

SOMETHING TO SHOOT FOR—From left to right—Newt Copple, Earl Luff and Ed Copple pose with the trophies to be awarded to varsity wrestlers.

Huskers Open Diamond Drills This Week

Nebraska baseballers opened spring practice sessions this week with their sights set on defending the Big Seven crown won by last year's nine.

Tony Sharpe, Husker diamond coach, has issued a call for all upperclassmen wishing to try out for a mound spot to report to him in the Coliseum any day before three o'clock.

Fifteen batterymen have reported for early drills, including veterans Jim Sandstedt and Elroy Gloystein, top NU hurlers last season. Jim Sharp, an outfielder last spring, is making a try for a mound position.

Also shooting for varsity hill berths are: Jack Helmsing, Omaha; Sterling Van Vleck, Neligh; Dick Todd, Millard; Bob Camp, West Point; Bruce Perrine, Kansas City, Mo.; Ernest Behne, Brainard; and Neal Haffenmeister, Seward.

Catching hopefuls include Dil Blatchford, Maskell; Willard Branson, Stanton; Tom Novak, Omaha; and Delmar Deerson, Bennington.

IM Cage Slate THURSDAY

3 p. m. Sigma Phi Nothings vs. Sigma Gamma Epsilon; Dorm A-1 vs. Dorm C-2; Dorm B-2 vs. Dorm B-1. 7 p. m. Delta Theta Phi vs. Phi Delta Phi; Dental School vs. AIEE; Phi Alpha Delta vs. Architects. 7:30 p. m. Brown Palace vs. Phi Kappa Xi (B); Sigma Nu vs. Phi Gamma Delta (B); Zeta Beta Tau vs. Sigma Alpha Epsilon (B). 8:45 p. m. Delta Upsilon vs. Kappa Sigma (B); Alpha Gamma Rho vs. Sigma Alpha Mu (B); Theta Xi vs. Beta Theta Pi (C).

IM Rifle Matches THURSDAY

Beta Theta Pi vs. Delta Chi; ROTC I vs. Ag. Men's Club; Navy II vs. Pershing Rifles II; Navy I vs. Pershing Rifles I.

"Try Seventeen. You'll love it," says Senior

Glamorous coeds know it's that natural look men look for! That's why they use Seventeen Cosmetics, the cosmetics made for sensitive skins... the cosmetics that are free as possible of allergy-causing ingredients. Follow their lead. Use Seventeen Cosmetics for peaches-'n'-cream loveliness. Priced to fit campus budgets...

SEVENTEEN COSMETICS
on sale at
GOLD & CO.

Husker Grapplers Aim at Trophies

University of Nebraska wrestlers have something more than points to shoot at as the result of trophies donated by former Cornhusker mat lettermen.

Newt and Ed Copple, and Earl Luff have donated trophies they are shown holding in the above photo. Newt Copple has presented the scholarship award, Ed Copple holds the award to the top freshmen, and Luff holds the cups which go to the most improved wrestler and the high point maker.

IM Basketball Play Resumed

Play was resumed in the Intramural Basketball leagues Tuesday, with 18 teams seeing action.

In the feature game of the evening, the Phi Delta Theta "A" team eked out a 33-28 victory over SAE. The game was close thruout, with the Phi Delt's going to rest with a 15-14 edge. Dick Meissner poured in 12 points for the Phi Delt's, while Bill Wenke paced the losers with 7.

In other intramural games, Lutherans raced past the Inter-University 25-18. Zeta Beta Tau "A" team defeated Delta Sigma Phi 27-14. Reformatory Guards swamped Muscle Men 39-11. In a low scoring contest, the Kappa Sigma "C" team hit Delta Upsilon 11-4.

Phi Delta Theta "S" squad defeated Phi Kappa Psi 20-12. Two "B" league games were played with Delta Tau Delta swamping AGR 30-13, and Theta Xi slipping past Pioneer Co-op 22-20.

Brown Palace Co-op won a close one from Pioneer Co-op 20-18, in an "A" league game.

Wrestlers Go For 4th Win Against I-State

The University of Nebraska wrestlers are trying for their fourth win of the season when they meet Iowa State Friday night at 7:30 in the Coliseum.

The Cyclones have lost their only two meets to date while Nebraska has won three of its five contests.

Coach Pat Patterson named Louis Caniglia of Omaha, to captain the Cornhuskers. Caniglia is making his first start since losing a decision in the Oklahoma A.&M. meet.

