

Big Seven Teams Face Tough Foes

Big Seven Conference cage teams face a full schedule this week, with thirteen games on tap. The University of Nebraska Cornhuskers open a four-game road trip Friday when they meet the Purdue Boilermakers in Lafayette, Ind. Saturday the Huskers will move on to Cincinnati for a game with Cincinnati U. The Huskers go on the road with a two and one record, having gained victory number two with a 61-52 win over Iowa Teachers.

Ohio State at Norman

Oklahoma, pre-season favorites to capture the Big Seven title, also will meet a Big Nine opponent. The Sooners entertain Ohio State at Norman Saturday night.

Probably the roughest week is the one facing Kansas State, Big Seven champs last season. The Wildcats, just returning from a trip to the west coast where they lost to San Francisco and Santa Clara, begin an eastern trip against three rugged opponents.

Tuesday they meet St. Louis U. at St. Louis. The Billikens were second only to Kentucky among college fives last year. Thursday they invade Bloomington, Ind., to meet the Indiana Hoosiers. The K-Staters wind up the week Saturday, meeting Long Island U. in Madison Square Garden.

Baylor at M.U.

The Baylor Bears will provide the opposition for Missouri's Tigers in a two game series Thursday and Friday night at Columbia. Baylor, South West Conference kingpins, will be led by All-American Jackie Robinson, a member of the U.S. Olympic team last summer. The Tigers defeated Washington U. of St. Louis Saturday night, 47-37.

Iowa State, fresh from their victory over Drake, meet Canisius at Buffalo Saturday. The Cyclones' Saturday win over Drake avenged an earlier loss to the Bulldogs.

K.U., Purdue Tangle

Kansas will meet Purdue on the Big Nine team's court Monday and tangles with Drake in Des Moines Saturday. The Jayhawks, unbeaten so far this year, are the Big Seven darkhorse, and will meet their first real test this week.

Colorado picked a tough opponent for this season's opener Friday. The Buffalos entertain powerful Michigan, a team unbeaten in three starts.

Weir Lacks Track Depth

An acute shortage of cindermen was apparent Saturday as track mentor Ed Weir held an hour and a half long workout.

Injuries and sickness accounted for several veterans, but it appears that a considerable number of prospective cindermen lack the ambition to work hard and regularly through the months preceding the regular season.

Featuring the workout were the duels between Thompson and Berkshire in the 60-lows, and the 2000-yard relay. Thompson edged Berkshire by a hair twice in the low sticks, and the combination of Hurlburt, Heim, Keh', and Ware, nudged the Monahan-Kopf-Hartman-Martin foursome in the relay. Results:

60-yd dash: won by Thompson; second, Heim; third, Ware; time .06.5.
Mile and a half: won by Aydin; second, Tiedt; third, Reese; time: 7:34.2.
60-yd low hurdles: won by Thompson; second, Berkshire; time .07.2.
200-yd run: won by Hedberg; second, Runner; third, Yelkin; (rest of top three finishers are freshmen) time: .04.4.
2000-yd relay: won by (Hurlburt, Heim, Keh', Martin); second, (Monahan, Kopf, Hartman, Martin).
Shotput: won by Federit; 47 feet; second, McConnell; 44 feet; third, Nelson; 42 feet.
Pole vault: Keh' topped 12' 6".

Cosmopolitan Club will not hold its regular meeting on Dec. 15. The organization has been invited by the YWCA to an informal Christmas party to be held at Ellen Smith, Wednesday, at 7 p.m.

There will be a meeting of the Naval Fraternity Governing board at 1 p.m. in Room B-8, Armory.

Varsity football squad members attending the N-Club banquet in Omaha Tuesday are asked to meet at the Coliseum today promptly at 4 p.m.

Sig Nu's Take Mat Honors

Sigma Nu grapplers edged Beta Theta Pi 107 to 103 to capture the Inter-Fraternity wrestling championship. The Omaha All-Stars won five of the eight individual titles to sweep the All-University championship with 113 points.

In the feature heavyweight match, brother was pitted against brother, as Herb and Rich Reese battled for the All-University, Beta Theta Pi, and family heavyweight championship. Herb, who was defending the title he won last year, pined brother Rich with less than 30 seconds left in the third and final period of the match. He was leading 5-0 on points up to the finish.

Don Rauh of Sigma Nu was the only finalist to meet the challenge of the powerful Omaha All-Stars. Rauh pinned George Ostermiller of the Stars in the final period of their match in the 165-pound class.

The fastest fall of the evening came in the 121-pound class. Wiry little Lou Caniglia of the Omaha Stars pinned Mike Schmidt of Alpha Tau Omega in the first round. Schmidt escaped from two near falls but Caniglia finally tagged his shoulders after one minute and forty-five seconds of the first canto.

In the only other fall of the program, Ed Lane of the Stars threw Don Clements, representing Alpha Gamma Rho, after sixteen seconds had elapsed in the second period. The victory gave Lane the championship in the 145-pound class.

Harold Gilliland, Kappa Sigma, was awarded a decision over Ken Brown, Phi Gamma Delta, by the narrowest of margins to win the 128-pound class. The two boys battled through three periods of grunting and groaning with neither able to score a point, either via a near-fall or a break. After much contemplation the referee awarded the match to Gilliland.

Results of the eight title matches:

121-pound class, Louis Caniglia, Omaha Stars, pinned Mike Schmidt, ATO, in 1:45.
128-pound class, Harold Gilliland, Kappa Sigma, decided Ken Brown, Phi Gamma Delta.
136-pound class, Don Vermillion, Omaha Stars, decided John Scharf, Independent.
145-pound class, Ed Lane, Omaha Stars, pinned Don Clement, AGR, in :36 of the second round.
155-pound class, Darwin Dahl, Omaha Stars, decided Earl Schneider, also of the Omaha Stars.
165-pound class, Don Rauh, SN, pinned George Ostermiller, Omaha stars, in the third round.
Stars, decided Willie Schaefer, SN.
175-pound class, Don Burson, Omaha Phi Epsilon.
Heavyweight, Herb Reese, Beta Theta Pi, pinned Rich Reese, also of Beta Theta Pi, in 1:46 of the third period.

Wrestlers May Change Rules

It may not be too long until amateur wrestlers the world over are competing under the same set of rules.

That is the opinion of Hugo Otopalik, Iowa State wrestling coach and chairman of the National A. A. U. wrestling committee.

Probably the most important single accomplishment of the committee during the past year was the recent adoption of new A. A. U. wrestling rules. In the near future, Coach Otopalik said, representatives of all wrestling bodies in the United States will gather to attempt to work out a single set of rules for this country.

At present the A. A. U. has one set of rules, NCAA another, the "Y" groups another and the high school groups still another.
