

Three IM Teams Score Victories

Tau Kappa Epsilon tripped Sigma Alpha Epsilon 7-6, Theta Xi beat Alpha Sigma Phi 12-0, and Sigma Nu won over Brown Palace 13-0 in Wednesday's intramural games.

Theta Xi's intramural football team passed its way to a 12 to 0 victory over Alpha Sigma Phi on the east mall Wednesday.

The Theta Xi's uncorked a blazing attack which brought them within pay dirt twice in the first half, but a stubborn defense kept them from scoring.

The second half proved to be a repeat performance of the first with the Theta Xi's capitalizing on their passing ability to gain yardage. Verge Mundhanke pulled the game out of a stalemate as he intercepted a pass and ran to pay dirt. Bob Bale scored the other touchdown in the waning minutes of the game.

Mandhanke proved to be the outstanding player on the field with his fine offense and defensive work.

Tau Kappa Epsilon nipped Sigma Alpha Epsilon 7 to 6 in an extra period. Sterkle's 30 yard pass to Sterkle in the end zone forced the game into overtime. The Tekes out-yarded Sig Alphas in the extra period to eke out a victory.

The Sig Alphas drew first blood in the opening period. Hansen fumbled while attempting to punt on the fourth down, and Sig Alphas took over on the Teke 28. Hale passed to Creed for a first down on the 16. Hale then found Rump in the end zone for a touchdown. The pass for point was incomplete, and the half ended with Sig Alphas leading 6 to 0.

The teams battled on even terms through the second half until, with only two minutes remaining, the Tekes took over the ball in midfield. Parchin ran to the 30 for a first down. Two passes failed, then, with time for only one play, Sterkle's heave tied the game. Parchin slipped while attempting the point and the regulation time ended with the score tied.

Sigma Nu used a sleeper play to down Brown Palace 13-0. Andy Button passed to Bob Isham for the first score. Bob Hind and Walt Samuelson set up the next touchdown in the second quarter with a long pass. Bob Hind scored off tackle on the next play. The Sig Nu's gave Hind perfect blocking for his 15 yard touchdown drive.

on Oct. 24 for the team championship.

See off time for the qualifying rounds will be from 8 a.m. to 10:30 a.m.

Last year's team champions, Phi Delta Theta, and runnerup, Phi Kappa Psi, should be on hand to defend their laurels. Individual champion of last year was John Bumstead of Delta Upsilon, and the runnerup was Bruce Campbell of Phi Kappa Psi.

No entry blanks are needed as any number of men from each organization may enter the qualifying round.

Huskers Will Be At Full Strength

Nebraska's Cornhuskers will be at full strength for Minnesota this weekend and they will need to be, according to scout Ray Prochaska who returned from Seattle where he watched the Gophers blank the University of Washington, 20-0.

Coach Patsy Clark opened scrimmage this week with instructions explaining how to cover kickoffs and punts. The Cornhuskers were letting the Iowa State punt and kickoff receivers thread back much to far in the opening contest.

Ferguson Improves
The Cyclones lugged back six Nebraska punts for a total of 87 yards. They also ran off 133 yards with five kickoffs.

Steady improvement in the play of sophomore Gerald Ferguson of Scottsbluff was one of the highlights. Gerry was running hard and had an average of 40 yards on punts despite the fact that one of his nine kicks was blocked for a safety. He completed three of eight passes.

Promotions Indicated
Cornhusker coaches know that all foes will spray forward passes over the gridiron because of Nebraska's stubby backfield. Iowa State managed to complete nine for 135 yards, one of which scored a touchdown. However, three of the 21 passes which the Cyclones threw were intercepted.

Early practices indicated some promotions for members of the scout team who have been showing real hustle in the workouts.

Squad Leaves Thursday
Bill (Rockfist) Mueller, recently brought up from the scouts had the best average on the ground of any of the Husker backs. He gained 49 yards in six carries, one of them a 20 yard scamper for a touchdown.

The Nebraska squad will leave Lincoln Thursday night at 9 p. m. and arrive in Minnesota at 8:20 a. m. Friday.

The squad will be quartered at the Curtis hotel and will remain overnight Saturday, leaving for Lincoln at 8:45 Sunday morning.
