As I Was Saying . . .

BY PAT NORDIN

Another party week-end looms ahead—formals and theme parties alike. Behind the scenes events are particularly interesting this week.

Everyone is going to the Phi Delt formal dinner dance except Bob Allen who says he has "too many suits." This seems obtuse but perhaps he just can't decide what to wear. At any rate, he has lost his social privileges. Tom Shea and Carol Calder, Bob Hahn and Ann Augustine will be there dancing to the music of Dave Haun.

Tonight's the night for the Towne Club Gypsy party at Boomer's, Jan Cochran and John Peck are eagerly anticipating the deal and will probably be seen sitting around the camp fire having their fortunes told. Social chairman is Roberta Sharples.

Another formal of note is the Pi Phi Christmas Cotillion at their house tomorrow night. Crowning of the Pi Phi queen will be the high point of the evening. Cathy Collmeyer and Bob Perry will be there, and also newly engaged Babette Marsh and Joe Wolf.

The international House Christmas party will be a formal event at their house Saturday night from 9 to 12. Steady dating couple Flo Arnold and Ralph Hoyt have the entertainment well in hand with a piano solo and solo respectively.

If you want some sheer amusement Saturday night look in on the Theta Xi "Christmas Morning" party. Couples will attend in exactly the attire for opening presents—and it seems most little kiddies wear "jammies." Fiendish Art Dickie is chairmaning the deal and in attendance will be Hurb Armbrust and Joyce Buck, Gene Rector and Ellie Livingston.

The truth will be known Saturday night at the Gamma Phi "Mystic Desire" party. After a preview of the costumes, it appears everyone is in for quite a shock. These will be revealed in Sunday's issue.

"Immediate dishonorable dismissal from the University for the use of prepared cheating materials or for 'conspiring to use' such materials and a grade of 'F' on the course for a student observed in the act of spontaneous, unpremeditated cheating"—these are the new regulations regarding cheating on exams put into effect on the campus of the University of Houston.

LETTERIP

The following statement is being published for the purpose of presenting the sorority groups position in regard to unethical political practices.

The members of the women's fraternities on the University of Nebraska campus, in conjunction with the policies of the National Panhellenic Congress and College Panhellenic of which we are members, wish to clarify our position to all concerned that we will not tolerate any type of political faction or block voting.

National Panhellenic approves of the merit system of election and appointment and disapproves unethical college political practice such as block voting. We believe that each individual in our chapters should vote for the person she considers worthy of the office.

The Greek letter sororities were not granted their charters by the University of Nebraska as political organizations. We are anxious to emphasize the ideals for which sororities were founded and stand for.

We believe that the relationships on this campus between the affiliated and the unaffiliated should be one of understanding and a spirit of responsible cooperation, and that any effort on the part of Greek letter members to dominate in any way whatsoever does not stand for good citizenship.

As fraternity women we have pledged ourselves to clean college politics. We refuse to participate in any manner whatsoever in any type of so-called block voting.

Booklet Covers Short History Of Foundation

Publication of a Student Foundation history for distribution to members, university students and colleges throughout the country is being planned by a special foundation committee.

A part of the new projects committee of the campus service organization, the committee is headed by Joyce Buck. She is assisted by Ginny Koch, Russ Toler, Wells O'Brien, Phyllis Campbell, Kathy Dodson, Poochie Rediger, Betty Shestak and Mary Hoffmeister.

The booklet will be given to students and members to acquaint them with the work and background of the Foundation. Copies will be sent to other colleges to show them how a student group can help the University in its selling job to high school students.

College graduates are finding ready employment in the major industrial enterprises of the nation. This year the General Electric company alone hired the record number of 1,400 graduates from 150 colleges, attributing this record to effects of the war-time shortage of graduates.
