Bruins Whip N.U. 27-15

Dai NERASKAN Score Markers

LINCOLN 8. NEBRASKA Sunday, October 31, 1948

Mary Mallory Crowned '48 Homecoming

Mary Helen Mallory was ing the identity of the queen. On crowned 1948 Homecoming Queen the coliseum stage was a tall ear of corn, 12 feet high. Innocent corn, two red and white circles coming dance.

She is on the Coed Counselor per streamers representing the board and is active in AUF, corn on the ear. YWCA and Tassels.

planned a unique way of reveal- and red trimming, might at the annual Homeoming dance.

Miss Mallory is a junior in the ollege of Arts and Sciences and member of Kappa Alpha Theta College of Arts and Sciences and drew aside the husks of the ear, ameter, and the letters NU were a member of Kappa Alpha Theta. revealing long, yellow crepe paprinted on them. revealing long, yellow crepe pa-

As Yell King Bill Mickle an-Presentation Takes Place at Dance nounced her name, 1948 Home-The presentation of the 1948 coming Queen Mary Helen Mal-Homecoming Queen took place lory stepped through the streamduring intermission at the Home- ers. Lois Gillett, last year's Pep coming dance. Cobs and Tassels Queen, crowned Miss Mallory on the presentation committee had with a new crown of white satin

The presentation committee was composed of two Tassels and two Corn Cobs. They were: Janet Fairchild, Lee Best, John Connelly and Rex Hoffmeister.

The 1947 Homecoming Queen, Lois Gillett, reigned at the game with U.C.L.A. in the afternoon, was presented during the half-time ceremonies.

High School Bands Play

High school bands from 42 Nebraska towns, totaling 2,264 musicians, will participate in the University sponsored Band Day here Nov. 6.

The Band Day will be one of the features of the Nebraska-Kansas State football game next Saturday.

In addition the 120 piece Cornhusker band, under the direction of Donald Lentz, and the Kansas State band will perform during the Nebraska-Wildcat game.

The interest and initiative of these young bandsmen is shown in that they will have only one rehearsal before taking the field at half-time.

The list of participating high schools:

Auburn, Beatrice, Albion, Broken Bow, Central City, Crete, David City, Emerson, Fairbury, Fairfield, Fairmont, Fullerton, Genoa. Grand Island, Hebron, Humboldt, Kearney, Kenesaw, Kramer, Lincoln, Madison, McCook, Nebraska City, Norfolk, Northeast, Ord, Pawnee City, Plainview, Polk, Red Cloud, School of Agriculture at Curtiss, Schuyler, Scotia, Seward, Stanton, Superior, Point, Wilber, Wisner.

Nebraska Grad Gains Promotion

Dr. Waldemar A. Link, Chicago, has been promoted to the rank of assistant professor of operative dentistry at the University of Illinois College of Dentistry, it has been announced by Dean Allan G. Brodie.

Dr. Link, a member of the fac-ulty of the University of Illinois for nine years, formerly held the rank of instructor He is a graduate of the Uni-

UCLA Bears proved too strong for the Scarlet and Cream Saturday. The UCLA team scored 27 to Nebraska's 15.

Hutton, Schneider

By Harold Abramson

Nebraska's tissue paper eleven wilted under a UCLA offense Saturday afternoon as the Bruins ran over the Huskers, 27 to 15, before an estimated Homecoming crowd of

The game was marked by an outbreak of fighting after

Council Calls Five Prexies For Meeting

Heads of all organizations which sponsor spring events will meet Monday at 4 p. m. in the Student Council room to discuss possibilities of co-ordinating spring activities into one proposed all-school week.

Organizations to be represented and their he ads are Joan Farrar, president of Mortar Board, Norm Leger, president of Innocents, Dale Ball, president of the Student Council, Don Smith, manager of the Farmers Fair Board and Graham Jones, president of the Engineering Executive Board.

The object of this meeting will be to discuss the dates for the annual spring festivities, including Engineers Week, Ivy Day, the Farmers Fair and possibly the Law and Pharmacy displays which have not been held in recent years. Dr. G. W. Rosenlof, chairman of the faculty calendar committee, stated that the administration and faculty would approve any attempt by the students to coordinae all activities. The arrangement that is worked out must be presented to the Faculty Senate when they convene in the middle of November.

Such a plan is hoped to prevent the reoccurance of the tardy requests which caused considerable commotion last spring, according to Roswell Howard, Stu-dent Council chairman of the all-school week committee. There are several proposals which should please all campus organizations and will make the alum annual pilgramage to the Nebraska spring festivitles more successful, Howard stated.

Wakefield, Wayne, West Coleman Grant Opened to '49 MB Graduates

Announcement of the $500 Katherine Wills Coleman Fellow-ship, open to members of Mortar Board graduating in 1949, was made this week to the local Mortar Board chapter by the national organization.

The Fellowship, awarded to nine girls over the past seven years, will go to an applicant to to be selected by a committee of deans and a committee of National Mortar Board officers.

