

Weary of Inflation Days? Check These Depression Era Specials

Way back in 1933—these were the days when one could buy a five course dinner for 35 cents and the Chancellor's salary was being cut to $5000 a year.

Looking through the cardboard-bound, yellowing files of the old archive, the Daily Nebraskans of 1933, we caught a glimpse of an entirely different era. Student life seemed to run about the same—prom queens were being elected, lost fraternity pins were still being sought via the classifieds, and the Kosmet Klub was claiming to have found a surprising array of talent for their Spring Show.

Advertisement Stock

But the advertisements in the Rag reflected the days when a penny was a penny and a dollar was really something. Greeks were considering turning over their houses to the University to make the liabilities match the assets, but a few of the stalwart downtown firms still ran an occasional ad begging for student trade.

Miller's offered "top of the mode" spring suits (strangely similar to 1948 styles) for the extravagant price of $18.75. Men's suits were on sale at Simon's for $15.00 made of the "finest wools available." "Nicely tailored" shirts were offered for $1.00 and handkerchiefs could be cleaned for 2c.

Vaudeville Active

At the Liberty Theatre, the Glenray Comedy company was presenting vaudeville. "The Meanest Woman in the World." Matinees were 10c and "good night seats" ran as high as 35c. "Big Midnight Frolic" was on the agenda for the daring ones who would stay up till 10:45 on Saturday night to get in on it.

Not quite so impressive, but still quite exciting were the movies—"Hot Pepper" was on at the Lincoln, admission, 25c. If you liked to dance, there was a dance tonight at the Pla-Mor. "Admission is only 25 cents per person, but dancing is free," the advertisement says.

Roses for Milady

Boyd's Pharmacy offered a pink rose to each of their dinner guests who came for their 35c five course dinner, consisting of a fruit cocktail, choice of roast young turkey, T-Bone steak, lamb chops, pork chops or pork tenderloin, waldorf salad, asparagus tips, french fried or mashed potatoes, beverage and dessert. A lot of indignation for 35c.

Roses for the best girl could be

Union Plans First Of Platter Dances

Marcia Pratt, chairman of the Union Dance committee, announced yesterday that the first dance of the new program, a Platter dance, will begin at 9 p. m. Friday in the Union ballroom.

Selected records, refreshments and candlelit tables will be provided for the evening's entertainment. Tickets may be purchased at 15 cents each in the Union office Friday evening.

The dance will differ from past juke-box affairs in that the music has been selected for extra good dancing. Platter dances will alternate with Dry Nite Clubs and Unionizers in 1949.

Ron Clark Gets Elks Scholarship

Ron Clark, Ravenna freshman, has been awarded a Lincoln Elks Lodge scholarship for $150. The award is given annually to a deserving outstate student.

One of 65 frosh candidates to receive numerals, Clark saw a lot of action in a halfback slot on this year's squad. The 145 pound scabbard was one of the lightest men to receive letters.

The selection committee for the award was composed of Prof. R. D. Moritz, Stanley Barnett, Gregg McBride, Walt Dobbins and Tom Connelly. Lincoln Lodge donates three scholarships annually, the other two going to Lincoln students and carrying a like stipend of $150.

Theatre Closing Throws Wrench in Activity Plans

The brisk action of campus officials in closing the doors of the Temple Theatre auditorium has thrown a wrench in the plans of many university groups.

The opera, the Kosmet Klub Spring Revue and the remaining University Theatre productions of "Othello" and "I Remember Mama" are perhaps the three most important productions that have had to cancel or change their plans.

Oust for Faust

Fine Arts school director, Dr. Arthur Westbrook, has announced the definite cancellation of this year's opera choice, Gounod's "Faust." Stated Dr. Westbrook, "We have had to cancel the opera for this year as the Temple theatre auditorium is the only place in which to present it. Since choral work has not really begun, the chorus is entirely unaffected. However, some of the performers in the leading roles had been rehearsing their parts for several months. Future opera plans are also indefinite. We are moving our weekly 4 p.m., Wednesday recital to the Social Sciences auditorium. This will be probably be the place for all weekly recitals until the end of the year."

Sub for Klub

Kosmet Klub president Norbert Tiemann has stated that the dramatic club's plans are indefinite. "However," stated Tiemann, "the Klub's Spring Revue will probably be produced in a downtown theatre." Previously, the Spring Revue was in the Temple.

Delay for Play?

Robert Black, director of the forthcoming University Theatre production, "Othello," has stated that the University Theatre is in the process of securing a stage for this year's future productions. Stated Black, "Plans are still in the forming stage, but we expect to arrive at a definite agreement soon."

K State Disbands NSA After Year

After little more than a year's activity on the Kansas State campus, the National Student Association has been disbanded. The action was taken at a recent Student Council meeting.

The Council felt that the college wasn't getting full benefit of the organization, established as a Council sub-committee. NSA members also agreed with the Student Council's stand that the college hadn't been deriving the benefit from the organization that the money put into it warranted.

Stated the Kansas NSA chairman, "This campus is taking care of its own problems by means of SPC and other committees and really doesn't need the help of a national organization."

LOTHARIO - The greatest "maker of time" before Bulova.

ODALISQUE - An Oriental charmer.

FULMINATING - Exploding, thundering.

CIGARETTE HANGOVER - That stale, smoked-out taste; that tight, dry feeling in your throat due to smoking.

IRIDESCENT - Changing colors under light.

AURIOLA - Golden halo.

EUPHONIOUS - Pleasant-sounding.

Our Story Points a Real Moral

Our campus story has a definite purpose: to make you realize the genuine DIFFERENCE that PHILIP MORRIS possesses. We have full proof of that, but too extensive to be scientifically detailed here. We cordially invite interested students engaged in chemistry and pre-medical work, to write our Research Department, Philip Morris Company, 119 Fifth Avenue, New York, N. Y.
