

Klein's Frosh Gridders Meet K-Staters Today

L. F. (Pop) Klein's freshman squad will be out to chalk up its second victory of the season against the Kansas State Frosh this afternoon at 2:15 in Memorial Stadium.

Husker grid fans need only to present student activity tickets at the stadium gates for admission.

The Nebraska freshmen may find rough sledding with K-State which holds a 25-19 win over Kansas U. If the frosh offense can get started it will be hard to stop.

Klein's starting backfield will probably find John Murphy, Glenwood, Ia., at quarterback; Rich Yost, former Omaha South stand-out, in the left half spot; Joe Ponsseigo, Chicago, Ill., righthalf; Nick Adduci, Chicago, Ill., fullback.

Kansas State's starting backfield will see Jack Lorenz, Hi Faubion, Theodore Maupin, and Elmer Creston in the opening lineup.

The Husker Frosh had trouble getting started in their opener against Iowa State but managed to come through with a victory over the Cyclone Freshmen in the final half.

According to Coach Klein this year's squad is showing plenty of spirit and enthusiasm along with a lot of prospective ability. Today's game will show how well they have learned their lessons.

Potsy Clark's weekly letter arrived in the afternoon mail and here are some of the more interesting tidbits from the Husker grid mentor.

He extends a salute to Nebraska followers and says that after being in football for 30 years as a player and a coach he has never seen a group as loyal in both fair and foul weather.

"Here we were riding a five-game losing streak. Yet our stadium was completely sold out for the Kansas State game. Some of the teams in our own conference, which have been winning a majority of their games, have been unable to attract crowds such as we had Saturday," said Clark.

Potsy went on to explain that the team has been winning victories that do not show in the record books. These, he said, are concerned with leadership and discipline. Football is a man's game. And our hearts are getting stouter.

"We still seem to go best on our spread plays when Cletus Fischer is in the role of middleman. That is, Cletus is the back stationed behind center and takes the ball on a direct snapback. He may run or he may pass. However, Saturday we found two other backs who worked this position well. They are Del Wiegand and Gerry Ferguson."

The head coach praised his fleet-footed backs, Dick Hutton, Don Bloom, and Bob Ackerman, who gave the crowd a view of what they can do when tossed into a broken field. Bloom's 82-yard punt return was the highlight. A fellow sophomore, Ferguson, cut him loose with a shattering block. Don appeared stopped at midfield, but managed to keep his feet and pull loose; and from there to the goal line made a fleet and smart run, Clark stated.

Clark also paid tribute to Don Lentz and the University of Nebraska band.

About Saturday's game with Oklahoma Potsy said: "I ate my share of crow, after predicting a victory over UCLA, before they passed the plate along to Dr. George Gallup and Elmo Roper, following the recent elections. So I am not going to burn my fingers

Good Stresses Speedy Offense In Scrimmage

Husker cage mentor Harry Good sent his squad thru an extensive thirty-minute scrimmage Wednesday afternoon.

Emphasizing a fast breaking offense, and setting up the defense hurriedly, Coach Good stressed speed thruout the workout. The tempo of practice has been stepped up this week and the boys are coming around very satisfactorily. Stand outs in the drills have been Joe Malecek, Bus Whitehead, Bob Cerv, and Bob Pierce. Claude Retherford, leading scorer of last year's club, is still sidelined with an ankle injury. He observed practice Tuesday night, but is still on crutches.

Move to PE Building

Due to Kosmet Klub Revue Friday, the squad will work out at the Physical Education building. The practice will be from 7:15 to 9:15, with pictures of one of last year's opponents being shown in the "N" Club Room at four o'clock.

Glass backboards will be installed on the varsity court Monday, and all further scrimmages will be held on that court. They are being installed early to give the boys a chance to become accustomed to them.

Glass Troublesome

The glass boards are much more lively than the old ones and this may affect a team's rebounding. The glass is also troublesome for boys not accustomed to them in shooting. A new ruling in the Big Seven, made in accordance with the National Coaches Association, calls for glass boards at all conference schools. This is a step toward national uniformity of playing conditions.

Preparations for the clinic at York Saturday are being completed. Coach Good announced. Sixteen varsity players will make the trip. A session in the afternoon from 3:30 to 5:30 will see Coach Good explaining fundamental offensive and defensive formations and members of the squad demonstrating.

40 Minute Scrimmage

An inter-squad game scrimmage going the full forty minutes will start at 8:15. Coaches in and around York are urged to attend the sessions, which will be held at the York Municipal Auditorium.

Squad men making the trip: Bob Allen, Ken Anderson, Darrell Brandenburg, Henry Cech, Bob Cerv, Rod Cox, Bob Gates, Ray Jussel, Anton Lawry, Joe Malacek, Bob Pierce, Dick Schleiger, Paul Shields, Dick Srb, Larry Walsh, and Bus Whitehead.

The following fraternities must have their membership lists in the Cornhusker office by Monday, Nov. 15. Those that do not have a blank list may pick them up in the Cornhusker office from either Dick Kuska, or John Connelly between the hours of 2 and 4 p.m.

again so soon. But I will say this: Our team can make the going mighty rough for the bowl-bound Sooners. We have some changes in mind that should strengthen our defense against Jack Mitchell, the wily operator of the split-T formation, and his Oklahoma co-workers."

Beta's Edge Delta Upsilon; Win Fraternity Tourney 7-6

Beta Theta Pi copped the 1948 Intramural touch football championship Wednesday night.

In a bitterly contested tilt at Ag College, the Betas edged a fighting Delta Upsilon crew, 7-6.

Roland Emmett, Bob Means and Bob Kasmarek combined to spearhead the winner's attack. An Emmett to Means aerial early in the second half was good for a touchdown and an almost impossible catch by Kasmarek provided the important extra point. Earlier a long pass from Emmett to Kasmarek put the Betas into scoring position.

The DUs tallied in the first half on a pass from Don Finstrom to Bill Vleck, after driving deep in Beta territory on a series of successful pass plays. The try for extra point was no good when Beta's Bill Greer intercepted a pass in the end zone.

The losers started fireworks on the second play of scrimmage when Finstrom fired a long heave to Chuck Hemingson to put the ball on the Beta 12-yard line. The bid was snuffed, however, when Kasmarek intercepted another pass in the end zone.

Finstrom's passing featured the DU attack throughout the game, and the brilliant pass defense by the winners staved off many threats.

The victory gave the Betas an all-victorious season in the grid sport.

Beta Sigma Psi captured third place in the final standings by dumping Alpha Tau Omega, 9-6, at Peter Pan park. Bob Bull's pass to Norbert Tieman accounted for the winner's TD and an ATO

Potsy Names Travel Squad To Oklahoma

Nebraska's Cornhuskers stepped up their practice sessions in preparation for Saturday's game with the Oklahoma Sooners.

Potsy Clark continued his stress on pass offense using Gerry Ferguson and Del Wiegand in the aerial position.

Jim Myers turned up injured in Wednesday's practice and he will miss the trip to Norman this weekend.

Big Tom Novak is working out in pads for the first time since he was injured in the Kansas game three weeks ago. Novak was back at his center spot with the first string.

Potsy's first string had Ralph Damkroger and Bob Schneider, ends; Fred Golan and Jim Godfrey, tackles; Fred Hawkins and Mike DiBiase, guards; Tom Novak, center.

The football mentor also listed his probable traveling squad for the Sooner trip.

Don Sailors, John Sedlacek, Bob Muljen, Hubert Unger, Bob Lipps, Dick Goggett, Alex Cochrane, Art Bauer, Cletus Fischer, Don Bloom and Bill Moomsey.
