stadium ring as everyone sings
The Scarlet and the Cream
Cheers for victory
Echoes our loyalty

So on mighty men,
The eyes of the land
Upon every hand
Are looking at you.

Fight on the victory
Hail, the men of Nebraska U.

Activity Tickets

Attention! All student activity books must be picked up by Friday noon. Deadline for purchase of activity books is the same, according to A. J. Lewandowski.

Daily Nebraskan

Vol. 49—No. 8 Lincoln 8, Nebraska, Friday, September 24, 1948

Football Fanfare ...

HUSKER DRUM MAJOR—Walt Davis, Kearney, will lead the famed Nebraska marching band of approximately 120 onto the field Saturday for its opening performance of the year. Davis is beginning his first year as drum major after serving two years as assistant drum major. The snappy U.N. band, under the direction of Don Lentz, will execute several formations at half-time. As in the past, Nebraska's scarlet and cream clad marchers will be a big factor in generating spirit and pep into the Husker rooters.

Religious Groups to Hold University Church Night After Rally Friday

All freshmen and new students are especially invited to the All-University Church night which will begin tonight immediately following the rally.

All-University Church night is an all-campus program and its primary aim is to acquaint the students with the churches of the city and the programs which the various student groups of their denominations have.

Students are invited to share in the fun and get to know the student pastor and students of the group with which they will be closely associated throughout their college life. Students will meet at their respective student houses and the evening programs will continue from there.

Following are the programs outlined for All-University Church night, Sept. 24:

Baptist. A progressive party will be the feature of the Baptist students. The group will meet at 315 No. 16th street at 7:30 p. m. Transportation will be available to take the students to Second Baptist, Sheridan Blvd. Baptist church, and First Baptist. Entertainment will be provided at each church by the churches.

A picnic and vesper service is planned for Sunday, Sept. 26, at Pioneers Park. Cars will leave the Baptist House at 5:00 p. m., and will return around 8:00 p. m.

Catholic. There will be Welcome Party and Dance in parlors XYZ and the Ballroom of the Student Union. Starting time is 8:30 p. m. Masses will be held Sunday in parlors XYZ of the Union at 9:00 a. m. and 11:00 a. m.

Congregational. Congregational students will find a hearty welcome at either party planned tonight. There will be fellowship at both Vine church, 25th and S St., and First-Plymouth, 20th and D St.

Plymouth will feature billiards, ping-pong, roller skating, and dancing, in addition to an introduction to the church building and its facilities and program. A special recital on the famous First-Plymouth carillon is planned.

Both parties will begin immediately after the rally.

Evangelical and Reformed. Evangelical and Reformed students will join the Congregational students in observance of All-University Church night.

Lutheran. Students affiliated with the National Lutheran Council churches will meet at First Lutheran church at 8:15 p. m. After the recreational portion of the program, which will include games and singing, the local pastors will be introduced. The evening will close with Vespers.

Ag and City L.S.A. will join for a picnic on Sept. 26. Cars will leave student house at 3:30 p. m. for Pioneers Park. Volley ball, softball and the picnic supper will be followed by a Camp Fire Sing.

Methodist. "C. U. Rounda," 7:30 p. m., St. Paul's, 12 and M St.

"Olympics," 7:30 p. m., Grace church, 27th and R St.

"Track Meet," 7:30 p. m., Elm Park church, 29th and Randolph.

"Kickoff," 7:30 p. m., Epworth church, 29th and Holdrege.

The Sunday night program for the Methodist students is as follows:

St. Paul's, "University of Life," 5:30 p. m.

Grace church, "What About Young Germans?" 6:30 p. m.

Elm Park, "Wesley Fellowship," 6:30 p. m.

Epworth church, "Goodwill Industries," 6:00 p. m.

Presbyterian. Students will meet at the Presby House immediately following the rally and will leave from there for Westminster church for a program of games, dancing and refreshments. This is a Blue Jeans party. Sept. 26, the Forum will be led by Marian Crook, Jo Kellenbarger, Dale Ball and Norm Leger. They will discuss the topic, "The Most Important Thing at NU." Supper will begin at 5:30 p. m. and the discussion at 6:30 p. m.

Unitarian. Unitarian students will observe All-University Church night by an open house at the Unitarian church, 12th and H St., at 7:30 p. m. Rev. and Mrs. Philip Shug, officers and members of the Channing Foundation and the college age group of the American

See Religious Groups, Page 8

High Pitched Spirit Breaks

"Cheers for the victory" rang across the campus last night as Cornhusker spirit boiled over in a spontaneous demonstration.

A small group of enthusiastic students raised the rally cry which brought some 500 Huskers to a roaring bonfire at 16th and S. Called to the scene by popular demand, Ray Blemond, varsity yell squad member, led the crowd in cheers and songs.

The noise of firecrackers punctuated the steady chant "Beat Iowa State" as a snake dance moved the throng to the Women's Dorm and then on to the Union.

With spirit still at a high pitch the crowd disbanded promising an even greater display for tonight's first official rally.

'Daily' Prints List of UN Songs, Yells

The 1948-'49 yell squad has prepared a list of easy, effective songs and yells. During the summer, squad members wrote other universities for their best yells which could be adapted to Husker use and these have been added to the list of old favorites and revisions. Here are results of their efforts:

Cheers

Huskers Fight

Huskers Fight
Huskers Fight
Huskers Fight
Fight! Fight! Fight!

The Locomotive

N-E-B-R-A-S-K-A-S-I-K-I-A!
N-E-B-R-A-S-K-A-S-I-K-I-A!
N-E-B-R-A-S-K-A-S-I-K-I-A!
Nebraska!

N. U. Huskers

N! U! Huskers!
(Pause) Fight!

"NE-BR"

NE-BR-AS-KA!
NE-BR-AS-KA!
NE-BR-AS-KA!
Nebraska!
N-E-B-R-A-S-K-I-K-I-A!
NEBRASKA!

All Aboard

All Aboard
Fight! Fight! Fight! Fight!
Win! Win! Win! Win!
Who! Who! Who! Who!
U! U! U!
N! N! N!
Nebraska.

Chant

(First part sung in low pitched voice with hands)
U-Rah, N-Rah, UNI
U Varsity N Varsity,
Nebraska, Nebraska, Nebraska!
(Second part yelled loudly and fast without hands)
U! U! U-N-I
Ver! Ver! V-E-R-S-I-T-I N-E-B-R-A-S-K-A Ooooo My Go Gang Go!

The Echo

N-E-B-R-A-S-K-I-K-I-A!
Nebraska!

T-E-A-M

T-E-A-M Yea Team
T-E-A-M Yea Team

Dorm Notice

If the following people are interested in Dorm A housing they must contact Room 209 Housing in Administration building immediately or they will be dropped from the waiting list.

Russell B. Jorgensen	Bevin B. Bump
Alonso D. Tillotson	Jon Stewart
Roland R. Casper	Norman P. Sutton
Leslie L. Hanson	Tack W. Hardy
Wesley F. Hultquist	Dennis E. Mitchem
Berle W. Means	Robert Hackbarth
Lester L. Roenitz	Kenneth Hiatt
David White	Jack Hansen
David V. Nelson	Lyle Japp
Charles P. Curtiss	Charles Fry
Carl L. Tipton	Neil Tyner
Edward J. Kowal	Charles Shipman
Louis A. Mandelberg	Richard Folda
Harshall B. Grant	Horace Newberg
Barley A. Richardson	Richard Tucker