Backstage, "Dream Girl" . . . Revolving Stage Added To Theatre Equipment

By Frank Jacobs

Theater-goers at "Dream Girl," first University Theatre production of the year are assured of no long waits for scene changes this season.

An eighteen foot revolving stage, rotating on a giant turntable, is in the process of being installed on the Temple stage, thus providing facilities for showing three entirely different scenes in a matter of seconds.

"Through the utilization of this new stage," related Robert Black, technical director of "Dream Girl", the running time of the production is cut from one-third to one-half. Even though there are 27 scenes and 18 separate scene sets in "Dream Girl", one intermission will be the only noticeable break in the show." Stage is Flexible and Portable

To add flexibility to stage settings, the revolving stage has three movable frameworks which can divide the stage into the de-sired depth. This means that the audience could see various proportions of a scene; from onefourth to one-third to over half of the entire stage, stated Mr. Black.

"We shall be constantly busy back stage during the entire pro-duction," he added, "while one scene is being shown, the back-stage crews will be preparing the two to follow.

One handy feature of the ro-tary addition is that the outside section can be removed leaving a compast 12 foot interior for either experimental theatre work various other staging tech-OT

Psi Chi Meets Monday All Psi Chi members and associate members are urged to attiend an organizational meeting for this school year at 5 p. m. Monday, Oct. 11, in Room 218 Social Science building.

Tryouts Begin Oct. 8 for Three One-Act Plays mental Theatre General Director, Max Whittaker, today.

The three plays have parts for a total of six males and four fe-Katz and Margaret Dutton.

Pound Look, M. Barry. Two men and two salary is 10,000 dollars.

. . Speeds Scene Changes

niques. The sturdily-constructed stage is hinged together in 12 easily-handled sections for convenient storage and moving purposes Stage Has Great Future "We shall use our new portable, flexible, revolving stage at least three times during this seasaid Director Black, "and son. by its use we definitely shall have a smoother, better-co-ordinated production each time."

Daily

Vol. 49-No. 17 Lincoln 8, Nebraska, Thursday, October 7, 1948

Student Traffic Violations

ministration to Handle

for 5 cents as compared with last year's price of 6 cents. Chewing gum is also being sold. All houses that wish to participate should send a representacent.

YWCA Fights

Candy Inflation

YWCA is fighting inflation; at least they have lowered the price

The candy bars are being sold of one item, candy bars, by one in all interested women's houses tive to the Conference Co-op committee meeting at 5 p.m. on Mondays in Ellen Smith Hall. Money made on these sales is used to send representatives to the district conferences and to the summer conference at Estes, Colorado.

Students Plan Bonfire Rally

Husker Squad to Receive Spirited Send-Off Tonight

Campus spirit will blaze Thurs- it, ralliers will start from the Unday evening when students gather ion at 7:15. The procession will for the first big bonfire rally of march through sorority row, the year.

Complete with "N" feathers, the Victory Bell, and Cornhusker spirproceed to the Coliseum.

Cobs! Tassels!

Corncobs and Tassels are requested to turn in Cornhusker salesbooks at the business office of the Cornhusker before Friday, Oct. 8, at 5 p. m. Sales will be discontinued.

Sales are breaking records set last year, and the salesbooks are being checked to estimate the total number of huskers have not yet been picked up at the Cornhusker of-

Bizad Frat Meets

On Founders' Day

fessional fraternity, Tuesday.

Founders' Day was commemorated by Alpha Kappa Psi, College of Business Administration pro-

Dr. Ray C. Kien, professor of accounting at the university, discussed the program of activities in Wisconsin. Dr. Kien was a deputy councilor of the chapter

Earl Dunning, former undergraduate student in the chapter at Washington University, outlined the activities of the Washington chapter. He also emphasized the support given by the alumni organization at Seattle. Dunning is A movie of the 1941 Nebraska-

Stanford Rose Bowl game ended now a student at Nebraska.

gather all loyal Husker fans, and The bonfire site will be the sales that will be made. Several hundred 1948 Cornfice. These must be claimed before the deadline.

northwest corner of the practice field. Campus spirit will combine with the bonfire to send the Scarlet and Cream squad off to the Colorado-Nebraska game at Boulder.

