| Kappa Kappa Gamma | Nancy Sayre |
| Pi Beta Phi | Marilyn Legge |
| Sigma Delta Tau | Roberta Rosen |
| Sigma Kappa | Patricia O'Brien |

THE QUEEN WILL be chosen by vote of those attending the ball. This is the first time in two years that an Interfraternity Sweetheart has been chosen.

Featuring the music of Eddie Haddad and his orchestra, this year's ball will be a formal affair. Tickets may be purchased from any council member for $1.20 a couple.

To follow the fraternity theme for the ball, the Union ballroom will be decorated with the crests or emblems of all Greek fraternities. The Interfraternity ball is an annual affair held on the campus.

Chuck Thoene, Phi Gamma Delta representative, is in charge of arrangements for the dance. Committee members working with Thoene are Paul Weltcheck, Zeta Beta Tau; Frank Loeffel, Farm House; Doug Peters, Beta Theta Pi and Bill Norton, Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

Calendar

The Daily Nebraskan is setting up a calendar of events for the entire semester so that news can be anticipated in advance. All organizations are asked to contact Louise McDill at the "Rag" office in the Union basement to file their activities in the desk book. Office hours are from 1 to 5 p. m. every afternoon. All organization events can be given better news coverage if this system of planning can be established.

Engineers Seek Ideas For Displays

Departmental chairmen of Engineers' Week today urged students to submit ideas for the displays which are an important part of the annual affair. Men willing to assume the responsibility of project foremen are also needed.

Originality of design and ingenuity of construction give almost unlimited range to the projects. Engineers' Week is supported entirely by engineering students on campus. Because sale of ribbons is the primary source of revenue, very little money is allotted for individual projects. It is felt by the committee that this adds to the competition of the departments participating in Engineers' Week.

DEPARTMENTAL chairmen are:

- Ag. E., Leslie Jochens, 5-7257
- Arch E., E. A. Griffiths, 5-8650
- Richard Kusek, 2-7651
- Chem E., Ed Finley, 3-5871
- Duane Morin, 4-1798
- C. E., Joe Patterson, 50-8015
- Charles West, 50-8772
- E. E., Floyd Bean, 5-4067
- Al Schneider, 2-5583
- E. M., Darrell Frederick, 2-5550
- M. E., Carl Hellerich, 3-1632
- John Powell, 6-1937

"Idea boxes" are posted in all engineering buildings. Any instructor will know the location of the closest departmental file box.

Lippincott Will Give Modern Dance Recital

Miss Gertrude Lippincott, well-known modern dancer, will appear at the Love Library auditorium Feb. 15 at 7:30 p. m.

She will be presented in a program of dances brought to the University campus by Orchesis and the department of Art. The program will be in conjunction with the student UNESCO conference. "Dance, as all the arts, is a universal medium furthering artistic understanding between peoples of all countries," said Miss Lippincott.

The program includes:
 Incantation.....Frederick Mompou
 Tragic Lullaby.....Edward Megroth
 The Devil is Loneliness.....
 Llonel Nowack and Marshall Bialosky
 Suite.....Alfredo Casella
 Invitation.....Louis Horst
 Dance of Dedication.....Llonel Nowack
 Deirdre of the Sorrows.....Henry Cowell
 Three Indecisions.....Llonel Nowack
 Miss Margaret Stableske will be the accompanist.

Ag Professor Will Address Vesper Service

Dr. T. H. Gooding, professor of agronomy on Ag campus will speak at Vespers Thursday, Feb. 10, on the subject "How to Make Christian Convictions Known on the Campus."

Dr. Gooding received his B. S. and M. S. degrees from the University of Nebraska and his Doctor's degree from Cornell University in New York. Since 1919 he has been teaching agronomy at the University except from 1930 to 1932 when he taught at Cornell.

Dr. Gooding has worked with the Y.M.C.A. In 1927 he was one of the organizers of the Pre-Easter Breakfast, which is an annual campus event and one of the few campus traditions which has come down through the years.

At the present time Dr. Gooding is a member of the University Religious Welfare council and is faculty advisor for this organization on the Ag campus. He is also faculty advisor for the Interdenominational Fellowship board, which he help organize in 1942.

