

Fijis, Kernels Win Float Parade Honor

Phi Gamma Delta's washroom scene won the annual float parade honors Saturday in the men's division. The Kernels won the women's honors with a "California or Bust" float.

Honorable mention in the men's division was given to Alpha Gamma Rho and Delta Upsilon.

The parade was led by part of the University band, the cheerleaders, and a float constructed by the Tassels carrying the '47 Pep Queen, Lois Gillett, in a convertible following the Tassel float rode the five candidates for '48 Pep Queen honors.

Last year's winners in the men's and women's divisions were the Sigma Chi's and the Delta Gammas, respectively. The two winners were awarded plaques during the intermission of the Homecoming dance. The winners' names are engraved on the plaques and they will be allowed to keep them until next year's parade.

The Phi Gamma Delta display was one of the largest entered. Several men were seated on the end of a flat truck in washtubs with other men dressed in 'N' sweaters seated behind them washing them with brushes, soap and water.

The women's winner, the Kernels' display, was an antique version of a carriage with the sign, "California or Bust."

The three judges were Maj. Robert Brust, Prof. Curtis Elliot and Coach Tony Sharpe. The judges picked the winners on originality of float, central theme, and continuity included in the float.

This year sororities were not allowed to participate in the float parade, but several women's organizations did enter. Thirty-two floats were entered.

Traffic in the downtown area of Lincoln was completely halted during the parade as thousands of Lincolmites turned out for the parade.

The committee for the parade, Harvey Davis, Elroy Gloystein and Lee Harris, announced that only one fraternity failed to show up in time to enter the parade.

Phi Gamma Delta's washroom scene float took first place honors in the float parade Saturday. The 32 floats which made up the parade moved down O street as thousands of spectators looked on. The University band, the pep squad, Tassels and the Tassel float led the parade.

Williams Seeks Gifted Couple

Dallas Williams, director of the University Theatre, is on the prowl for a pair of talented students for the main leads of Maxwell Anderson's "Winterset."

Although the play will not be produced until December, Director Williams has emphasized the immediate casting of the intricate male and female leads. Tryouts for these two roles will take place from 3 to 5 p. m., Thursday, Nov. 4 in 201 Temple. "Experience is not necessary," emphatically states Dr. Williams. "The only requirement is sophomore standing and one year of attendance at the university."

from 3 to 5 p. m., Thursday, Nov. 4 in 201 Temple.

"General tryouts will be held later on," he added. "The reason these early castings is because of the exactness of the two roles, "Mio" and "Mirianne."

Throat specialists report on

CAMEL MILDNESS

30-Day test of hundreds of Camel smokers revealed
NO THROAT IRRITATION DUE TO SMOKING CAMELS!

{Not a single case!}

From coast to coast, the reports were the same: Not one single case of throat irritation due to smoking Camels!

These reports were based on a total of 2470 examinations by noted throat specialists of the throats of hundreds of men and women who smoked Camels—and only Camels—for 30 consecutive days.

And these men and women smoked on the average of one to two packages of Camels a day!

Yes, Camels are that mild! But prove it for yourself. In your own "T-Zone"—T for Taste and T for Throat. Smoke Camels—and only Camels—for 30 days. Let YOUR OWN TASTE tell you about the full, rich flavor of Camel's choice, properly aged tobaccos. And let YOUR OWN THROAT tell you about that marvelously cool Camel mildness!

Prove it Yourself!

Make the Camel 30-Day Test in Your "T-Zone"

Money-Back Guarantee: Make the 30-day Camel test yourself. If, at any time during these 30 days, you are not convinced that Camels are the mildest cigarette you have ever smoked, return the package with the unused Camels and we will refund your full purchase price, plus postage. This offer is good for 90 days from this date.