Yell King Bill Mickle urges all the student body to turn out in force for the rally. Past rallies have been successful and a continuation of enthusiastic rallies speaks well for school spirit.

Speakers have not yet been named for the rally, but the program will include representatives from the team and coaching staff.

DenverAlums Stir Rivalry With Trophy

Added incentive will be given the Cornhuskers with the introat the Alpha Kappa Psi chapter duction of a Nebraska-Colorado football trophy which will go to the winner of the Cornhusker-Buffalo game at Boulder next Saturday.

> The Denver alumni clubs of the Universities of Nebraska and Colorado conceived the idea to stimulate a pleasant rivalry between the Big Seven conference foes.

The trophy, purchased by the Denver almuni clubs of the two schools, will be retained each year by the winner of the game between the schools. It will become the permanent possession of the school to first win it three times.

The Denver alumni club has also planned a big pre-game noon luncheon rally Saturday at Wayne's cafe in Boulder and all Nebraskans are invited to attend. About 300 members of the Denver alumni clubs of the two schools are expected to attend in full

ISA Launches Member Drive

A membership drive by the Nebraska Chapter of the ISA will Ball said that any problems which arise will be taken care of by the administration and the Lincoln police. However, he did Sorrell Hits Kepublican campus traffic violations.

Repeatedly charging the preent administration with poor management, Frank Sorrell, democratic candidate for governor, spoke before an open meeting at the University YMCA Wednesday night.

A former state senator for eight years, Sorrell disappointed those Tryouts for three Experimental who came to hear his views on Theatre one-act productions will such controversial subjects as start at 2 p.m., Friday, Oct. 8 in FEPC and civil rights. He stated 201 Temple, announced Experi- both were "fine pieces of legislation" but failed to elaborate on his stand.

Sorrell hit at Governor Val Peterson for signing a bill authormale characters. Directing the in-dividual productions will be Abe He continued by saying he would ask that the salary be lowered to The first play is "The Twelve its previous rate of 7500 dollars " a comedy by James per year, if elected. The present

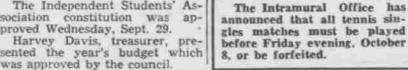

Student Council President Dale appoint a council committee to Ball announced Wednesday in the investigate the problem from time council's regular meeting that no to time and make any necessary student court will be set to handle recommendations.

Members of that committee are: George Coupe, chairman, Byron Hooper, Rex Hoffmeister, Paul Weltcheck and Louise McDill,

Migration committee Chairman Harvey Davis announced that 500 train tickets and 380 football tickets have been acquired for the migration, Oct. 23. Ticket sales will start Monday in the Student Union from 10 to 4 o'clock

Bill Schenck, constitutions committee chairman, presented three constitutions for council approval. All three were passed. They were: Kappa Alpha Mu, honorary pictorial fraternity; Society for the Advancement of Colored People and Residence Halls for Men.

The Independent Students' Association constitution was ap-proved Wednesday, Sept. 29. Harvey Davis, treasurer, pre-sented the year's budget which there.

the program.

Meredith Chosen Nationa BWAOfficer for 1948-49

Miss Mamie Meredith, depart- | courses of member schools. ment of English, has been reelected vice president mid-west held during Christmas vacations. of the American Business Writing Association.

Organized in 1937 in Chicago, and New York universities acting the ABWA issues a bulletin six as hosts. The next one will probwomen are needed in casting. George M. Kaufman's satire, in the governor's office and not dred members throughout the are also several regional meet- campus-wide observation of Na-"If Men Played Cards as Women enough money for state institu- United States. Miss Meredith also ings every year.

