

NU Ready for KU Clash; Squad Departs Today

Coach Patsy Clark's Huskers will face their third loop contest at Lawrence this Saturday afternoon when they face the Kansas Jayhawks.

The Nebraska squad is expected to be in top physical condition.

Accompanying the Cornhuskers will be over 200 fans who are making the annual migration trip.

Clark is using many of the younger players in an effort to get new blood into the lineup. The Huskers probably set one record against Notre Dame. Ten sophomores and one junior college graduate got into the contest among the 40 players who were used. Three of the first year players were in the starting lineup.

Kirk Lee, hard-running sophomore back who was given his first taste of college football against powerful Notre Dame, will see a lot of action against the Jayhawks Saturday.

The Husker mentor held his weekly shakeup and after all the dust had cleared away Art Bauer, Cletus Fischer, Bill Mueller and Frank Collopy, jr., were listed in the starting backfield.

Pattee Injured.

Kansas will be without the services of its co-captain, Frank Pattee. The regular left halfback suffered a broken jaw in the George Washington game last week-end. Charles Moffett or Dick Bertuzzi will probably take over Pattee's position against the Huskers.

Three other Jayhawks were placed on the doubtful list. They are Halfback Bud French and Tackles Ed Lee and Hugh Johnson.

Nebraska will have a chance to give Kansas its first Big Seven loss since 1946. It was the Huskers' 1946 aggregation which last beat the Jayhawks in conference play.

Huskers Lose One.

If the jinx means anything Nebraska will be holding a big one over the Kansas squad. K. U. has beaten the Huskers only once at Lawrence and that was against a 1944 wartime club.

Coach J. V. Sikes' players are being favored by the parlay boys by 13 points. Patsy Clark's eleven hope to start their "upset" attitude against the Jays Saturday.

Kansas has lost only one game this year, a one-point win by Texas Christian. The Jayhawks beat Denver, Iowa State, Colorado and George Washington.

Starting Squad.

Patsy's starting eleven calls for Bob Schneider and Howard Fletcher, ends; Johnny Sedlacek and Charlie Toogood, tackles; Arden Means and Darwin Salestrom, guards; Tom Novak at center.

Big Seven Teams End Weekly Drill

Big Seven squads began winding up practice sessions for their week-end play.

The Kansas State Wildcats prepared for their third loop game at Colorado Saturday. The Wildcats concentrated mostly on offense.

The Buffaloes from Colorado were not too good physically. Coach Dallas Ward was having end trouble, Big John Zisch and Jack Pixler will be sidelined for the game with Kansas State. Mal Miller and Don Hagin were on the doubtful list because of injuries suffered in the Iowa State game.

Harry Robertson will replace Zisch and Fred Johnson will take over Pixler's position.

Missouri's Tigers were in top physical condition as they closed up a rough workout in preparation for the Iowa State game.

There was no change in the Missouri lineup except for the return of Tackle Dick Schofield.

Abe Stuber sent the Iowa State C-clones through a rugged workout on defensive tactics.

The squad is in the best condition it has ever been since the start of the season.

Oklahoma's Sooners worked out in a drizzling rain under the lights this week in preparation for Saturday's game with Texas Christian University at Fort Worth.

give Art Bauer, the Shubert sophomore, a chance to show his stuff against the Kansas team. Bill Mueller is also expected to start against the Jays.

Mueller and Bauer replaced Don Bloom, Omaha starter against Notre Dame, and Bobby Costello, Lincoln veteran.

Former Creighton Prepper Walter Spellman is at center with the second string line.

This set of players includes Ralph Dankroger, Don Sailors, Jim Godfrey, Herb Reese, Fred Hawkins and Harold Dorn.

The backfield on this second set will be Gerald Ferguson, Dick Hutton, Ken Fischer and Bob Costello.

Clark started tapering off Thursday in preparation for the game. The squad will hold a light workout at 1:30 p. m. today and leave immediately afterwards for Topeka where they will spend the night.

2-Mile Hopes Receive Jolt

Husker hopes for a good showing in Saturday's dual with Kansas crack two-milers took a drop Thursday with the announcement by Coach Weir that Bill Mountford, sophomore distance ace, will miss the trip.

Mountford, a standout on last year's frosh team, has been sidelined by an attack of flu. Bob Reese will replace him on the five man team. The remaining four, veterans of the Colorado trip, will be Harold Kopf, Don Morrison, Don Theil, and Jess Sell.

The dual will be held on a measured course at 11 Saturday morning, at Lawrence, Kansas, boasting a veteran outfit, will rate as heavy favorites. The Jayhawks have probably the best two-miler in the Conference in the person of Hal Karnes. Karnes was Big Seven outdoor champ last spring.

The increased track turnout has made a bright spot in the otherwise gloomy situation, however. Coach Weir has been pleased with the number of indoor trackmen that have started working out.

Newman Club, Brown Palace Lead Leagues

The Newman Club has shown its supremacy on the Ping-Pong tables so far this season by acquiring a record of ten wins and no losses to lead League "Five" of the current Intramural table tennis tournament.

Other teams who have chalked up perfect batting averages by winning five games out of five, are the Phi Delta Theta's and the Sigma Alpha Epsilon's in Leagues "Three" and "Four" respectively.

The Alpha Tau Omega's dictate the play in League "One" with a four-for-five average, while Brown Palace dominates the competition in Loop "Two," batting .900 on nine out of ten wins.
