

Vol. 49-No. 27

Lincoln 8, Nebraska

Thursday, October 21, 1948

Council Promotes Vespers Scholastic Probe To Hear

An investigattion to improve the supplies to the administration toscholastic requirements at the day and a check on supplies in University was discussed Wed-Lincoln bookstores will soon be ne day by the Student Council. made.

On request by the faculty, a joint faculty-student committee will review the situation of scholastic standards that exists. The efforts of this committee will be to raise the scholarship standard of the University, make a de-gree more appreciated and more difficult to earn.

Although the Council did not take any immediate action on this matter it did name a committee to start gathering facts on this project. Members of that committee are: Chairman, Dick Johnson; members, Pat Larsen, Louise McDill, Jack Maxwell.

The Book Store committee presented its report which was published in the Dafly Nebraskan. Dick Shale presented a report on

Six Home Ec Delegates Go To Conclave

Six representatives of the university Home Ec club will leave Thursday for Manhattan, Kas., to attend the annual province workshop of Home Economics clubs.

The Kansas State club will be hostess to the eight states mak-ing up province nine, of which Nebraska is a member. Program planning and membership drives will be studied and discussed at meetings Thursday and Friday.

Highlighting the convention will be the International Fellowship banquet. Speakers will include Maria Constantinides, Greek student studying at Nebraska under the sponsorship of the Home Ec club.

Gwen Monson will attend the workshop as delegate from the Home Ec club. Other Nebraska members making the trip are Lillian Locke, Marilyn Boettger and Annette Carnahan. Miss Eleanor Reimers will accompany the group as faculty adviser.

NU Entries

Top Royal

Sheep Show

President Dale Ball asked for the Council's opinion on having all program, of the entire University, combine their activities the last of May, This will include such activities as Ivy Day, Engineers Week ,etc. The migration committees reported that ticket sales ot the KU game totaled 251.

The constitution of the University Flying Club was approved by the Council.

Rev. L. C. Bryant, pastor of the First Christian church, will speak at Vespers Thursday at 5 p.m. in the University Episcopal church.

Bryant

"What Can We Know" is the title of Reverend Bryant's talk

A week-long skiing trip to As-pen, Colo., during Christmas va-cation—that is the objective of a group of university students who will have a booth in the Union Thursday from 2 to 5 p. m.

At that time these students, who made the trip last year, will attempt to interest other students in accompanying them on a return visit.

Workers in the booth will give expense estimates and will show colored films taken on the ski slopes last year.

The trip will be made in cars, and arrangements are being made to stay at the Colorado hotel in Glenwood Springs, which has a heated outdoor mineral water swimming pool.

The skiing will be done on slopes having the world's largest chair lift—three miles long and costing $250,000.

Even students who don't know how to ski are invited to make the trip. Expert instructors will be on hand to teach beginners. All equipment can be rented for reasonable rates, sponsoring students reported.

terdenominational religious program designed for university students. The Vesper planning committee, which meets every Tuesday at 5 p.m. in the Temple building, is composed of representatives of almost every religious organization on the campus. Any suggestions for Vesper services should be given to this com-

A migration rally will be held before the KU-Nebraska game in Lawrence Saturday.

Students to Stage

Rally in Lawrence Arrival of Migration Train

To Set Off Pre-Game Parade

At 11:30 that morning, the student migartion train will arrive in Lawrence and set off the pre-game celebration. Students driving down in cars will join with the disembarking ralliers in a parade through the city. Cobs and Tassels and the cheer leading squad will be on hand to lead cheers and chants. They will carry signs with such slogans as the famous 'NU KO KU.'

The University band will march with students, playing the Ne-with students, playing the Ne-braska spirit song. The rally in Lawrence will take the place of a send-off rally in Lincoln Friday night, accord-ing to Pat Black, rally committee member. Miss Black encouraged all students to attend the migra-tion and to meet at the train tion and to meet at the train station in time for the parade.

Two Rhodes Candidates nnoun

Theodore C. Sorenson and Eugene Luschei have been appointed nominees for the 1948 Rhodes Scholarship from the University of Nebraska, the Rhodes Scholarship committee announced.

Sorenson, a second year law student, and Luschei, an arts and sciences senior, will appear be-fore the district committee. Scholars selected by this commit-tee will enter the University of Oxford in 1949.

According to the will of Cecil John Rhodes, 32 scholarships, to be used at the University of Oxford, are assigned annually to the United States.

Competition for the scholar-ships is organized by states and districts. There are eight districts of six states each. Upon recommendation by his college or uni-versity, a prospective candidate may apply either in the state in which he resides or in the state in which he has received at least two years of college education by the time of application.

Each state committee may nominate three candidates to appear before the district committee. From the 18 men appearing before it, the district committee may select four scholars to go to Oxford.

Rhodes specified in v is will that the basis of selection is on some definite quality of distinction, intellect, character or personality.

Two Williams' Plays Slated By Actors Lab Two plays by Tennessee Williams will be among the five one-act productions presented by the Actors Lab of the University Theatre at 7:30 this evening.

First play on the evening's program will be Alice Gerten-burg's "Overtones." Clara Den-ton is the director.

Modern "Carousel" Comes from "Liliom."

Second will be a scene from Ferenc Molnar's classic, "Liliom," which was the 'dramatic forerunner of the musical, "Caroulse." It will be directed by Jack Wendstrand.

"At Liberty" and "Lady of Larkspur Lotion," both by Ten-nessee Williams will be the third and fourth presentations. The plays reflect the same heavydramatic tendencies which char-acterized Williams' 1947-48 Pu-litzer Prize play, "A Streetcar Named Desire." Elizabeth Fullaway is the director.

