

Wheels Claim Honors . . .

NORM LEGER, PRESIDENT OF INNOCENTS, makes the presentation of one of the trophies to a winning house in the Innocents' scholarship-activities contest. The presentations were made at the Freshman Hop Saturday night.

Scholarship-Activities Cups Awarded to AGR, Phi Psi

Representatives of Alpha Gamma Rho and Phi Kappa Psi were presented the Innocents Society's Scholarship-Activities trophies at the Frosh Hop Saturday night.

Norm Leger, president of Innocents, made the presentation.

AGR, with 867 points, was high fraternity on both Ag and City campuses, and received the first place award. Phi Psi, although edged by Farm House, was high on the City campus with 634 points.

Points were figured last spring on the basis of scholarship and participation in activities. Scholarship points were based in relation to the top ten houses with the fraternity average, plus bonus points for men on the honor roll.

AGRs instrumental in winning the trophy were Innocents Duane Munter and John Osler, former Innocent Ned Raun, Richard Walstrom, Bill Keeney and Don Smith.

Among high point Phi Psis were Innocents Dale Ball and Bob Hamilton, former Innocents' prexy Stan Johnson and Fritz Ware.

'Authors of the Ages' Scheduled To Open University Radio Season

By Earl Katz

Exactly at 9 p. m. Tuesday, the little red "on the air" light will glow at the university's radio department studios and "Authors of the Ages," the first university radio program of the semester will flash over the air waves of KFOR.

Mr. Dempsey, the new general of the radio department has announced that Authors of the Ages will be the top program of the year at the Temple studios, taking the place of last year's "Mid-country" program. Dempsey has also announced a well-rounded radio schedule featuring news, drama, sports, comedy and women's programs.

Irish Comedy First Presented.

The first Author's program will be "Hyacinth Halvy," an Irish comedy. The play has been adapted from stories found in Eire's literature about a man who could do no wrong, Hyacinth Halvey. Poor Hyacinth tries desperately to rid himself of this reputation but only succeeds miserably in having himself acclaimed "a walking Saint, and the purest man on earth." Hyacinth tries stealing a leg of pork from a butcher's shop, and when this fails, he robs a Protestant church. This final desperate adventure leaves his good reputation unscathed and even enriched.

The Daily Nebraskan will keep close tab on all activities in the Temple radio studios. Prominent "mike" personalities may be interviewed from time to time to acquaint university students with the top talent in campus radio. A weekly radio log will be printed. Mr. Dempsey has established a tentative radio schedule for the year:

Monday: Women's program. Tuesday: Farm report. Wednesday: News. Thursday: Drama. Friday: Sports. Saturday: "Forum of the Air." Sunday: "Forum of the Air." Paul Shupach will review sports Friday afternoons at 4:30. Forum of the Air will be featured over eight stations covering Nebraska:

Morton Wells to Appear At Farmers Formal Oct. 8

Many Vets Must Take Med Exams

Veterans may have physical examinations required for reinstatement of GI insurance made by either private physicians or a regular VA doctor, it was announced Monday by the Veterans Administration.

Before contacting a private physician veterans must apply in person or by letter to the nearest VA office and get permission to take the exam from their own doctor.

The VA also announced that student veterans whose dependency changed during the summer must submit proof of additional dependency as soon as possible to the appropriate VA regional office.

Single veterans studying under the GI bill are eligible for their usual monthly subsistence of $75. Veterans with one dependent may receive $105 per month and veterans with two or more dependents $120.

Proof of added dependents should have by now been sent into the VA administration.

Reinstatement of any National Service Life Insurance policy which has lapsed three months or more, and in the case of term longer now requires a medical examination, at least two monthly premiums must accompany the application.

Jeans, Calico to Reign at Ag Annual Country Style Dance

Music by Morton Wells and his orchestra will be featured at the 1948 Farmers Formal Friday, Oct. 8, at Ag College. The traditional dance is scheduled at 8:00 p. m. in the College Activities building.

Ag Faculty Plans Mixer For Students

An informative and entertaining evening is promised for ag students at the annual Student-Faculty reception, according to P. A. Downs, chairman of the affair. The official faculty welcome will take place on Saturday night, beginning at 8 p. m.

