

IM Swim Meet Starts Next Week

All freshman interested in swimming competition should enter the intramural swimming meet to take place Nov. 8, 9, 10, 11 and 12.

Regular practice starts November 15. The meet is held so that the coaches can see how prospects perform and get an idea of who to pay special attention to. All swimmers who want to work out, can, regardless of how they swim. The meet also gives the boys a mark to work against and shows them their improvement as the year progresses.

Good prospects that have already shown up are: Chick Thompson, 1947 state backstroke champion from Lincoln high school; Paul Goetz, second in backstroke competition who is also showing promise in the 220 freestyle; Jerry Seigel, Lincoln, breaststroke; Hazen Rice, Scottsbluff, diving; Cliff Curran, Omaha, freestyle; Don Eicher, Lincoln, freestyle; Bill Pomeroy, Omaha, breaststroke; Jim Woodworth, Lincoln, freestyle; Steve McKenzie, Hebron, freestyle.

Numeral winners from last year's freshmen squad include: Eddie Craren, Omaha South, diver; Bill Greer, Lincoln, 100 yard breast stroke champion in 1947; Bob Phelps, Lincoln, second in 100 yard breast stroke in 1947; George Hill, Omaha South, freestyle; Ted Kamamine, Omaha Tech, 50 yard freestyle champion in 1947; Tom Harley, Lincoln, freestyle.

Sharpe Reports 75 Cage Hopefuls

Freshman basketball coach Tony Sharp, reports that there are already 75 yearling hopefuls out for early practice. So far he is working only on basic fundamentals, and as yet has formed no teams.

Mr. Sharpe has divided the bunch into two groups, and he works the groups in two hour and fifteen minute periods each day. The first group takes to the courts from 3:00 to 4:15, and the second group practices from 4:15 to 5:30.

Early standouts include: Jack Deffenbaugh, Lincoln; Subby Ruma, Omaha; and Dick Thimgan, Columbus. Other well-known prospects are: Ed Akromis, Omaha; Al Blessing, Ord; Bob Cook, Gehring; Bill Kerr, Central City; Dan Loisel, West Point; Tom Mosiman, Omaha; Herb Ringenberg, Lexington; Bob Rump, Fremont; Ken Stinson, Tecumeh; Gerard Walton, Geneva; and Norman Wilness, Sydney.

Students who have activity tickets are urged to fold the ticket books so that the number four stub is easier to tear off. This makes the procedure faster and will save you time waiting in line.

NU Tracksters Hope for Win Over Wildcats

"Pass that baton, boy pass it." That cry if J. C. Pluvius "chief rain maker extraordinary permits will be echoed all over the stadium today at 11 o'clock when the greyhound built Cornhusker track men meet those of Kansas States Wildcats.

In an interview with Cornhusker track mentor Ed Wier yesterday, he told yours truly "that the boys will be out to win a decisive victory over the "cats". He also said that Bob Reese runs well on Saturdays, but is unable to turn out a creditable performance in mid-week trials; if he does well, however, in today's race, he will be chosen to run in the conference meet next weekend at Manhattan, Kans.

Bossman Wier also said that, Half Kopf who, as you remember suffered a bad knee injury last year, and is doing a fine job of overcoming it thus far this season, is slated to be on the cinder highway this morning if he does not aggravate it. (Knock on wood all ye Husker supporters.)

If we win today, we stand a good chance of taking the conference meet. According to Wier, the boys are going to win today, and come home a winning team next week from Manhattan.

Probable starters for today's "clash" are: "Wildcats" Geo. Owen, Dean Kays, Trevor Watson, Phil Brewster, Virgil Severns. "Huskies" Bill Mountford, Don Morrison, Bob Reese, Jesse Sell, Hal Kopf, Don Theil.

Howard Fletcher, ace grinder from McCook, is scheduled to start at left end for the varsity team against the Kansas State Wildcats Saturday.

Intramural Schedule Continues

Swimming, bowling, handball and wrestling are scheduled for the intramural docket next week.

Swimmers will start their IM tourney October 8 and continue through October 12. Friday night will see the crowning of the individual champions.

