

Opportunity for 240 Nebraska Men Open in National Guard

There is opportunity for approximately 240 Nebraska men to receive the advantages of the Nebraska National Guard, Brigadier General Guy N. Henninger, Adjutant General, announced Wednesday.

A result of an increase of strength granted the Nebraska Guard by the National Guard Bureau, this new authorization permits adding one man for each 11 men in the Nebraska Guard ground force units. This addition will be a total of 180 men. The Air Force unit in Lincoln can accept 57 men.

"I am particularly anxious to point out the advantage the National Guard holds for the young men of the State and for the veteran," General Henninger said. "The young men over 17 and under 18½ years old earn immediate benefits such as training, pay, draft deferment, and retirement incomes.

"In the first place, he is exempt under the Selective Service Act of 1948. He is immediately rewarded with pay of $2.50 a night for a private to $5.50 for First Sergeant. If he stays on for 20 years he earns a retirement income."

General Henninger explained that since the Nebraska Guard was an expanding organization, there is ample opportunity for advancement. He emphasized the fact that all National Guardsmen can complete all the requirements for a commission at home without interference with their education or careers.

Requirements have been altered to permit young men to obtain commissions in the army units of the Guard without their having attended college and without serving extended active duty.

Military Men Conduct Sales Of Ball Tickets

Tickets are now on sale for the Military Ball to be held Dec. 3 in the Coliseum.

Cadet officers are in charge of ticket sales. Prices are: regular dance tickets, four dollars per couple; ROTC students or veterans attending in uniform, three dollars per couple; spectator tickets, 75 cents.

Jimmy Dorsey, one of the "Big Five" in dance music, will play for the ball. Known for his solid arrangements and pleasing tempos, Dorsey's group is sometimes called the greatest name band in the world.

Top Billings

He has been featured at such major music locations as the Hotel Pennsylvania in New York, the Sherman Hotel in Chicago and the Palladium in Hollywood.

Appearing with the band will be his new vocalists, Larry Noble and Doty O'Brien, Ray Baudouin, drums, and the trumpet playing of Charlie Teagarden.

The traditional highlight of the ball will be the presentation of the Honorary Colonel. This year's presentation will be awaited with special interest, because her costume is a result of the recent ROTC contest won by Pat Bach of Lincoln.

Bach Receives Watch

Miss Bach was awarded a Gruen wristwatch for her talent. Receiving honorable mention in the contest was Marge Reynolds from Lexington.

The Military Ball is the traditional opening of the formal season at the University. Playing for last year's ball was Sonny Dunham and his orchestra.

NU Calendars Make Useful Gifts--Sampson

"Ideal Christmas gifts" are what Jeannie Sampson, Student Foundation secretary, calls the new and useful Nebraska Calendar. "If you're pondering over your gift list," says Miss Sampson, "it would be wise to consider giving the Calendars, published this year by the Foundation."

The 32-page memorandum books are printed especially to commemorate the 80th anniversary of the University. In the traditional colors of white and red, the Calendar offers pictures of campus highlights which stir fond memories.

Priced at only $1, the Calendars are obtainable in the Foundation office, 308 Union, booths in the Library and Law school, campus bookstores, Miller and Paine's, and from house representatives.

The Calendars were planned to appeal to students, faculty members, alumni, and university friends. Pages alternating in photographs and memorandum spaces should prove interesting and useful to the buyers.

The Calendars are sold already boxed, cutting corners on that Christmas-gift wrapping. They are easy to mail and attractively shaped.

"Now that the Christmas season approaches (pledges say it's only 44 days away), it's time to order your 1949 Nebraska Calendar," comments Miss Sampson.

Yankee Peddler Story on KOLN

"They Stride the Land."

This is the story of the old-time Yankee peddler, with the smooth-slick talking manner which will be presented on Playwrights Matinee Thursday at 4:30 on KOLN.

One of the unusual features about this program is that it will have "live music," according to Darrel Peters, instructor in the radio section of the speech department. The "live music" will be furnished by Miss Helen Murray of the music school, who will play the fiddle for the early American period play.
