Civil Service Sponsors Exam For Treasury Agent Positions

For the first time since the war, examinations will be held and registers established by the Civil Service commission for the position of "Treasury Enforcement Agent."

Applicants must show at least two years' experience in investigative work, legal work involving investigation of pharmacy.

Only Men Eligible

The examination is open to men only, and the age limits for appointments are from 23 to 40.

Starting annual salary for Treasury Enforcement agents is $3,727.20, but agents with some special qualifications may be appointed at an entrance salary of $4,479.60 per year.

Accepted candidates will be employed as T-men in the U. S. Secret service, the bureau of Narcotics, the Alcohol Tax unit and the Intelligence unit of the bureau of Internal Revenue.

College Men Wanted

The Treasury department is particularly interested in attracting college graduates and senior college students for these positions.

Application to take the examinations may be made to the Eighth U. S. Civil service region, Saint Paul, Minn.

As I Was Saying...

BY PAT NORDIN

The famous ZBT party Saturday night deserves honorable mention this week. Police cars paved the way for KFOR men who put the old Zeta house on National hook-up in preparation for the appearance of Norton Garon's date for the evening, film star Elizabeth Taylor.

When the big blue convert with its California license drew up to the door, the deception was revealed. Miss Taylor's stand-in, Jody Yakel, appeared. Nothing daunted, Nort now plans to invite actress Jane Powell to the Military Ball.

Phi Delta pledges deserted the party Saturday to hold an impromptu shin-dig at the home of Bob Mockett. Among those present were Ann Figge and Tim Elliot, Margaret Van Pelt and John Anderson.

The Sammys organized a very successful date bureau Saturday last for their brothers from MU. Jerry Bicker, Arline Fisher, and Ruth Horwitz were among the very satisfied customers.

Off to Tabor for the wedding of Jimmy James and Stan Perry were Mary Alice Cummins, Shirley Douglas, Gracie Nielsen, and Shirley Shaefer. They rented Bob Axtell's car for the journey.

The Kappa Sigs stole the show Saturday night by having the Texas Rangers for their Barn Dance combo. Seen dancing the "Raspa" were Gene Berg and Vania Brown, and Rod Franklin befriending one of the ducks.

The AOPi date supper Sunday night was the setting for the announcement of the engagement of Wendie Corkin and Jim Worcester. Helping celebrate were Robin Rauch and Paul Kirkman, Jenny Tomsig and Don Hodder.

Dates are already being arranged for the Charity Formal at Kings, Dec. 3. Proceeds will go to the various Lincoln orphanages in time to ensure a merry Christmas.

Any Lincoln people, affiliated or unaffiliated, may have their individual pictures for the Cornhusker taken at Warner Medlin studios anytime from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. Wednesday and Friday and from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m. Saturday.

AIRWAVES

By Earl Katz.

"Dusk on a small marshy island off the Carolina coast... and from there on goes a good yarn of a treasure hunt."

So begins Edgar Allen Poe's tale of mystery and suspense, "The Gold Bug" when it will come to life over Authors of the Ages, Tuesday night at 9 over KFOR.

Poe is noted for his weird and imaginative stories, so for a pre-Thanksgiving taste of mystery suspense listen to "The Gold Bug." It is the story of a man who lived on an island with a negro companion.

the friend holds the picture over the fire... a skull appears... and from there on goes a good yarn of a treasure hunt.

Directly opposite last weeks record large cast, the smallest cast for a radio play this year will be used. Paul Schupach will play John, Bob Jones as Le-Grande and Max Lee as Jupiter the negro.

Note: The Author's program will move to a new spot after this program. It will be on Thursday night at 9:30 over KFOR.

Readers seemed to like the hints on mood music as used for radio, so here is some more interesting info.

There is a definite technique in making music fit the mood. For pathos, strings are used. Woodwinds are used to create gayer overtones and brass instruments accompany heavy drama.

Chuck Johnson has got some more news from the Ag program, Farm Flashes On The Air. It seems he is going to have Prof. Frank E. Mussehl, professor of poultry husbandry, "talk turkey," (pardon the pun).

Here's a message from the radio section: Many wishes for a happy Thanksgiving!