Vespers are sponsored by the Religious Welfare council and are held at the University Episcopal church on the corner of 13 and R streets every Thursday from 5 to 5:30 p. m.

Union to Sponsor Square Dancing

A series of square dancing lessons will be offered beginning Feb. 16 at 7:30 p. m. Classes will be held at the Union.

This activity was brought about by the interest being shown over the United States in this particular type of dancing.

The sponsor of this activity, the Union, has contracted Dave Saunders, one of the better known callers of the West, to handle the classes.

The class will begin Feb. 16 at 7:30 p. m. and the first three classes will be primarily for beginners, although anyone can come; while the last four classes will take in the more advanced steps. Everyone is welcome.

Instructors, Students Offer Services to AUF Faculty Auction

Would you like to have the questions to your next Political Science test? Like to be editor of The Daily Nebraskan for a day? Care to have a professor wait on you for a whole day? Like to have a home-cooked meal at the home of your Law professor?

It may sound like a dream—but it isn't! All of these prizes and more will be sold to the highest bidder at an AUF-sponsored auction Friday afternoon in the Union ballroom.

AT THAT TIME a number of selected instructors and students will offer their wares to buyers to help raise AUF funds. No admission will be charged to the rally. Everyone is invited by Joel Bailey, AUF special events chairman, to "drop in and bid on anything."

Bids will be accepted for dates with any of the 1949 Beauty Queens or Eligible Bachelors. The services of all of this year's Innocents and Mortar Boards will also be for sale. A 1948 Cornhusker will be auctioned off by Head Auctioneer Karl Arndt, professor of economics.

THE EDITORSHIP of The Daily Nebraskan for one day will also be at stake on the auctioning block.

A few of the professors already named as participants in the auction are:

Dr. A. C. Breckenridge, assistant professor of political science, who will give a third of the questions to his next class test in advance.

Mr. N. J. Sitar, French instructor, who will let a student teach his class or whatever the winner wishes.

Mr. Don Kline, speech instructor, who will give the student a 9 to average in with his six weeks grades.

MR. HOUGHTON FURR, instructor in law, who will have a student and his date to dinner.

Jean Wolcott, assistant graduate instructor in science, who will do a lab drawing for a biology or zoology student.

Mr. J. V. Harmon, jr., instructor in English, who will be available for any service the student wishes during the day.

Dr. Curtis Elliott, associate professor of economics, who will also offer his services to a student for a day.

Miss Bailey emphasized Wednesday that these prizes are only a part of those to be auctioned at the rally. It will take place from 4 to 6 p. m. in the ballroom Friday afternoon. All proceeds will go to the AUF.

Ag Y's Install 40 Reporters Officers; 75 Answer Call At Rag Party

Officers and cabinet of the Ag YW and YM were installed Tuesday evening in the Warren Methodist church with Rev. C. B. Howells of the Baptist Student house as speaker.

Heading the YM are Stan Lambert, president; Bob Epp, vice president; Warren Monson, district representative; Merwyn French, secretary, and Tom Lambert, treasurer.

NEWLY ELECTED YW officers are Laverna Acker, president; Irene Wellensiek, vice president; Alice Boswell, district representative; Polly Ludlow, secretary and Dorothy Bowman, treasurer.

Organ music for the installation was played by Howard Yates. Miss Ruth Shinn, YW director, gave the response reading and Gordon Lippett, YM director, gave the challenge to the officers. Helen Ochsner and Mavis Musgrave sang a duet.

OVER 75 persons witnessed the inspiring candlelight dedication with officers and cabinet members participating. YM cabinet members are Don Wiles, deputation; Virgil Ganzel, membership; Rex Messerschmidt, social problems in agriculture; Howard Temple, Bible study; Darrel May, Know Your Community; Rex Crom, Mountaineer editor; Homer Fishwood, Tuesday evening worship; George Wagner, Thursday morning worship; Ken Mohling, social chairman; Dale Flowerday, publicity; Owen Brainard, N book; Jerry Shafer, freshman commission; Neal Baxter, music; Harold German, athletics and Bob Craft, historian.

Forty prospective reporters congregated in The Daily Nebraskan office Tuesday night for a reception and pre-view of duties by the staff.

Editor Norm Leger introduced staff members who explained various fields in which reporters may work. Cokes and brownies were served.