Twenty-six inter-fraternity teams go into action Tuesday and Wednesday at the Lincoln Alleys. The Independent league, consisting of six teams, has Tuesday reserved at the Rosewild while the old men of the faculty knock over the pins on Monday nights at the Bowl-Mor alleys. Interdenominational teams bowl every Monday at the Rosewild alleys while the interdepartmental has eight teams competing at the Bowl-Mor.

After the regular season is over on May 16, the keggers will go into a tough individual tournament.

Also on the intramural docket is a handball league starting Nov. 15. L. E. Means, P. E. director, expects 35 to 45 teams consisting of three men to start competition in this sport.

Wrestling will start December 7 and last through Dec. 11. Finals will be held on the night of Dec. 11, as an added attraction to the varsity basketball game with Iowa State Teachers.

Dick Goeglein is scheduled to see plenty of action in today's game against the Kansas Wildcats at 2:00 p.m.

Huskies Gunning For Second Win

McArthur Uni Tennis Champ

Don McArthur, SAE, captured the 1948 all-university tennis singles championship by defeating Bob McGehee, Independent, 6-3, 6-2, 6-2.

Phi Delta Theta's Jim Curran downed Bob Means, Beta Theta Pi, 6-3, 6-4, for third place honors. These four boys were the best from a field of 150 competitors who started play Oct. 3.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon finished first in the team championship bracket with Phi Delta Theta and Beta Theta Pi ending in a tie for the second spot.

In the spring, the Physical Education Department will sponsor a tennis doubles and a mixed tennis doubles tournament. The women's division is also expected to sponsor a women's singles tournament. These tournaments will be played on the new university grass-tex courts.

Colorado Coeds Wear Beanies Too

Boulder coeds carry on a freshman beanie tradition similar to that established among male students at Nebraska.

Freshmen women at Colorado university are required to wear green beanies until the annual tug-of-war with the sophomore coeds. If the freshmen are defeated in the contest, they are required to wear their beanies until Christmas, keep off the Varsity bridge and follow all other freshman traditions. This year, as at Nebraska, the sophomore proved too strong for the freshmen.

Sprague, Geier Supervise Coaching of NU Gymnasts

Because of overwork, Coach Charley Miller will be unable to devote his time to gymnastics this year. Acting as faculty head will be Wrestling Coach B. R. Patterson, while students Phil Sprague and Leo Geir will instruct the newcomers and members of the team.

Altho not coaching the team, Miller will still look after Sprague and Geir.

Other returning lettermen besides Sprague and Geir are

Hoping to avenge all past defeats an aggressive Cornhusker football team will be out to garner their second victory of the season at the expense of hapless Kansas State Saturday.

If the Husker line can live up to past performances, the Wildcats' running attack should be stopped cold. Harold Nevius, Coach Ralph Graham's top ground gainer, will be the main cog of the K-State single-wing offense. Passing for the Kansans will be Dana Atkins, who will try to take advantage of the weak Nebraska pass defense.

Wildcats Unable to Score
First downs are an easy premium for the Wildcats, but they have the inability to score when deep in their opponent's territory. They will try to overcome this weakness by using more of an air attack along with their ground offense.

Potsy Clark has been trying to improve the Husker pass defense. The Nebraska backs seem to grow tense when the opposition throws a pass. The result has been that they play the receiver instead of the ball; thus the 16 touchdowns scored through the air against the Huskers.

Hawkins Starts
In the line will be some surprise starters. Fred Hawkins, who has been fighting hard in practice, will be at left guard, and big Mike DiBiase will fill the other guard slot.

Junior Collopy, Del Wiegand, Bill Mueller, and Phil Young will make up the backfield. This unit has operated smoothly and effectively in the last two games.

The appearance of Cletus Fisher is doubtful, as his leg is still bothering him. Tom "Trainwreck" Novak will see only limited duty at center. In Novak's place will be Bob Costello.

Starting lineups:

Same to same,	L. 16 and N.	Kansas State
Nebraska	Pos	Johnson
Fletcher	LT	Blandford (GC)
Colan	LT	Zollars
