

Eleven Students Chosen for PBK

... From Upper Ten Percent

Eleven members of the class of '49 were presented as new members of Phi Beta Kappa at a banquet held last night in the Union.

Members are chosen by the faculty from the upper six to ten percent of the College of Arts and Sciences. This year's PBK's have over 90 averages and are candidates for degrees in June.

The newly elected PBK's were presented following a talk on Sweden by Chancellor R. G. Gustavson.

The following eleven persons were chosen:

Wilma Atkinson is a psychology major and a member of Psi Chi, psychology honorary, and Phi Mu Epsilon, math honorary.

Alvin Backlund, Jr., is majoring in geology. He is president of Sigma Gamma Epsilon, geology fraternity.

Miriam Bratt majors in sociology, psychology and federal prison work. She is a past secretary of Alpha Lambda Delta and a member of Alpha Kappa Delta, sociology honorary.

Mary Ann Graff is a chemistry major. She is a member of BABW, Coed Counselor Board, Alpha Lambda Delta, Iota Sigma, women's chemistry honorary and Phi Mu Epsilon.

Gladys Jackson has a dual major in English and philosophy. She is a former member of YWCA cabinet, Alpha Lambda Delta, and National Collegiate Players. She is also a member of Masquers and was chosen outstanding supporting actress of the University Theater for 1947. She is a Chi Omega.

NC Carol Henriksen majors in chemistry. She is secretary of Iota Sigma Pi, women's chem honorary and Alpha Lambda Delta.

Gordon Pauley is an economics major and is enrolled in NROTC. He is a Student Union committee member and a member of Delta Upsilon.

Frederick Ware is a pre-med student with majors in chemistry and zoology. He is a member of Nu Med, Theta Nu and "N" club. He is a member of the track team and Phi Kappa Psi.

Donald Wiggins majors in chemistry and math. He is a member of Phi Mu Epsilon, Corn Cobs and Farm House.

Kellogg Wilson is a psychology major. He is a member of Psi Chi, psych honorary.

The Daily Nebraska was unable to contact the eleventh member, Raymond Roth.

Honoraries Give Tea for Ag Frosh

Approximately 120 Home Economic freshmen and new students were guests of Omicron Nu and Phi U, Home Economics professional honoraries, at a tea given Monday afternoon from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m.

Phi U sponsors, Miss Harris, Mr. Doremus, Miss Liston and Miss Oppen, poured for the tea. Omicron Nu sponsors are Dr. Brooks and Miss Haven.

Members are selected for Phi U on a basis of leadership and scholarship in the upper two-fifths of their class. They are eligible as second semester sophomores, juniors or seniors. There are 22 members in this year's chapter. Officers are Phyllis Ross, president; Vivian Frazier, vice president; Ruth Swanson, secretary; Marg Reynolds, treasurer.

Second semester junior women and senior women are eligible for Omicron Nu. They must have an approximate average of 85 and must be active on the campus. There are ten members this year. Officers are Veora Endres Irwen, president; Lois Thorfinnson, secretary; and Ruth Swanson, treasurer.

UNESCO Organization Representatives Named

Committee Lists 47 Groups Participating in Conference

Nations and the organizations which will represent them at the model UNESCO conference were announced today by the pre-conference planning committee. The committee made the selection from preferential lists submitted by organized houses.

The countries, houses and chairmen are:

- Alpha Chi Omega, Colombia, Myra Manplin.
- Alpha Gamma Rho, China, Bill Derick.
- Alpha Omicron Pi, Union of S. Africa, Jo Litz.
- Alpha Phi, Liberia, Janet Kahn.
- Alpha Tau Omega, Greece, Dwight Griswold.
- Alpha Xi Delta, Netherlands, Tony Fleming.
- Beta Sigma Psi, New Zealand.
- Chi Omega, Czechoslovakia, Betty Sheslack.
- Delta Delta Delta, Turkey, Pat Meehan.
- Delta Gamma, France, Katie Rapp.
- Delta Sigma Pi, Liberia, Bob Allgood.
- Delta Tau Delta, El Salvador, Jack London.
- Farm House, China, Dale Flowerday.
- Gamma Phi Beta, Lebanon, Janet Kepner.
- Kappa Alpha Theta, Brazil, Virginia Lapp.
- Kappa Delta, Bolivia, Lou Zimmerman.
- Kappa Kappa Gamma, Canada, Terry Galnes.
- Peggy Reynolds.
- Kappa Sigma, Norway, Russ Toler.
- Phi Delta Theta, Saudi Arabia, Dave McShane.
- Phi Gamma Delta, Mexico, Tony Istetter.
- Phi Kappa Psi, United Kingdom, John Connelly.
- Pi Beta Phi, United States, Marilyn Legge.
- Sigma Alpha Mu, Poland, Chuck Berghoffe.
- Sigma Kappa, Yugoslavia, Mary Louise Horstman.
- Sigma Delta Tau, Audrey Rosenbaum.
- Sigma Nu, Australia, Lynn Hutton.
- Sigma Phi Epsilon, Italy, Dick Miller.
- Zeta Beta Tau, Syria, Millard Morganlin.
- Amkita, Philippine Island, Jane Barker.
- Evelyn Sperling.
- Adelphia, Dominican Republic.
- Brown Palace, Cuba.
- Gloria, Venezuela, Evelyn Barcos.
- Frances Wisniewski.
- Hesperia, Shirley Colnic.
- Howard Hall, Argentina, Elsie Berg.
- International House, France, Marian McElhane.
- Love Memorial, Sweden.
- Men's Dorm, Belgium, Ed Saad.
- Norris House, India, Dave Pickersill.
- Palladian, Iran, Jim Welsh.
- Pioneer, Luxembourg, Chuck Swan.
- Rasmussen, Ecuador, Hester Green.
- Rosa Button, Korea, Beverly Dainton.
- Terrace Hall, Haiti, Joyce Vehmeyer.
- Towne Club, Sherrill von Bergen.
- Wilson Hall, Peru, Jean Shorman.
- Alpha Sigma Phi, Korea, Bob Bradden.

