

Canterbury Club Reveals Officer Slate

At an organization meeting of the Canterbury club, Episcopal student society, the following slate of candidates was nominated for the election to be held Oct. 17:

President: Charles Pedersen and John Scanlon.

Vice-president: Don Bykerk, Bill Larsen, Shirley Seright and Virginia Davis.

Secretary-treasurer: Martha Scanlon, Lois Larson, Muriel Kosanke and Stan Lowe.

Corresponding secretary: Rose Okawaki and Ed Miyahara.

Faculty sponsors of the organization will be Miss Katherine B. Faulkner, associate professor of art; William F. Swindler, professor of journalism; and Weldon D. Frankforter, curator of paleontology, museum.

An outing and wiener roast on Sunday, Oct. 17 at 5 p. m. is next on the club's program. Virginia Davis is in charge of arrangements.

As a work project, the members plan to use spray guns and brushes to give their club room in the undercroft of the university Episcopal church the "new look."

Federalists' Meet Open to Public

This evening at 7:30, the University chapter of the United World Federalists will hold their first meeting of the current school year. A program of motion pictures will be shown in room 315 of the Union.

The pictures are official releases of the atom bombing of Japan and the Bikini tests. Realizing the importance of the pictures the Federalists hope that they will arouse public interest.

The meeting is open to the public. Everyone, no matter of what political affiliation, is invited to attend.

Cosmopolitan Atmosphere Pervades UN This Year

By Sid Rubin

The idea of "One World" seems to be a reality on the campus today, for 122 foreign students represent 32 nations in the University's classrooms.

Men and women are enrolled from Afghanistan, Alaska, Argentina, British Guiana, British West Indies, Canada, China, Columbia, Czechoslovakia, Egypt, Estonia, Ethiopia, France, Germany, Greece, Hawaii, India, Iran, Lithuania, Netherlands, Nigeria, Norway, Palestine, Panama, Peru, the Philippines, Puerto Rico, British Malaya, Sweden, Switzerland, Turkey, and Venezuela.

Countries that were not represented last year include Afghanistan, Estonia, Ethiopia, Germany, Greece, Lithuania, Nigeria, the Philippines, and Switzerland. The largest contingent of students, as in previous years, is from China. Chinese students here number 15.

The International House at 1520

R Street, which is a residence for those foreign students of the fairer temporary homes at various places in Lincoln. A great number of students are living at the YMCA.

Also, there are five American students studying in foreign countries. Even though the number is small, it has become a Casablanca on a miniature scale. Since all foreign students could not be housed at the dormitories or at the International House, some have found small, they are well distributed over the nations of the world. These Americans are attending classes in Germany, South Africa, Argentina, Mexico, and China.

Club Unites U.S., Foreign Students

As many already know, the Cosmopolitan Club is an organization of both foreign and U. S. students whose main function is to further closer relations between foreign students, U. S. students, and the University. The club brings this about by sponsoring many activities on the campus.

Chaplain Will Give Vespers Talk

Father Whitley, chaplain of the university Episcopal church will be the principle speaker at the all university Vesper service at 5 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 7.

He will speak on the topic, "Spiritual Power in an Atomic Age," a parallelism of the atomic era with the potentiality of spiritual prayer and sacrament.

The Vesper services, held every Thursday in the university Episcopal church, are sponsored by the Religious Welfare council and are open to all students regardless of their church affiliation. The services are interdenominational throughout the entire program.

Students are also invited to participate in the Vesper choir under the direction of M. J. Melick. The choir meets every Tuesday at 4 p.m. and Thursday at 4:30 p.m., at the university Episcopal church.

Grad Presents Scoring Award

Earl Luff, former Husker wrestling great and now prominent Lincoln business man, has donated a trophy for the high-point wrestler of the varsity squad.

Points towards this trophy will be issued as follows: In dual meets, five points, three points for decisions, and two points for draws. In tournaments, six points will be given for first place, four points for second, two points for third and one point for fourth. Falls in tournament competition will count one point.

Coach Pat Patterson named "Pee Wee" Yambor, Mike DiBiase, Mickey Sparano, and Jack Tamai as standout grapplers returning to this year's varsity mat squad.

What a Job!

Have you ever wondered what becomes of those cakes you see in advertisements? They're eaten. At General Foods they keep eight cooks and an office staff of 40 just thinking up and testing recipes. A good day's average is four cakes, several batches of cookies and three or four molds of jello.

Testing time comes about four every afternoon, when the stenographers, clerks and editors are gravely called in and each given a sample. It's all part of the day's work. Most highly valued are the opinions of those who aren't too used to restaurant cooking. If the head-nodding is unanimous, the recipe is accepted.

Minor's Song Major Game Attraction

"Huskerland," Harry Minor's musical tribute to the athletic spirit of the University of Nebraska, is becoming one of the best-known of all Cornhusker songs.

Before the current football season is over, bands in more than six states will have interpreted this fight song.

Minnesota's band was the first to use "Huskerland." They broadcast the song during the Gopher-Husker gridiron tussle, the first Big Nine group to do so.

On Oct. 9, at the Colorado-Nebraska football game, at Boulder, the Buff's band will become the first Big Seven group to perform "Huskerland."

The Kansas State band will be the first to play "Huskerland" in Memorial stadium when the Wildcats invade Nebraska.

All Big Seven university bands will perform the new fight song during 1948 and future years, especially at various athletic events in which the Cornhuskers participate.

Auburn, Nemaha, Columbus, and Geneva high school bands are playing a special arrangement of "Huskerland" for university and high school bands made by Dave Kuisman of the University R.O.T.C. band.

LEGAL NOTICE

At the general election, November 2, 1948, there will be submitted to the electors of the State of Nebraska for approval or rejection the following amendment to Section 1, Article VIII of the Constitution of Nebraska, as proposed by the Legislature:

"Sec. 1. The necessary revenue of the state and its governmental subdivisions shall be raised by taxation in such manner as the Legislature may direct; but taxes shall be levied by valuation uniformly and proportionately upon all tangible property and franchises, and taxes uniform as to class may be levied by valuation upon all other property. The Legislature may impose taxes on reservations of mineral rights and fissionable material in land and royalties. Taxes, other than property taxes, may be authorized by law. Existing revenue laws shall continue in effect until changed by the Legislature."

The ballot for the submission of the proposed amendment will be as follows:

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT

- FOR amendment to Section 1, Article VIII, of the Constitution of Nebraska, to authorize the Legislature to impose a tax on reservations of mineral rights and fissionable material in land and royalties.
- AGAINST amendment to Section 1, Article VIII, of the Constitution of Nebraska, to authorize the Legislature to impose a tax on reservations of mineral rights and fissionable material in land and royalties.