Candidates must be unmarried and able to qualify for the Master's or Doctor's degree in an accepted graduate school.

Information and application blanks must be obtained from Mrs. Edward M. Williams, Mortar Board Fellowship Chairman, 1 East 602nd Street, Orangeburg, New York before Dec. 1, 1948. Winner of the 1948 award was Lois Chambers, Ohio Wesleyan University, who will do graduate work in sociology and psychology at Oberlin College where she will also hold an Assistantship in the Department of Sociology.

Ray Young Plays At Union Lounge

Coffee hour in the Union lounge Sunday will feature Ray Young at the organ. The entertainment is for the benefit of all students and is held from five to six u.m. every

A treat is in store for those who remain for the free movie, which will be shown in the Union ball-the final gun had gone off. However, officials stopped the fighting before anyone was seriously

The Husker's 15 points were all scored in the fourth quarter in a late scoring rush. Gerry Moore returned Ray Nagels kick to the Nebraska 42. Dick Hutton sprint-ed to the UCLA 30 and Gerry Moore picked up seven yards to the 23. Hutton again carried to the 17 for a first down. Jim "Squat" Myers went through the line to the seven yard line. On the next play Dick Hutton crawled to the two.

UCLA stopped the Husker offense dead at that point, Ray Nagel dropped back in his own end zone, faked a kick and passed to Willis Duffy who dropped the ball in the end zone for an automatic safety and two points for Ne-

Nebraska finally scored a touchdown late in the fourth quarter when Kenny Fischer laid a screen pass into the arms of Dick Hutton who did some beautiful downfield running and faking to score standing up. Hutton's run covered 40

The Huskers scored again on the last play of the game after driving to the Uclan three-yard line. Dick Hutton caught a pass from Kenny Fischer, who was on the 43, to climax the drive.

The scoring play occurred with less than three seconds of playing time remaining, Kenny Fischer dropped back to pass and flipped See Story, Page 2.

NU Calendars Available Now

Nebraska Calendars, published by the Student Foundation, are now on sale throughout the cam-

Jeannie Sampson, manager of the date-book sales, pointed out today that the Calendars are available at campus bookstores, Miller and Paine store in Lincoln, and the Student Foundation office. Foundation representatives are also canvassing all organized houses for Calendar sales.

Co-op, Nebraska, and Regents bookstoresare selling the memorandum books commemorating the 80th anniversary of the University at the $1 price Nearly thirty selected Foundation workers have visited organized houses and taken orders for the 30-page book.

Letters to thousands of University alumni have produced very satisfactory results, according to Miss Sampson, Faculty letters, sales booths at conventions and meetings, and a second trip to all houses, will close the Calendar sales campaign,

Freshman Girl Named to Court Of Ak-Sar-Ben

Miss Coll Yvonne Quigley, freshman student at the Univer-sity of Nebraska Medical college, was crowned a princess at the Ak-Sar-Ben coronation Friday night, to serve in the court of the new Ak-Sar-Ben Queen, Miss Catherine Ann Coad of Omaha. Miss Quigley is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. D. T. Quigley of Omaha. She attended the University at Lincoln, where she was a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority.

Among the escorts of the Princesses and Countesses at the coronation and ball were the following medical students: Byron Pillsbury, Robert Rosenlof and Robert Slabaugh. All present acclaimed this year's Ak-Sar-Ben coronation one of the most spectacular ever presented of this traditional ceremony.

"THEY DON'T HAVE A GHOST OF A CHANCE," wins the sorority house decorations title for Kappa Alpha Theta. The eerie motif ranked highest among all other sororities with the judges during their tour of the campus Friday evening.

gren will participate in the cur-tain act division.

The curtain is scheduled to go

Seventeenth Coll-Agri-Fun Show Plans Get Underway

Judges have been named for curtain acts will comprise the prothe seventeenth annual Coll-Agri-Fun show to be held in the Col-lege Activities building on Nov. 6. Miss Eleanor Reimers, Dr. C. E. Rosenquist and Dr. D. Dean will select prize-winning efforts.

All of the magistrates are members of the Ag college faculty. In former years it had been a practice to have representatives of the Speech and Drahamatic art departments in this capacity.

Tickets Go on Sale Monday.

Tickets for the amateur production will go on sale Monday according to publicity chairman, Ruth Swanson. "Tickets will sell for fifty cents and may be ob-tained from any board member," she added.

Preliminary showings were completed Thursday night before the program-planning committee. Skits and curtain acts were also timed for length." A ripid rule of ten minutes for skits and five minutes for curtain acts will be mantained this year," reports Gale Erlewine, Fun board manager.

The annual show got its start in 1927, largely through the efforts of Dr. T. H. Goodding, then a professor in the Agronomy de-partment. Wit hthe exception of four years during the war, it has appeared every year since that Any Organization Eligibie.

Any Ag college organization or student is eligible to enter a skit or curtain act in the competition. Skits are judged on the basis of participation, originality and showmanship. Seven skits and five