Trainee Jobs Open to Juniors

Juniors majoring in chemistry, engineering, mathematics, metallurgy or physics are eligible for exams for student aid trainee positions at the David Taylor Model Basin, Naval Gun Factory, Naval Ordnance laboratory, and Naval Research laboratory.

Information and applications, which must be filed by Jan. 12, are obtained from the executive secretary, Board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners for Scientific and Technical Personnel of the Potomac River Naval Command, Building 37, Naval Research laboratory, Washington, D. C.

The probational positions, paying $2,724 per year, are usually for employment during school vacation periods. Those appointees who satisfactorily complete the on-the-job training program and are recommended for retention, may be furloughed or otherwise placed in a non-pay status to return to college.

All competitors will take a written test of general abilities containing no technical subject matter.

Faculty Musicians To Give Recital

Myron Roberts, organist, Charma Davies, pianist, and John Whaley, bass baritone, members of the school of fine arts' faculty, will present a recital at 3 p. m. Sunday in First-Plymouth Congregational Church.

The program is as follows:
Fantasia in G minor..... Bach
Prelude.....Corelli
Toccata.....Corelli

This composition has been attributed to Girolamo Frescobaldi (1583-1643). However, a search of early editions of his music shows no such Toccata, nor any work even remotely resembling it. If this is a musical hoax, then it is a delightful one, and the music will continue to be enjoyed through Hans Kinder's orchestral transcription, and Gaspar Cassado's cello and piano version (in which form it first appeared in 1925). The organ transcription is by Mr. Roberts.

Mr. Roberts
Veechia zinnarra, senti.....Puccini
O du mein holder Abendstern.....Wagner
Tannhauser.....Wagner
Mr. Whaley
Miss Davies
Berceuse.....Vierne
Impromptu.....Vierne
Four Impressions (Mss).....Roberts
The Orion Nebula
The Ring Nebula in Lyra
The Veil Nebula in Cygnus

KU Receives Relic From NU Museum

The University of Kansas is taking an elephant skull and jaw from Elephant hall at the Nebraska museum as their part of an open exchange, Dr. C. B. Schultz, director of the museum has announced.

The skull and jaw were collected by a university field party in Kansas in 1930. At some future time, the University of Nebraska will receive some material from the University of Kansas in exchange.

Students are requested to have Activity ticket number nine ready for presentation at the door when attending the wrestling matches Friday night.

They have what it takes

TELEPHONE LINEMEN have the traditional Bell System spirit of service that aims to "get the message through." They also have what it takes in the way of equipment and supplies.

Their wires, cables, poles, tools and countless other things are provided by Western Electric—maker or supplier of practically everything used in your telephone service. We carry stocks of 31,000 different items to help all Bell telephone people, not only to do their daily job of maintaining and expanding telephone facilities but also to meet sudden emergencies.

Western Electric has been a part of the Bell System for many, many years—ever since 1882. Our people share in the System's spirit of service. We, too, are always ready to answer the unexpected hurry call—to help "get the message through."

AIEE to Hear Personnel Head

Joseph R. Branford, personnel director of Western Electric, will speak at a meeting of AIEE Jan. 12 at 7:30 p. m., in room 206 of Richards Lab.

He will speak on "Practical Problems of Personnel in Industry."

Branford was a recipient of the A. P. Sloan fellowship in '39, which gave him training at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. He received his Masters degree from there in 1940. Men are selected for this award on the basis of outstanding ability and service to the company.

He served with the American Air Force in Germany after VE day making a survey of electronics manufacture. He studied conditions in various German industries.

After Branford's address, AIEE will hold a short business meeting.

Red Cross Holds Driving Course

Drivers of the Red Cross Motor Corps, arm of the College Unit, will have an instruction class Saturday morning in the Union.

Lois Bareman, Corps chairman, announced that Lieutenant Witt of the State Safety Patrol and Captain Schibley of the City Police department will speak to interested students attending.

The course, four hours in length, is a prerequisite to Red Cross driving and Motor Corps membership. Students who take the course and complete a physical check-up at Student Health will be qualified to drive the Red Cross station wagon in volunteer service.
