

Frosh Mat Hopes Soar, Says Coach

Freshman wrestling prospects are very "encouraging" according to Coach Pat Patterson.

The Scarlet mat coach is very much pleased with his group of first year men and except for the 121 and 165 pound classes, every weight class has promising grapplers.

Patterson Pleased.

Coach Patterson is especially happy with the performances of his two top 136-pound wrestlers, Dan Vermillion and Jim Spearman. Vermillion, former titleholder from Omaha South, "is looking very good and is improving steadily," said Patterson. "Spearman is also improving and will be top-flight in another year," Coach Patterson said. Spearman is from Omaha Tech.

Burson Good Prospect.

Don Burson, last year's state high school heavyweight king, is out for frosh football but is expected to dominate the 175-pound bracket as is Rich Reese, a heavyweight prospect.

Varsity wrestling faces stiff competition this year. The Huskers' first meet is with Oklahoma A. & M., NCAA titleholders, Jan. 7, at the Coliseum. The Aggies' coach is Art Griffith, who was the Olympic Wrestling Team mentor.

Trophies To Be Awarded.

Several trophies will be awarded to the outstanding wrestlers this year. The high point trophy, awarded to the man who scores the most points in wrestling meets, once again will be the objective of the grapplers. Little Bob Yambor copped the cup last year and is hoping to repeat this season. The Cople trophy, donated by former wrestlers Ed and Newt Cople, will be given to the wrestler who achieves the highest scholastic mark in all of his studies.

Dad's Day Scheduled.

A new innovation will be tested this year by Coach Patterson. A Dad's Day is tentatively scheduled for the opening meet against the Oklahoma Aggies and Coach Patterson is making plans to enable each competing boy's father to sit at ringside and also to walk with his son to the ring when the boy is introduced. Coach Patterson believes this will increase the interest in the wrestling sport.

The roster of promising frosh wrestlers:

- 121 pounds: None.
- 125 pounds: Marvin Kelly, (Omaha Tech); Charles Marks, (Omaha Tech).
- 136 pounds: Dan Vermillion, (Omaha South); Jim Spearman, (Omaha Tech).
- 145 pounds: Don Schulz, (Ravenna).
- 155 pounds: Elton Gillam, (Scottsbluff).
- 165 pounds: None.
- 175 pounds: Don Burson (Omaha South).
- Heavyweight: Rich Reese, (Omaha Central).

Big Seven Squads Run Over Grid Foes in Weekend Tests

Kansas State	0	3	0	7	115	900

Nebraska's Cornhuskers will attempt to get on the winning side this Saturday when they meet UCLA in the annual Homecoming tilt.

Last week at Kansas the Huskers fell before the KU Jayhawks, 27-7. A lack of scoring punch at opportune moments cost the Scarlet some touchdowns, so Coach Clark and his crew are expected to "shoot the works" before a capacity throng.

The top teams in the conference—Missouri, Kansas and Oklahoma—all racked up wins last Saturday. In addition to Kansas' win, the powerful Missouri Tigers walloped Iowa State, 49-7, and the Sooners from Oklahoma slid past TCU, 21-18.

Coach Dallas Ward's Colorado eleven showed unexpected scoring punch by handing Kansas State a 51-7 lesson.

This week finds Iowa State playing its final conference game. The Cyclones play host to Bud Wilkinson's potent Oklahoma team and any chances for an upset win over the Sooners seem very remote.

Missouri substitutes probably will earn their letters Saturday against the Kansas State Wildcats. So far, Don Faurot's Mis-

We hate to keep harping on the same old subject but after visiting the campus at Lawrence and watching Jayhawk spirit in action here goes.

The reason for Kansas spirit was very evident at Saturday's encounter. Unlike Nebraska students the Kansas rooters were seated together in one solid block. They had little trouble hearing the directions of Jay cheerleaders and they were certainly spontaneous when it came to cheering on the home team.

Look At Future.

We fully realize that it will be quite impossible for Nebraska football fans to be seated together this season. However, since everyone from football coaches to fans are looking forward to next year, we suggest that it is time that Mr. A. J. Lewandowski look to the future. Next year the Husker's football schedule is supposed to return to what is termed a normal season.

Normal Season Coming

A normal season means there will not be a big rush for tickets. At least that is the way we understand the situation. Therefore, the Husker ticket manager can end the entire student controversy and avert a lot of headaches next year by declaring his policy for student seating next year.

Maybe it's mob psychology or maybe it's just that the Nebraska students want to sit together; whatever it is, Cornhusker rooters want an answer from Mr. Lewandowski.