Opening with a social hour in the lounge, the evening will feature dancing, games, and refreshments. Special guests to be introduced during the social hour along with the faculty are: Dr. and Mrs. Borgmann, Dean and Mrs. Thompson, Dean Marjorie Johnston, and the Board of Regents.

Gay Feistner and his orchestra will furnish music for the dance which will be held in the auditorium. Games will be set up in the Union recreation room for those not caring to dance.

Alice Mathausser has announced that the Ag Union Dell will remain open Saturday until 12 midnight to accommodate those attending the reception.

Other committee chairman for the event are Miss Gladys Ruby and L. B. Snyder. Sub-committee chairman include C. E. Rosenquist, reception; E. G. Maxwell, decoration; J. Swingston, entertainment; Miss Josephine Brooks, refreshments; Miss Bess Steele, publicity; and C. C. Minter, finance.

Students who have not yet secured their '48 Cornhusker's may do so at the Cornhusker office any afternoon except Saturday. There are still some 300 Cornhuskers to be called for and the business staff wishes to have these picked up as soon as possible.

Dean Johnston and Her Staff Entertain Coeds at Formal Tea

Dean of Women Miss Marjorie Johnston, and members of her staff entertained at a formal tea for all university women students Friday afternoon in Ellen Smith Hall.

In the receiving line with Miss Johnston were Miss Elsie Ford Piper, assistant dean of women, Miss Mary Augustine, assistant to the dean, and Miss Emilie Doolley, director of women's residence halls. Guests were greeted by Miss Joan Farrar, President of Mortar Board and Miss Marian Crook, President of Associated Women Students, who introduced them to Miss Johnston. Members of Mortar Board greeted the guests in the court.

Assisting in the drawing room were Miss Ruth Shinn, executive director, YWCA; Mrs. Philip Schmelkin, Panhellenic Council secretary; Mrs. Richard Streiwieser, secretary to the dean; and Miss Sallie Wilson and Mrs. Verne Huff, heads of the women's residence halls.

During the first hour Mrs. Carl W. Borgmann and Mrs. G. W. Rosenlof presided at the tea table in the dining room. Mrs. Arthur Westbrook and Mrs. Frank Lundy were at the table in the court. At the tea table in the dining

A regular attraction at the Legion Club in Omaha, Wells and his orchestra are current favorites in this part of the country. He also played for the Farmers Formal last year.

Formal only in its name, the county style ball is an annual affair among Ag college students. City campus students are also invited; provided they come in the appropriate garb, the calicos and the jeans.

Atmosphere Provided

The ballroom of the Activities building provides an appropriate atmosphere with its barnyard and ranchlike decoration setting. Even the dance orchestra joins in the theme with their blue jeans and neckerchiefs and their special renditions of "Ragtime Cowboy Joe" and "I Can't Get Offa My Horse."

Highlight of the occasion is the moment when the Queen of the Farmers Formal steps out from behind a haystack or similar setting into the limelight. Chosen by an all campus election, the Queen must be chosen from the senior class in home economics and must have weighted 80 or 6 average. Candidates for the honor will be announced in a later Daily Nebraskan and an all campus election will be held Tuesday, Oct. 5, from 9 to 5 p. m.

Four Attendants Presented.

Along with the honored Queen four attendants will be presented. Last year, six attendants participated but the number has been cut to four this year. Bernice Young was Farmers Formal Queen last year.

Tickets for the dance will soon go on sale on Ag campus for $2.00 per couple, including tax. Sponsored by the Ag Exec Board, the Ball is being planned by co-chairman selected by the Board, Marge Reynolds and Jack Baird. Committee members include: presentation—Gwen Monson, Jack DeWulf, George Pinkerton; publicity—Louis McDill, Alice Boswell; tickets—Neal Baxter, Phil Keeney; chaperones—Betty Beckner; decorations—Lloyd Wirth, Frank Loeffel and John Osler.

Dean Johnston and Her Staff Entertain Coeds at Formal Tea

room during the second hour were Mrs. Warren Baller and Miss Margaret Fedde, and in the court Miss Mable Lee and Mrs. T. J. Thompson. They were assisted in serving by the presidents of the women's houses and organizations.

Members of the Delta Omicron, Mu Phi Epsilon, and Sigma Alpha Iota furnished music during the tea.