A new Husker face will wrestle in the 165 pound class. George Ostermiller and Earl Schneider are presently battling for the berth.

The entries:
121 pounds—Iowa State, Dave Maney; Nebraska, Louis Caniglia.
128 pounds—Iowa State, Ralph Van Eaton or Jim Malas; Nebraska, Robert Yambor.
136 pounds—Iowa State, Bob Kucera or Don McCormick; Nebraska, Mickey Spurrano.
145 pounds—Iowa State, Jack Parsons or Roger Davis; Nebraska, Jack Tamm.
155 pounds—Iowa State, Dick Ditzworth or Pat Bush; Nebraska, Robert Russell.
165 pounds—Iowa State, Bush or Don Thomas; Nebraska, Ostermiller or Schneider.
175 pounds—Iowa State, Thomas or Ray Kloutyski; Nebraska, Herbert Reese.
Heavyweight—Iowa State, John Stead; Nebraska, Mike DiBlase.

Former Creighton Prep Grigger Transfers to NU

William Wingender, former Creighton Prep football standout, has enrolled at the University of Nebraska. Wingender attended the University of Washington at Seattle the first quarter.

Dual Swimming Entries Made

Entries for the Nebraska-Iowa State dual swimming meet to be held at the Coliseum pool Friday afternoon at 4:30 were announced Wednesday.

The Cornhuskers are undefeated in four dual meets while the Cyclones have two dual meet victories and a second place in the Iowa AAU championships.

Iowa State has one of the greatest free style swimmers in the country in conference champion Roger Watts.

Watts recently tied the intercollegiate 220-yard free style record of 2:09.7 in a meet with Illinois. He also swims the 440-yard free style.

The Cyclones have another conference champ in diver Sam Shiffler.

The entries:
300-yard medley relay—Iowa State (Earl Jezek, Bob Nielsen or Chuck Cownie, Dick Kullman); Nebraska (Jack Campbell, Conrad King, Ted Kanamine).
220-yard free style—Iowa State (Roger Watts, Howard Lambert); Nebraska (Marvin Grimm, George Hill).
30-yard free style—Iowa State (Ed Loberge, Malcolm Schmidt); Nebraska (Perry Branch, Ted Kanamine, Tom Harley).
Diving—Iowa State (Sam Shiffler, Ray

Jim McConnell Using Swedish Steel Pole

Jim McConnell, Central City, University of Nebraska track man, is using a steel vaulting pole. It is a Swedish innovation and Jim is the only vaulter in this area using this type of pole. It provides considerable "whip" and has almost tossed Big Jim out of the pit on occasion.

Obermiller, Dave Bonebrake); Nebraska (Ed Craren, Gould Flagg).
100-yard free style—Iowa State (Ed Loberge, Malcolm Schmidt); Nebraska (Marvin Grimm, Ted Kanamine).
150-yard backstroke—Iowa State (Earl Jezek, Bob Wyant); Nebraska (Jack Campbell).
200-yard breaststroke—Iowa State (Ed Howes, Bob Nielsen, Howard Johnson, Charles Cownie); Nebraska (Bill Greer, Bob Phelps, Conrad King).
440-yard free style—Iowa State (Roger Watts, Howard Lambert); Nebraska (George Hill).
400-yard free style relay—Iowa State (Malcolm Schmidt, Dick Kullman, Rush Smith, Ed Loberge); Nebraska (Perry Branch, Jack Campbell, Tom Harley, Marvin Grimm).

VALENTINES

For Friends, Sweethearts, Kiddies and Relatives
Goldenrod Stationery Store
215 No. 14 Open. Thur. to 9

MAGEE'S

Your College Clothing Store

Carole King JUNIOR DRESSES

Coke-Dater

This two-piece dress in fabrics is just right for gay spur-of-the-moment doings! The fabric design, Carole King's alone. The jacket, rayon shantung; the skirt, rayon crepe. Sizes 9 to 15 in sparkling spring shades.

16.95

Exclusively
MAGEE'S Third Floor

BACK TO SCHOOL FOR SECOND SEMESTER

Replenish Your School Supplies
At the "O" Street College Headquarters

- | | |
|----------------------|-------------------|
| Engineering Supplies | Artist Supplies |
| Slide Rules | Textile Paint |
| Drawing Sets | Brushes |
| T-Squares | Colored Pencils |
| Drawing Paper | Water Color Paper |
| Law Books | |
| All General Supplies | |

Remember—Veterans requisitions honored

Latsch Brothers
STATIONERS PRINTERS

1124-26 "O" Street