Several organized houses have not submitted preferences. Choices should be listed in order, with reasons for the selection, and left in the UNESCO box in the Union basement or in Room 305 any afternoon.

Some groups will represent nations who are not members of UNESCO. These countries will act as pressure groups or petition for admittance. Groups who wish to represent a non-member nation should contact Shirley Sabin or Bob Nickols, UNESCO co-chairmen.

Vol. 49—No. 53 Lincoln 8, Nebraska, Wednesday, Nov. 24, 1948

Red Cross Committee Stages Show at Veterans Hospital

GEORGE WILCOX, M. C. for the Red Cross variety show at the Veteran's hospital, asks the veteran participants the "64 question." Helping with the show are Jean Fenster and Mary Ann Randall from the college chapter of Red Cross.

The Red Cross institutions committee made its initial step in its entertainment program given at the Veteran's Hospital Monday night.

The college chapter furnished the master of ceremonies, George Wilcox, for the Red Cross variety show at the hospital. Five members of the committee helped as hostesses. Working with the hospital audience were Carol DeWitt, Claire Dalton and Jayne Verhies. Mary Ann Randall and Jean Fenster helped on the stage with the quiz show.

Variety Show Given.

Miss Virginia Griffiths, Red Cross field director, and Mrs. Darby, entertainment chairman for the Veteran's hospital, were in charge of the variety show. Entertainers included magician and ventriloquist Jack Carson. Jack Wells was scheduled for the program, but was unable to appear.

The program for entertainment at the Veteran's hospital preceding Christmas will include two carolling groups, ward parties, distribution of Christmas cards given to the hospital by the Norcross.

See RED CROSS, Page 5

Vacation!!

Vacation at last! According to the Registrar's office, freedom officially begins Thursday, Nov. 25 at 8 a.m. and lasts until 8 a.m. Monday, Nov. 29. No more books, no more tests, no more lectures to sit through—just turkey dinners and sleep, sleep until next Monday at 8.

All-Women Election, Nov. 30, To Name '48 Eligible Bachelors

Nebraska's coeds will elect eight men Tuesday, Nov. 30, as the 1948 Eligible Bachelors.

The all-women election will be held from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. in Ellen Smith hall. The voting booth will be open during the noon hour.

Sponsored by the Mortar Boards, the election will determine the eight men to be presented at the Mortar Board ball, Dec. 10. Selections will remain secret until that date.

Twenty-two Selected

Pictures of the candidates will be posted in the election booth. Twenty-two fraternity and independent men have been chosen by their respective organizations to compete for the Bachelors titles.

The Mortar Boards have booked Gene Krupa and his orchestra for the annual visa versa dance. The ball will be held in the Coliseum at 9 p.m.

A special bargain price of $2.98 is being offered by the Mortar Boards before Thanksgiving vacation starts. Tickets will be $3 after the holiday period.

Last year's Eligible Bachelors were Irv Dana, Lee Goodwin, John Ayers, Bob Wenke, Douglas Doyle, By Hooper, Jim Swanson and Al Potter.

Following are the 1948 candidates: Bob Ackerman, Delta Upsilon; Keith Arterburn, Ag Men's Social; Bob Axtell, Sigma Phi Epsilon; Lyle Bare, Residence Halls for Men; Fred Chael, Beta Sigma Psi; Alan Clem, Alpha Tau Omega; Jack DeWulf, Farm House; Ed Donegan, Phi Delta Theta.

Melvin Engler, Delta Tau Delta; Leo Geier, Phi Gamma Delta; Roger Larson, Delta Sigma Pi; Bob Means, Beta Theta Pi; Phil Pearlman, Sigma Alpha Mu; Phil Raynard, Alpha Gamma Rho; Don Rice, Zeta Beta Tau; Fritz Simpson, Phi Kappa Psi. Rex Pettijohn, Sigma Nu; Ted Gunderson, Sigma Alpha Epsilon; Bill Wright, Tau Kappa Epsilon; Eugene Taylor, Alpha Sigma Phi; Jake Dahlgren, Kappa Sigma; and Charlie Hans.

The Mortar Board's annual ball gives the women a chance to ask for their dates, call for their dates and escort their dates for the evening.