

Coll-Agri-Fun Show Slated For November

Hidden talent will be revealed at Ag again this year with the presentation of the Coll-Agri Fun Night. The date for the event has been set for Nov. 6, according to Gale Erlewine, manager of Coll-Agri-board.

Organized houses and other groups will be represented in the various skits and curtain acts which make up the show. The organization giving the best performance of the evening will gain possession of the coveted first prize cup.

Members of the Coll-Agri board includes Gale Erlewine, manager; Ruth Swanson, assistant manager; Connie Crosbie, secretary; and Neal Baxter, treasurer.

Dairy Judging Team Competes In Iowa Meet

Members of the Ag College Dairy Judging team will leave Saturday for Waterloo, Ia., where Intercollegiate dairy judging contest.

R. G. Fossland, team coach, announced that Stan Lux, Phil Grabowski, Bob Epp, and Glen Claybaugh will make the trip. The team is picked from outstanding men in dairy courses 8 and 9.

The judging contest this year is being held in conjunction with the National Dairy Cattle Congress, which will be held Oct. 4-10.

This show, which is the national convention for the five ma-

Ag Faculty to Play Host to Students

Annual Student-Faculty Reception Scheduled for 8 p. m. Saturday

For dairy breeds except Jerseys, will afford the students an opportunity to see the best herd of the various breeds in the country and also to get acquainted with prominent dairy breeders and judges from various parts of the United States. Between 15 and 25 teams are expected from as many colleges for the contest.

Prizes offered by the different breed associations for the high man, high team and coach include: model cows, imported Swiss bells, trophies, pen and pencil sets and overnight bags.

To give the students an incentive to become as proficient in judging as possible, even though on the team, one of the four members will be named as alternate shortly before the contest.

pedagogic manners Saturday night when they turn out to welcome all newcomers to the campus. Festivities are slated to begin at 8 p. m. in the College Activities building.

Unique in nature, the mixer is an annual affair, and is sponsored entirely by the faculty on the campus. Ag college is the only one which offers such an opportunity for students and instructors to get acquainted.

Other prominent personalities on campus will be on hand to greet students. Special guests Saturday night will include Dr. and Mrs. Carl Borgmann, Dean and Mrs. T. J. Thompson, Dean Marjorie Johnston, and the Board of Regents.

The receiving line is scheduled to form at 8 p. m. in the union lounge. At 8:30, Gay Feistner will commence playing in the auditorium for those who care to dance. Games will be set up downstairs, and the Ag Union Dell will be open to facilitate attendants. The party will be climaxed with the serving of refreshments.

Chairman of the party is P. A. Downs. Committee chairmen are Miss Gladys Ruby and L. B. Snyder. Sub-committee chairmen include C. E. Rosenquist, E. G. Maxwell, J. D. Swington, Miss Josephine Brooks, Miss Bess Steele, and C. C. Minter.

Cosmopolitan Club Holds First Party

All foreign and American students are invited to attend the first fall get-together of the University of Nebraska Cosmopolitan club at 8 p. m. Sunday in parlors X, Y, and Z of the Student Union.

Interpretation of the latest south-of-the-border hits will be given by a Latin-American combo and Mrs. Ginny Pierce will sing.

Admission per person will be 25 cents.

Note to Ag Frosh

To all new Ag Students: As an upperclassman and a friend, I feel it my duty to warn you about a few things in conjunction with the approaching Farmers Formal, which is to be held next Friday.

For one thing, you had better send home for your denims and collons as soon as possible, for anything remotely resembling "city duds" will be definitely out of place at the dance.

You better start saving your shekels immediately, for the tickets will soon go on sale, and you'll want to get yours early—only two dollars. What's more you better line up that favorite gal pretty sudden, because they won't last forever. 'Nuff said.

TONIGHT

COLLEGE NIGHT

KINGS

The Gay Mike Spot
Dancing 9 until 12
Couples Only
Adm. 1.50 per couple
Tax Included

Sweater

Switchables

Bermuda's fall collection to switch in fickle fashion with suits and skirts. In short sleeve or long, cardigan or pull-over.

450 to 1095

Mauve	Maize	Tapestry
Pink	Green	Jade
White	Aqua	Grey
	Blue	Black

Sportswear

Fashion Floor . . . Second

MILLER & PAINE