

Huskers . . .

the ball to Bill Mueller in the flat. Mueller tossed the ball downfield to Bob Schneider, who was standing in the end zone. The clock had run out while the play was going on. Bobby Costello's extra point try was good.

Nebraska lost the toss and kicked off to the Uclan's, whose first offensive try fizzled on the Nebraska 37. Nebraska took over on their own 40 after Gerry Ferguson ran the kick-off back. The Scarlet looked for a while like they were going places in the first quarter.

They traveled to the 23-yard line of UCLA after Gerry Ferguson completed a pass to Ralph Damkroger. Damkroger almost got away but Don Hunt caught him by the shirt and pulled him down. The Huskers muffed another scoring chance in the first period when they drove to the UCLA 21 before bogging down.

Coach Patsy Clark's squad stopped the Bruins in the first quarter and the Uclans made few gains. The Huskers were driving every minute and it looked like they were going to come through in their role as favorites. It was the first time they had been favored since the Iowa State game.

Nebraska had possession of the ball as the first quarter ended. Coming back in the second quarter Bill Mueller carried around end and was thrown for a two-yard loss. Phil Young returned the ball to the line of scrimmage on the next play. Kenny Fischer attempted to pass but had little blocking, so the halfback raced to the UCLA 34-yard line just short of a first down.

Bill Clements caught a pass from Ray Nagel and carried it to the Nebraska 31. Willis Duffy cracked the Husker line for two yards, and on the next play he went to the 12-yard line and a first down. Three plays later Howard Hansen tried the center of the Nebraska line and managed to gain to the N.U. six-yard line. With fourth down and four yards to go, Ray Nagel flipped a pass to Willis Duffy for a Bruin touchdown. Nagel was virtually trapped by Nebraska players when he threw the ball. His kick was good to give UCLA a 7-0 halftime lead.

Coming back in the final half the Cornhusker defense collapsed. Junior Collopy took the kickoff on the 21 yard line and carried to the 35. Ferguson passed to Bill Mueller but it was incomplete. Gerry took the ball from center but fumbled and George Pastre recovered the ball on the Nebraska 34. Howard Hansen carried to the 21. UCLA was offside and drew a five yard penalty but that didn't seem to bother the Bruins as Ray Nagel dropped back and passed to Don Hunt for paydirt.

The Huskers were once more letting the opponent infiltrate behind their defensive formation.

HUSKERS run interference for Bill Mueller as he carries the ball through Uclan line during Saturday's game.

Nebraska's pass defense had once more proved a sad failure. The stubby Husker backs just weren't long enough to knock down the aerials pegged by Nagel and they weren't smart enough to stop the Bruin offense from getting behind them.

Nagel was the Bruin offensive sparkplug completing eight of 12 passes. The fleet 170 pound quarterback tossed for three touchdown passes and aided in the fourth.

Once more Nebraska was on the winning side of the statistic column, but statistics do not win ball games—at least not this year. The Huskers rolled up 15 first downs to UCLA's eight and gained a total of 340 yards to the Bruins 279. Clark's squad completed 12 to 32 while Nagel and company completed nine of 18.

Kenny Fischer and Dick Hutton stood out in the Cornhusker backfield. Both player's had their hands in the late scoring rush. Charlie Toogood and Bobby Costello sparked the line play.

Nebraska had a very hard time getting started. The Scarlet team started out like a flame which might have grown into a bonfire but instead barely flickered until the final moments of the last quarter when it was too late.

Shuler Takes Cross Country

The inter-denominational cross country run held in conjunction with the Turkey Race was won by Bob Shuler representing Presbyterians.

Duane Deitering of the Newman Club finished second and Havel Hunkin also of Presbyterian was third. Team honors went to the Methodists with 81 points; Newman Club second with 58; Presbyterians third with 38, and Christians fourth with 33 points.

Presbyterians, fielding a three-man squad, missed a good chance for the team championship because of a lack of scoring depth.

IM Grid Activity Into Final Week

Autumn Golf Play to End This Morning

Finals of the IM Fall Golf Championships will be played Sunday at Pioneer Park Golf Course.

Four man teams from the eight to teams of October 17's first round play will compete for the team championship. Competitors teams which failed to qualify for second round play who try for medalist and individual honors will start after the team four-somes.

ATO's Pace Field

The Sunday scores of the four-man teams will be added to those made in first round play to determine team placings. Picking the field into the finals are the ATO's with a 348 total. Phi Deltas and Delta Us should push them for the title before the day's play is finished.

The teams do not have to use the same four men who played in first round competition. Any men in their organization who are enrolled in the University are eligible for second round play.

Gifford Leads

Joe Gifford, SAE, holds a six-stroke lead in the chase for individual honors, with #76. Trailing, with their scores: 82, Jerry Beck, SAE; 83, Art Parchin, TKE; 84, Bill Roifsmeyer, Phi Deltas, Jim Liggett, Sig Eps, Paul Hyland, Betas, Charles Burmeister, DUS; 85, Al Blessing, ATOs; 86, Doug Dale, ATOs; Bud Campbell, Phi Psis; 87, Bill Kerr, Independent; Lee Chapin, Phi Delt; 88, Bud Johnson, DUS.

All men planning to participate must be at the first tee at Pioneer Course at 9:45 a. m. Sunday, October 31, ready to tee off.

Intramural football activity enters into its final week starting Monday.

All football playoff games were postponed Friday evening.

These postponed games will be played Monday evening according to the Intramural office. At Peter Pan Park, Beta Theta Pi, winner of League 3, will meet Sigma Phi Epsilon, runnerup in League 1. This tilt will be played on park No. 1.

Delta Tau Delta, league 2 titleholder, goes against Delta Upsilon, second-place winner in League 4, at Peter Pan No. 2.

Out at Ag field No. 1, Dorm B plays the Lilies, the League 6 champion. Dorm B finished second in League 5.

All games start at 5:00 p. m. Regular season touch football activity ended last week with the winners and runnerups in each league finally decided.

Some teams show the same won and lost figures in the leagues but playoff tilts last week decided all second-place winners.
