

Colorado Humbles Huskers In Surprise 19 to 6 Triumph

Collopy Scores Lone Scarlet Touchdown

By HAROLD ABRAMSON
Sports Editor

Nebraska's Cornhuskers were vastly outplayed by a hard driving Colorado squad Saturday afternoon which kept the Huskers on the defensive most of the game to win 19-6 in Coulter, Colorado.

The Huskers, who were touted to win by 14 points, were lucky to score their only touchdown against the Buffaloes. It was mostly due to alertness on the part of end Alex Cochrane, who blocked Don Evans' punt in the second quarter and carried the ball to the one yard line where the referee ruled Cochrane's knee had touched the ground. On the next play Junior Collopy smacked over for paydirt to tie the score at six-all.

Team Couldn't Play

It was a long afternoon for the Nebraska team, which just couldn't seem to get into the ball game. The line wasn't blocking as well as it did in the Minnesota game and the team as a whole acted very sluggish. Nebraska's passers were given little or no protection and at times it was a wonder that they ever got some of their passes away. Husker passers Gerry Ferguson, Del Wiegand and Frank Collopy just didn't have enough time to throw a pass. Colorado players seemed to come at them from all sides.

The Husker running attack did not live up to expectations either. Cletus Fischer was still troubled by last week's leg injury and was still somewhat hampered. Arden Means was shaken up and had to be taken from the game. Means gave a good account of himself on the line. The Nebraska husky was sharp on his tackles and did some fine blocking.

Collopy Stars

Frank Collopy, playing his first game as regular fullback since Tom Novak switched back to center, gave notice that he will be a hard man to stop as the season wears on. Collopy was running hard and his performance in the fullback slot showed he has definite possibilities. Colorado wasted no time in showing the Nebraska team who was going to be boss. The Buffs took Bobby Costello's kick off from their own end zone and brought it back to the Colorado 21 yard line. Harry Narcission who both runs and passes the ball for Colorado, tossed to John Zisch, rangy Buff end, who was dropped on the 45. Hagen picked up five yards off right tackle before Bob Costello tackled him and Miller went around end to the Nebraska 40 yard marker where Ardie Means hit him.

On the next play Harry Narcission (Continued on Page 3.)

Marg Reynolds Presented Farmers Formal Queen ... 300 Couples Attend

Seating herself in the corral haystack under a full harvest moon, Marg Reynolds, Lexington, was presented Queen of the Farmer's Formal Friday night.

Preceded by her four attendants Miss Reynolds was crowned queen by Don Haml, master of ceremonies. Her attendants were: Betty Beckner, Beatrice; Vi Vosika, Wilber; Lois Thorfinnson, Lincoln; and Mavis Musgrave, Minden.

Exec. Board Judges

Winner of the women's cornhusking contest was Betty Beckner, who was presented a bottle of Grade A Ag college milk in token of her outstanding talent. The Ag Exec. Board judged the contest.

Miss Reynolds is a senior in Home Economics. She is treasurer of Phi U, home ec honorary; vice president of Ag Exec. Board; and a member of Amikitas. Miss Reynolds and fiancée, Harold Kopf, were also crowned as couple of the year at last year's Farmer's Spring Formal.

Haystack Main Attraction

With "Harvest Time" as the theme of the dance, the stage was set in a corral. A large haystack was the center of attraction. In the back a rail fence surrounded a realistic horse supported by Kaye Gauger and Gilbert Gierhan. Bill Tripp, barnyard scarecrow added color to the scene. After the presentation, the queen and her attendants were led off the stage by their escorts where they danced to "Shine On, Harvest Moon."

The dance floor was decorated after the general theme with a huge cornshock surrounded by baled hay seats making the centerpiece. Hay bales were scattered around the dance hall, and couples entered the room through portals of the same bales. Free apples were distributed to everyone, in keeping with the theme of harvest time.

300 Couples Attend

Over 300 couples attended the dance, making it one of the most successful dances in many years. Morton Wells and his "cowboys for a night" furnished music and entertainment for the rural gals and guys who came garbed in anything and everything from petite aprons and big bows for the gals, and rough and ready boots, jeans and ten gallon hats for the guys.

Courtesy Lincoln Journal.

QUEEN AND COURT—Perhaps not so regal, but just as proud as any queen and attendants, Marge Reynolds, 1948 Farmers Formal Queen (third from left), and her attendants prepare to descend the hay bale steps after being presented to the capacity crowd at the Farmers Formal Friday night. The attendants are, left to right, Betty Beckner, Vi Vosika, Miss Reynolds, Lois Thorfinnson and Mavis Musgrave. Gwen Monson, right, presented the royalty bouquets of roses on behalf of the Ag Exec Board, sponsor of the Formal.

Panhellenic Announces Annual Workshop Week

This year's Panhellenic Workshop week will follow the theme "Making Our Panhellenic World More Secure." Mrs. Jack Knicely, assistant Panhellenic adviser, announced today.

Workshop week, which begins Sunday and runs through Friday, is an annual project of Panhellenic.

Under the direction of Chairman Beryl Lotspeich, the week has been planned to include discussion of every aspect of sorority life and good college citizenship. Student and alumna speakers will emphasize the purpose of sororities in connection with the university administration and with the student body at large.

Banquet in Union

High point of the week will be the Panhellenic banquet Thursday at 6 p.m. in the Union ballroom. Guest speaker will be Mrs. Helen Corbett, national counselor and past national president of Sigma Kappa, who address will be on the theme of the workshop, "Making Our Panhellenic World More Secure." Mrs. Corbett's daughter, Dorothy, is a member of the Nebraska chapter of Sigma Kappa at the present time.