Annual ABWA conventions are Last year the convention was at New York City, with Columbia

nagement

George Do," is the second play. The com- tions" was another of the candi- represents the mid-west on the edy calls for four men.

The third play is the intense republican governor. drama, "No Exit." Two male and In a discussion p two female characters will complete the cast.

All freshmen are eligible for Experimental Theatre productions, increase in taxes. He offered as texts and magazine articles, Tryouts will continue until Mon- part of his platform the placing articles contributed by business day and Tuesday, Oct. 11 and 12. of much untaxed property on the and school executives, and re-Nov. 4 is the performance date.

date's charges against the present editorial staff of this bulletin.

In a discussion period Sorrell to help teachers of business writ-went on record that with the right ing in their work. This is accommanagement all the expenses of plished by means of the bulletin, the state could be met without an which contains reviews of new tax rolls

The purpose of the ABWA is ports and surveys concerning

Other ABWA members from this University are Frank Hall-gren, assistant dean of student affairs, Miss Marjorie Leafdale, Prof. R. P. Crawford, and Mr. Richard Allgood, executive secretary of the Nebraska State Association of Insurance Agents and instructor of English correspon-dence courses at the University. Members are especially benefited in that they are on the mailing publishers.

tional Independent Student's Week, Esther Schoen, acting secretary of the ISA, said Tuesday.

A booth will be opened in the Union this week where membership cards and application blanks may be obtained.

A mixer at 8:30 Saturday evening will be the highlight of the week. Any independent student is invited to attend and to learn of the functions and activities of the list of many business firms and ISA. These mixers will be held frequently during the year.

KU Trip Offers Students Chance to Show UN Spirit

student migration ticket sales begin in the Union.

between all organized houses in two sections: men's and womens. The house in each group buying the most migration tickets at $13 per person will win the prize set up by the sponsoring Student Council Migration committee.

Award Different

Harvey Davis, Rex Hoffmeister, Pat Black, and Dorothy Borgens, committee members, have termed the award different and suitable. Details of the prize for CTSSS will be given in tomorrow's Daily Nebraskan.

The migration, which students have been warned will be the last if it does not run smoothly, will dent to show his school spirit, re-

CTSSS-or the migration "con-test to show school spirit" will be trip will begin Saturday morning, team to Kansas and helping to gin rolling next Monday when the Oct. 23, at 6 a. m. Arrival in Lawrence, Kansas, is set at 11:30 a. m., and a parade will be held there about that time.

Return Early Saturday

The return trip will start at 9 p. m. and end at about 2:30 Sunday morning. Cabs will meet students at the Lincoln depot to carry them to their houses, remarked Miss Black.

A snack coach, songs, bridge, cheers, and special entertainments have been planned to fill travel time, said Hoffmeister.

Mis Borgens emphasized that the $13 payment covers the roundtrip railroad lare and the football game ticket price.

This is the chance of every stu-really : . . . them to victory. Spirit has been a great factor for our winning teams in the past, he added.

For Permits See:

Senior members of the AWS board who have the authority to sign special permission slips of all girls with the excep-tion of those in their own houses are as follows: Jane McArthur, 3-7426. Marian Crook, 2-7371. Verniel Lundquist, 2-7371. Phyllis Harris, 5-6732. Mary O'Conner, 2-4120. Ann Whitman, 2-7875. Donna Lu Johnson, 6-5046. Nadine Anderson, 2-5332.

National Girl Scout Advisor To Speak at Women's Convo

Mrs. Donald Van Vliet, national Girl Scout advisor, will speak at an all-women's convocation Tuesday, Oct. 19, at 5 p.m. in the Love Memorial library auditorium. The topic of her lecture will be "Careers for Women."

Mrs. Van Vliet, whose home is New York City, has traveled all over the United States giving lectures on this subject to similar groups, Her appearance here is sponsored by A.W.S.

Any university woman will find Mrs. Van Vliet's talk interesting and helpful to her in deciding upon a profession. Nebraska Wesleyan girls and Union College girls are also invited to attend this convocation.