Benchwarmer

BY HAROLD ABRAMSON
Sports Editor

Here are some sidelights on the sports staff's weekly football selections.

After last week's poor record, the staff came back to hit a collective percentage of .850. Experts Jack Donovan and Cub Clem were tops picking ten out of ten winning teams. Fritz Simpson picked nine while Bob Phelps, Lee Harris and Benchwarmer hit eight.

Cub Clem moved into first place while Fritz Simpson is breathing very hard on the back of Cubber's neck. Fritz is only one game back of Clem.

In answer to a number of queries regarding our policy of picking Nebraska, the staff has complete faith that the Huskers will win their remaining games. We have decided to go along with Coach Patsy Clark's "upsetist" attitude and believe that new day is coming for the Huskers. So from now on it's Nebraska—win, lose, or draw.

College Grid Factories

Moral paralysis has made college football at most institutions a frankly professional enterprise in which players are paid for their service, "football factories" are deeply involved in staging commercial entertainment, and coaches are hired to produce winning teams rather than "build character." The Saturday Evening Post charges in an editorial "Football's Dirty Linen Sometimes Shows."

"College football has grown for too big for its britches," the Post declares. "No one believes that we can turn the clock back . . . but it does seem odd that the very institutions that are supposed to instruct our young—to teach them integrity of thought—should lend their names and their resources to the kind of chicanery that seems to go with the Saturday afternoon agitation of a bag of wind."

NU Sidelights

Things will be different next year. That was the conclusion of Jack McCartney, a member of the University of Nebraska freshman football team. Jack played the 1947 season with Northwestern University.

"I am getting hit harder in these freshman scrimmages than I was last year with Northwestern," the North Platte halfback declared.

Frosh Gridders Engage Cyclones

Coach Pop Klein's Frosh grid-ers journey to Iowa State Saturday to play the Cyclone Frosh.

Herb Cormack, head freshman coach at Iowa State listed the probable starting lineup for the Cyclones when they meet the Nebraska frosh.

Sooners to Try For Grand Slam

Coach Bud Wilkinson's Oklahoma Sooners will try for a sweep against Southwest conference teams this year when they move against smartly handled Texas Christian at 8 p. m. Saturday beneath the new lights of the T.C.U. stadium.

Last year Coach Dutch Meyer's Froggies upset the Sooners, 20-7, at Norman, one of two defeats suffered by Wilkinson's Big Six Conference co-champs. Oklahoma already has avenged last year's Texas defeat by shading the Steers at the Dallas Cotton Bowl, 20-14. But can they handle the Frogs, tops in poise and coolness and with a keen brain directing them on the field?

Coed Counselors To Give Dinner

Plans are being formulated for the Friendship dinner sponsored annually by the Coed Counselors, Jack Wightman, president, announced today.

Chairman of this year's event will be Dorothy Borgens. Committee chairmen include: Mary Helen Mallory, style show; Fritzi Clark, decorations; Jan Cochrane, food; Marilyn Campfield, ticket sales; and Pat Nordin, publicity.

Each organized house has been asked to appoint one girl to represent it in the style show which is the high point in the evening's entertainment.

The dinner, which will be held Nov. 4 in the Union ballroom, will be open to all Coed Counselors and their freshman "little sisters."

A classmate concluded immediately, "Must be a Republican."

Overheard in the Crib: "But I can't understand it. He said he'd call."

Frank Pattee, stellar Jayhawk back, will be lost for the encounter with the Huskers Saturday. Pattee suffered a broken jaw in the Kansas-George Washington game last Friday night.

Locker Space Plentiful At Phys Ed Building

Locker space at the new Physical Education Building is still available, according to IM director L. E. Means.

Attention of the faculty is called to the special new faculty dressing room at the IM building. All faculty members need to do is to call at 102 P. E. Building and secure locker cards. They can then obtain their own individual lockers without charge.