Homecoming Float

The deadline for entries from organizations for the Homecoming Float parade has been extended by the Homecoming Float parade committee, All organization on campus have been sent form letters and are urged to reply at once by contacting Elroy Gloystein at 2 - 3293

Names of the three faculty Nebraskan, parade.

Parade

judges will be revealed in the Daily Nebraskan early next week. Also the route of the parade and the order organiza-tions will appear will also be published in next week's Daily There is no entry fee for organizations entering the float which will be based on the fact that Oct. 24 is World Order day, the anniversary of the establishment of the United Nations. Bill Reuter, student pastor leader, and the Vesper choir will assist Reverend Bryant.

REV. BRYANT

Vespers are an all campus in- mittee.

The sky will rain red balloons this Friday.

the holder to a free ticket to the Homecoming Dance.

At 11 a. m., Cobs and Tassels will inaugurate Homecoming

A number of balloons will contain a validated coupon entitling

Tied to the strings of balloons dropped, the coupons will be re-

The red balloons will be decorated with Homecoming slogans in deemed at the Union office for a ticket admitting one couple to the dance, to be held Saturday evening, Oct. 30, in the Coliseum.

festivities by dropping one hundred decorated balloons from the upper Animal Husbandry department was the largest winner of any consigner to the American Royal wool and sheep show held in Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 16-23. There were entries from 20 colleges throughout the United States.

The University of Nebraska

The AH department exhibited 25 head of sheep and 10 fleeces in the show, the largest ever held in the United States.

Out of 200 fleeces entered in the wool show, Nebraska claimed first and second places in the blood class; second and third in the 1/4 blood class; third and fourth in the Corridale fleece class and third and fourth in the Southdown fleece class. Thus out of ten entries, eight placings were made, none lower than a fourth.

In the sheep competition, Ne- ning. braska showed the champion Corriedale ram and ewe. The champion ram with also champion as a lamb in the American Royal in 1947, so became a double champion winner at the show, a rare occurrence.

place pen of Shropshire fat wethers which then went on to become the Reserve Grand Champion pen of fat lambs in all breeds. This is the second highest honor of the event.

of Nebraska were the first and ment on constitutional grounds. second place Shropshire fat weth- His view of the "catastrophe" was ers, third place Hampshire fat that it was not in the fact that wethers and a third place pen of the people chose the left, but in Hampshire fat wether lambs. Dean J. A. Hill of the University of Wyoming was judge of the socialists, and have forced the show.

Those who catch balloons containing coupons will be able to save the $3 ticket price for the Homecoming Dance. They will dance to the music of Elliott Lawrence the night following the annual Homecoming parade and the game with UCLA.

Czech Citizen Hits Communism, Steals Thunder From Berman--Hulac Debate

story of Love Library.

white lettering.

Library on the walks and grass.

BY RUTH SANDSTEIDT Discussion by Eugene Berman and Frances Hulac on "The Ca-tastrophe of Czechoslovakia" was almost eclipsed by the appearance of a dark horse, Vladimir Lavko, Czech citizen, at the YW-YM open forum Wednesday eve-

Lavko, who has been in this country since last October, is now student at the University. Berman, as first speaker, outlined the history of the communist coup in Czechoslovakia. He stated that he was basing his The Ag college showed a first argument on the intellectual approach.

U. S. At Fault

The main point in Berman's argument was that no matter how bad conditions are in Czecho-Also shown by the University they took control of the governthey took control of the govern-ment on constitutional grounds. His view of the "catastrophe" was that it was not in the fact that the people chose the left, but in the fact that the U. S has failed to recognize the middle road, the socialists, and have forced the people more to the left.

appeal, giving examples of what munists she saw and heard while in Lavke. Czechoslovakia last summer, "The Othe country is like a concentration camp, the people living in terror with no hope," she said. Her vi-sion of the catastrophe was one of the people.

Coup Pre-planned

During the discussion period Lavko attacked Berman's theory communists wouldn't that the have c atrol of the government if the right wing ministers hadn't resigned. He declared that a coup had been planned for some time andother attempts had been made to seize the government.

He said that Communism was growing more unpopular with the that what is objected to in com-people. In the 1946 elections the munism is the way of taking govcommunists got a 38 percent ernments by force and that for plurality because of the efforts America to start a revolution

Miss Hulac used an emotional even today, and in time the com-opeal, giving examples of what munists will fall, according to

Other questions from the floor came from Ted Sorenson who cited the loss of freedom by the Czech people. Berman said that these facts were correct, but that did not influence the fact that the seizure of the government was constitutional,

Bert Cook brought out the point that if the Czechs wanted freedom, they would fight for it. Lavko answered, saying that the people were united aaginst Germany but it would take time for the people to unite against communism. This phase of debate was stopped by the statement

Dean Leith of the College of medicine, spoke on "The Study of Medicine" at the first meeting of Nu-Med.

Dr. Lueth stressed the importance of the social sciences in the curriculum of the pre-medical student.

"Medicine does not consist merely of a thorough knowledge of medical applications and techniques, but of an understanding of human activities," he said.

"The college of medicine will be able to accept 89 freshman students next year," he told the group, "and 84 of these will be Nebraska students, four out-state and one from a foreign country."

Band Frat Names '48 Pledge Class

Gamma Lambda, national hon-orary band fraternity, has an-nounced its pledge class for this semester.

Kent Tiller, president of the group announced that the ten men picked for their leadership in band activities are: Don Steinacher, Don Boyd, Phil Neff, Orvil Voss, Bill Splichal, John Curtis, Bob Hines, Don Schneider, Jack Tiltop and Don Korineck.

The purposes of the group are to promote and develop leadership in the University B.O.T.C. band.