

Irish Favored in Saturday Tilt

BY HAROLD ABRAMSON

Nebraska's Cornhuskers will assume the underdog role when they go against the powerful Notre Dame squad Saturday afternoon in Memorial stadium.

The Irish are being booked as 39 point favorites on local parlay cards.

Irish Minus Fischer.

Coach Frank Leahy is bringing a fine array of talent which includes such standouts as Jim Martin, Terry Brennen, Frank Tripucka, Emil Sitko, and Leon Hart who has been mentioned for All-American honors this year. The Irish will be minus the services of 1947 All-American Bill Fischer who has a dislocated elbow.

The Notre Dame grid mentor is expected to use his reserve squad if the Irish varsity squad can manage to run up a high score.

Potsy Clark has attempted to tighten all the defensive weaknesses in the Husker machine. The Scarlet director realizes that Notre Dame has one of the nation's top passers in Frank Tripucka, last year's understudy to Johnny Lujack. The Irish also have two potential All-Americans, Jim Martin and Leon Hart, who will bear watching in Saturday's contest.

Saturday's encounter will find Kirk Lee of Fremont, 166 pound sophomore in the starting position at left halfback. Kirk was not invited back for the early workouts. However, his play with the scout team soon drew Patsy's attention. He was groomed to start the Colorado game a week ago but a pulled muscle kept him sidelined.

In recent scrimmages Lee has proved to be the top running back on the field. He drives hard and shows plenty of "savvy" when it comes to picking his holes.

The Cornhusker squad should be in fair physical condition. Bob Costello, blocking back and line-backer, hurt in the Colorado game in the first quarter will probably be ready. Frank "Dutch" Meyer, will not see any action in the weekend contest.
