

As I Was Saying...

By Pat Nordin

"It's so easy to see
How happy we are
For over my heart
I wear a white star."

With this verse, Nancy Cremeens, petite NU freshman, announced her surprise pinning to Alpha Xi Delta sisters Monday night.

Pinmate Jack Cougan shared the enthusiasm for the good old institution but would rather have had less "fuss."

The romance began with a coke date two months ago, a steady arrangement three weeks later and now a Sigma Nu pin.

"It's certainly exciting being a freshman," Nancy remarked. "He said, 'Can you keep a secret?' I said, 'I doubt it'; and I was pinned."

The pinning of "P and G" was

SOCIAL CALENDAR

Friday
Kappa Sig formal, Cornhusker hotel.
BABW dance, Union ballroom.
Amekita formal, College Activities building.
Loomis hall, House party.
Alpha Phi formal, Lincoln hotel.
Palladian Valentine party, Union.

Saturday
Interfraternity ball, Union ballroom.
Intervarsity Christian Fellowship dance, Union.

Sunday
Afternoon tea, Love Memorial hall.

announced Monday night by Phillys Thomsen and Gordon Pauley. Not quite as proficient, but going steady, are Edith Holze and Harold Beckner.

Campus Scene * * * Newly-wed "Moose" Cooper arrived 20 minutes late to Miss Meredith's one o'clock English class Thursday. After a lengthy explanation of the household duties of married life, "Moose" suddenly remembered he was in the 2 o'clock class and silently folded away.

LATEST VICTIMS of a whirl-wind pinning are Nancy Cremeens (right) and Jack Cougan. Nancy still can't figure out why Jack owns two "white stars". The two set a record of two months. Try and break that!

Fashion Plate

By Carolyn Bukacek

Included in every college man's wardrobe should now be one of each of the following: cloth-of-gold sport shirts with three-quarter length sleeves; brocaded silk pajamas; Picasso pink sweaters with plunging necklines and polka-dotted suspenders.

You may think this is a rather sloppy piece of sarcastic humor, but it isn't. Word has been received from some of the most stylish haberdasheries in New York, and this is the forecast and/or ultimatum they have made. Behind the change are the leading designers of men's clothing, who decided that this was the year for a change in men's attire. Along with the changing styles of dress will come a change in smoking habits—the switch to the cigar, a more robust smoke!

The change to vivid colors, incidentally, is supposed to bring out both the "beast" and the "best" in man. It accentuates what fashion authorities call his "lustiness." A rugged tan glows threateningly under the challenge of hot pink. Muscles look twice as powerful set off by a masculine polka dot, king size.

The combination of huskier clothes and cigar-smoking are coupled under a general trend toward making college men "the lusty type." Last fall the introduction of such a type was made when fashion designers presented the "bold look." This idea took hold, and it is scheduled to continue. Of first importance at the promotion desks of large manufacturers of men's clothing are two new colors. They are walnut brown and navion, which is a combination of navy and aviation blue.

Suits for the coming season have lapels that spread an inch wider on either side of the manly chest, each lapel sporting a one-inch welt seam at the edge. Suits are cut easier, with more fullness through the chest. Not only suspenders, but ties and garters have taken on polka-dots. No! the feminine type dots. Fashion authorities call them "dubloon dots," because they are a full inch in diameter, and they're patterned against bold, solid color backgrounds.

Shirts come in a wide range of vivid colors, including flamingo, kelly, topaz, and eggshell, and have the added personality of wide-spread collars with stitching one-half inch in from the edge. New shoes are heftier with black soles and uppers in a new shade called midnight muros, which is a deep reddish-brown. With this combination, the young man may wear black, brown or grey.

The final note in the college fashion picture—the cigar—has changed, too. Not to be outdone by clothing makers, the cigar manufacturers have put into their lines a special collegiate style—a new, smaller edition of the popular panatella designed especially for casual campus smoking!

Louisiana Vets Get State Bonus

World War II veterans from Louisiana may apply for their state bonuses at the Lancaster county office at 1445 N street, it was announced Thursday.

The bonus provides for $250 for overseas veterans; $50 to $150 for domestic service and $1,000 to war widows or other dependents. The service must have been between Jan. 1, 1941 and March 1, 1946.

Veterans applying for bonuses must have had Louisiana citizenship at the time of induction or enlistment.

Van Heusen Shirts

Are Sold Exclusively in Lincoln at

Men's Store
Street Floor

AIChE Migrates For Conference

AIChE, society of chemical engineers, is planning a migration to the regional conference in Lawrence, Kas., it was announced today.

Sponsored by the University of Kansas AIChE chapter, the meeting will include group discussions on chemical engineering projects and a tour of the Kansas campus.

New AIChE officers include Warren Koenig, president; Cecil Doubt, vice-president; Fred Feldhausen, secretary; Duane Morin, treasurer.

Coed Counselors Sponsor Party

The second semester "get acquainted" party will welcome all new freshmen girls Friday from 3:30 to 5 p. m. in Ellen Smith hall.

Entertainment will include a reading by Sharon Fritzer and songs by Christine Ackerson, Jan Schweser and Susie Koehler. Refreshments will be served.

"Make mine Seventeen," says campus Junior

Seventeen Cosmetics are first choice of campus lovelies everywhere. They depend on these fine quality cosmetics for skin care, for glamorous makeup. And well they may! For Seventeen Cosmetics are free as possible of allergy-causing ingredients... are priced to fit, oh so smoothly, into campus budgets.

SEVENTEEN COSMETICS on sale at
GOLD & CO.

German Movie To Star Tenor Jan Kiepura

Starring the renowned tenor, Jan Kiepura, the German film, "Charm of La Boheme," will be presented at 8 p. m. Friday in Love Library auditorium.

A FILM version of Puccini's famous opera, the film has been lauded as "one of the most impressive of cinema opera." Co-starred with Kiepura is soprano Maria Eggerth. The film includes English sub-titles.

On reviewing the film a New York Times critic stated, "The Wise, Oklahoma's conference film creates a real-life parallel to the opera which shadows the lives of the players and cloaks the transitions so cleverly that one cannot say where Puccini's fancy leaves off and film's fact begins or whether it owes more of its drama to the composer than it does to the script writer."

"IN OTHER WORDS, the story of "La Boheme" and the story of the picture's characters have been so interwoven that, for the film's purposes, they stand as one—equally harmonious, equally tragic."

The movie is sponsored by the University YMCA. Admission is 50 cents.

TONIGHT COLLEGE NIGHT

at

KINGS
The Gay Nite Spot

Dancing 9 until 12
Couples Only
Adm. 1.50 per couple
Tax Included

for the occasion!

Van Tux
Van Dress
$5.95

White tie affair or black, Van Heusen dresses you for the occasion. These special shirts have snowy white pique fronts, French cuffs, fine handkerchief-cloth bodies, all tailored with that extra magic of Van Heusen seamanship. Van Tux in two collar-attached models—wide-spread and regular. Van Dress is neckband only. Your dealer has these hard-to-find shirts right now!

A new shirt free if your Van Heusen shrinks out of size

Van Heusen shirts
the world's smartest shirts

PHILLIPS-JONES CORP., NEW YORK 1, N. Y.