The awarding of the Elsie Ford Piper Achievement cup will also take place at the banquet. It is presented annually to the sorority showing the most accomplishment for the year in the ideals of fraternity life. Last year's award went to Gamma Phi Beta. The sororities are judged by a committee of the Panhellenic Advisory board in cooperation with the office of the Dean of Women.

Expect over 500

An attendance of over 500 is expected at the banquet, which is under the direction of Jean Eckvall. Helen Anderson, Ann Herse and Eliza Venable compose the banquet committee and Kay Kinsey, president of the Panhellenic council, will be toastmistress.

Following a policy established last year, a coke hour for unaffiliated girls will be held at 7 p.m. Wednesday at the Kappa Delta house. This will be sponsored by Junior Panhellenic and sorority pledges will act as hostesses.

Finale of the 1948 Panhellenic Workshop week will be a tea dance for all university students Friday in the Union ballroom. A combo will furnish dance music and refreshments will be served.

Arrangements for this year's Panhellenic Workshop were made by sorority members on this campus and the Panhellenic Advisory board working in conjunction with Mrs. Ruth Schmelkin, Panhellenic Advisor, and Mrs. Jack Knicely, assistant advisor.

Alpha Kappa Delta Meets

All Alpha Kappa Delta members are urged to attend an organizational meeting for this school year at 4 p.m. Monday, Oct. 11, in Room 113 of the Social Science building.

BABW Tells New Activity Point System

BABW, unaffiliated women's activity board, has announced its new point system for admission to the board.

To be eligible for BABW pins awarded in the spring, each girl must earn 100 or more points in the activities listed. Points should be turned in at Room 309 of the Union, or to your house BABW representative by the end of each month.

Point Schedule

- I. One point each per meeting or hour.
 - A. BABW
 - 1. Meetings
 - 2. Dances
 - B. Coed Counselors
 - 1. Book reviews
 - 2. Charm school
 - 3. Weekly meetings with board member
 - C. YWCA
 - 1. Vespers
 - 2. Commission groups
 - 3. Staffs and committees
 - a. Office staff
 - b. Vespers planning committee
 - c. Publications, etc.
 - D. W.A.A.
 - 1. Intramural teams
 - 2. Clubs
 - a. Orchestra
 - b. Tennis
 - c. Swimming
 - d. Riding, etc.
 - E. Publications
 - 1. Daily Nebraskan
 - 2. Cornhusks
 - 3. Cornhusker
 - 4. Cornhusker Countryman
 - F. Miscellaneous
 - 1. Tassels
 - 2. Rallies
 - 3. Active scholastic and professional groups
 - 4. Department groups
 - 5. College Boards and Councils
 - a. Student Council
 - b. Mortar Board
 - c. W.A.A. Board
 - d. Publications Board
 - e. A.W.S. Board
 - f. Student Counselor Board
 - g. Student Foundation Board
 - 6. Elections
 - 7. Political party meetings
 - 8. Towne Club or house meetings
 - 9. Student Foundation
 - 10. Convocations
 - 11. A.U.F.
 - 12. I.S.A.
 - 13. Cheerleaders
 - 14. Class officers
 - 15. Debate squad
 - 16. University Theater
- II. Two points per hour for BABW
 - A. Typing
 - B. Calling
 - C. Posters
 - D. Other work
 - 1. Tassel Board
 - 2. YWCA Cabinet
 - 3. Home Ec. Club
 - 4. Ag. Executive Board
 - 5. Student Faculty
 - 6. Student Union Board

Six-Month Lab Course Offered Home Ec Grads

Home Economics graduates will have a chance to earn while learning under a six-month course to be offered in the laboratories of the Good Housekeeping Institute.

Any Home Economics graduates who have not been previously employed in business since being graduated are eligible. Vacation jobs and field work during school years will count in favor of an applicant.

Applicants must have a bachelor's degree in Home Economics, or expect to be graduated in January, 1949. Applications must be received before Nov. 15, 1948.

Trainees will be paid $35 per week, and transportation from their homes to New York and back will be furnished.

NSA to Probe Olivet Protest

The National Student Association which raised so much controversy on the Nebraska campus last year has begun an investigation of the expulsion of 60 students at Olivet College, Michigan.

The 60 students have been expelled as a result of their refusal to register for the coming semester. In this refusal, they protested the request of the Olivet administration that Barton Akeley, a sociology professor, and his librarian wife submit their resignations from the faculty. Outside sources have called the Akeleys "ultra-liberals."

The NSA tried unsuccessfully to start at the University of Nebraska last year, but a student election overwhelmingly defeated their attempt. On recommendation of the student vote, the Student Council decided not to allow the NSA to establish itself on the campus.

Staff Positions For Foundation Paper Filled

Your U, a newspaper for high school students published by the Student Foundation, will be sent throughout the state again this year.

The paper will be distributed monthly and will contain university news of interest to the high school students.

Staff positions for the publication were announced today by Eugene Berg, Foundation publications chairman. Editor will be M. J. Melick, with Audrey Rosenbaum acting as business manager.

Others include: Byron Swanson, advertising manager; George Randal, Russ Toler, Ed Berg, and Marilyn Stark, associate editors; Jack Barnhart, assistant business manager; Gordon Heebner and Madelyn Feldman, assistant advertising managers.