

Betas Snare Splash Title; Goetz Stars

With the football season winding up many people are looking ahead to the approaching cage season which is less than three weeks away. Last year Coach Harry Good's Huskers won 11 of 24 games. This year, we'll venture out on the proverbial limb and predict they should pile up an even more impressive record.

Nebraska's basketball team should be a definite factor in the Big Seven Conference race. Good has one of the best group of sophomores in many years and these boys should add depth at every position.

Last season was the best since 1937-38 when the Scarlet tied with Kansas for the conference title.

Returning performers from last season's team include Rod Cox, Claude Retherford, Paul Shields, Dick Schleiger, Dick Srb, Bus Whitehead, Bob Cerv, Anton Lawry and Henry Cech. Cox, Retherford and Shields are forwards while Schleiger, Srb and Whitehead play center. Cerv, Lawry and Cech are guards.

From last year's Frosh squad Good has height and speed in Darrell Brandenburg, Red Gaston, Jess Sell, Jim Walsh, Ray Lucht, Bob Pierce, Joe Malecek, Bob Gates, Bill Gronin and Larry Walsh.

With the depth that Coach Good has in all positions the Huskers could well finish in the top three. Sophomore cagers will be the key to Nebraska's basketball hopes.

Cornhuskers to Sample Faurot's Split-T Version

Saturday's football clash with the Missouri Tigers is scheduled to be a tough one for the Nebraska Cornhuskers.

The Huskers will get another taste of the split-T formation as originated by Don Faurot. Nebraska players got a sample of the split-T when it was demonstrated by Faurot's pupil, Bud Wilkinson, coach of the Oklahoma Sooners, last week at Norman.

Mizzou managed to slip by Colorado last Saturday with an unimpressive 27-13 score. The Tigers could well try to run up a higher score over the Scarlet.

Now that the Patsy Clark squad knows some of the intricacies of the split-T the NU eleven may be able to stop the Missouri squad cold or at least hold down the score.

The Husker grid mentor called L. F. "Pop" Klein's freshman eleven on the practice hill Tuesday afternoon for duty against the varsity.

Klein's freshmen caught the varsity pass defense off guard as it leaked for one touchdown which was tossed by Joe Ponceigo.

Young and Fischer scored for the red-shirted varsity to give it a 2-1 edge.

Patsy's first string backfield included Gerry Ferguson, Phil

Young, Junior Collopy and Fischer. Bob Schneider was back running with the line.

Gerry Moore and Bob Lipps may not see action in Saturday's tilt. Lipps was hurt in the Oklahoma game and Moore hurt his leg again in Tuesday's practice.

The Husker scout squad again demonstrated Missouri plays for the varsity while Patsy turned the first string loose to run through signals. The Scarlet almost got in some practice under the moonlight before the grid mentor called it quits.

Cyclone Tank Squad Holds First Meeting

Ames, Ia., Nov. 16—Iowa State's 1949 swimming team will give its first public demonstration here Friday when Jack McGuire sends the Cyclones through an intra-squad meet.

McGuire rates the 1949 team as one of the ten best in the nation. Headed by Roger Watts, greatest free styler in Cyclone history, the Iowa State team will meet some of the toughest opposition in the mid-west, Michigan, Michigan State, Minnesota, and Illinois are all on the list in addition to the Big Seven foes.

The Cyclone coach indicates he is ready to unleash another top performer in the person of Ed LaBerge, sophomore sprinter. In recent trials LaBerge has been near national records in the sprints.

Fenderless Dents?

An instructor of "personality" at New York University has recommended specially colored autos for women drivers so men would give them plenty of room on the highways and let them come home with "dentless fenders." Might be better than "fenderless dents" at that.