Kansas Cheers Team

We noticed one effect the KFans cheering section had on the Jayhawk eleven. After Coach J. V. Sike's squad had scored a touchdown they seemed to turn as a group toward the K.U. rooters—as if offering them thanks for their cheers. We think Husker fans would be more likely to do this same thing if they were seated in one block of the stadium.

Cage Practice Good Holds

With the opening game only five weeks away, Coach Harry Good is holding daily practice sessions with 30 cage candidates.

A nucleus of nine lettermen, and men from last year's freshman and "B" squads are working out. This week the practices are concerned with fundamentals and skeleton drills, with five-man scrimmages to start next week. The five-man combinations will give Coach Good a chance to work his men into their regular positions. Another cut will be made in the squad later.

Center Slot Overstocked.

Coach Good, due to the abundance of center candidates, is considering switching one or two to either a forward or guard post in an attempt to gain additional backboard strength. The main problem which would face the

IM Teams Score Wins

Al Blessing led the ATO's to a 7-0 victory over Sigma Nu in an all important IM playoff contest at Peter Pan park. Gene Deeter tossed Blessing a pass for the score. Norm Lock tallied the extra point.

In other games on the IM agenda Zeta Beta Tau beat Sigma Chi 6-0 with Jack Cohen making the touchdown. Cornhusker Co-Op beat SAM 1-0 in an overtime. Phi Kappa Psi downed Pioneer Co-Op 19-6 with Fritz Simpson, Bob Baum and Bud Watts scoring. SAE trounced Theta Xi 28-7.

move is defensive board control. The question of whether one of the big boys could keep up with some of the speedy little forwards which they will meet must be settled.

Two Practices This Week.

Freshman Coach Tony Sharpe announced that due to teacher's convention, the only practices this week will be today, and the 3 o'clock group on Wednesday.

The varsity squad list: Lettermen, Henry Cech, Bob Cerv, guards; Rodney Cox, Anton Lawry, Claude Retherford, Paul Shields, forwards; and Dick Schleiger, Dick Srb, Bus Whitehead, centers.

Frosh Squad.

Members of last year's frosh and "B" squad who are on the squad include: Bob Allen, Ken Anderson, Darrell Brandenburg, Doyle Busskohl, Bill Cronin, Don Finstrom, Jack Cady, Bob Gaston, Bob Gates, Bob Good, Dave Graef, Ray Lucht, Joe Malecek, Bill Hladik, Bob Pierce, Jesse Sell, James Walsh, and Larry Walsh.

Three junior college graduates are among those working out. These are: Melvin Schneider, of Scottsbluff JC; Ray Jussel, and Rex Welborn, both of McCook JC.

Huskers Rest, Start Work Today

Coach George "Potsy" Clark gave his Husker shock troops a rest Monday afternoon but planned to return to a full work schedule today.

The Huskers took it easy as they worked out without pads on the Scarlet practice field. The players spent most of the two hour session passing the ball around.

Prepare for Uclans.

The grid mentor plans to stress a number of plays in today's practice in preparation for the UCLA Homecoming game Saturday afternoon.

He will probably send the same team against the Uclan's that started against Kansas U. Potsy indicated that there will be few changes in the lineup for this week's game.

Altho the team went down in defeat against the Jayhawks he praised the boys for the improvement they have shown since the beginning of the season.

Damkroger, Toogood Captains.

Clark named Ralph Damkroger, 225 pound DeWitt end, and Charlie Toogood, 240 pound tackle from North Platte, as co-captains in the Homecoming event.

Both Damkroger and Toogood put on a good performance against the Jayhawks. Toogood caught a pass in the Kansas game but the play was ruled out because he was declared an illegal pass receiver.

Clark Praises Migration.

Coach Clark praised the students who journeyed to Lawrence for the annual Cornhusker migration. He said it was very gratifying to the team to hear the spirit and enthusiasm of the Nebraska travelers.

Meanwhile Coach Bert LaBrucherie sent his Uclan squad through a rough and tumble scrimmage in preparation for their visit to Lincoln Saturday afternoon.

sourians have run rough-shod over everybody since their opener with Ohio State.

Kansas U goes outside the conference this week to entertain the Oklahoma Aggies at Lawrence.

Colorado also tests a non-loop foe when they tangle with Utah University.

In the scoring race, Oklahoma's George Thomas continued to hold his first place spot with 36 points but didn't add to his total last week. Forrest Griffith tallied a TD against Nebraska and moved into runnerup position with 31 points. Colorado's Harry Narcisian scored four times in the first half against K-State and this total earned him a three-way tie with two Missourians, Bus Entsminger and Mike Ghnoully for third place.
